Message from the Rector

Dear Lenten People,

Our journey to the Cross has begun. The Season of Lent is a marvelous opportunity for repentance, conversion and a chance to see God's many gifts all around us.

"How's your life going?" an individual asks you. "Well, so-so could be better." Or "Didn't get the promotion." Or "The kids are driving me crazy!" Or "People won't leave me alone so I can finish my talk on selfishness."

Are we so focused on what we don't have that we are blind to what we have been blessed with from the Lord? At the same time, we spend too much of our time worrying. We sometimes worry and fret because there is nothing to worry about at that moment! Max Lucado in his book, Grace for the Moment, says this about worry.

Two words summarize Christ's opinion of worry: Irrelevant and irreverent.

"Can all your worries add a single moment to your life? Of course not." (Matthew 6:27 NLT). Worry is irrelevant. It alters nothing. When was the last time you solved a problem by worrying about it? Imagine someone saying, "I got behind in my bills, so I resolved to worry my way out of debt. And, you know, it worked! A few sleepless nights, a day of hand wringing. I yelled at my kids and took some pills, and—glory to worry—money appeared on my desk."

It doesn't happen! Worry changes nothing. You don't add one day to your life or one bit of life to your day by worrying. Your anxiety earns you heartburn, nothing more . . .

Ninety-two percent of our worries are needless! Not only is worry irrelevant, doing nothing; worry is irreverent, distrusting God.

Beside worrying too much and sometimes focusing on what we don't have in our lives our "rugged individualistic" attitude can get in the way of living life to the full. What do I mean? Some people have difficulty understanding the value of community. George Bernard Shaw once said, "I am of the opinion that my life belongs to the community, and as long as I live, it is my privilege to do for it whatever I can." And learn the lesson from Canada Geese

As each bird flaps its wings, it creates uplift for the bird immediately following. By flying in a "V" formation, the whole flock adds at least 71 percent greater flying range than if each bird flew on its own. People who share a common direction and sense of community can get where they are going more quickly and easily, because they are traveling on the thrust of one another.

When a goose falls out of formation, it suddenly feels the drag and resistance of trying to go it alone and quickly gets back into formation to take advantage of the lifting power of the bird in front. If we have the sense of a goose, we will stay in formation with those people who are heading the same way we are. When the head goose get tired, it rotates back in the flock and another goose flies point. It is sensible to take turns doing demanding jobs, whether with people or with geese flying south.

Geese honk from behind to encourage those up front to keep up their speed. Always encourage those who have the courage to be out front.

Finally, and this is important, when a goose gets sick or is wounded by gunshot, and falls out of the formation, two other geese fall out with that goose and follow it down to lend help and protection. They stay with the fallen goose until it is able to fly or until it dies; and only then do they launch out on their own, or with another formation to catch up with their own group. If we have the sense of a goose, we will stand by each other like that.

Remember—We need each other and the importance of gathering weekly around the Table of the Lord for strength on the journey. Worry less and pray more! Something worth thinking about this Lenten Season.

Flying with you,

Fr. Greg

LET US CONTINUE TO PRAY FOR PEACE

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace. Where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

O, Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love; For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; it is in dying that we are born again to eternal life.

Sign of Peace & Communion from the Cup During Cold & Flu Season:

As we enter this cold and flu season, it is important to recognize that some people are especially susceptible to the viruses that can be spread by contact and that some immune systems are very sensitive. Please understand that some people may choose not to shake hands during the Sign of Peace, but might simply greet you with a smile. If you do decide to come to church for Mass, please remember that frequent and thorough hand - washing, refraining from physical contact during the Sign of Peace, and refraining from receiving communion from the Chalice can help prevent the spread of germs.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Under his wings the Lord shall give you shelter; you will find your refuge and hope in him; ever you will surround you with his great truth.

COMMUNION HYMN

I Am the Bread of Life

Worship Hymnal #950

Jesus Walked This Lonesome Valley

Dale Wood

Jesus walked this lonesome valley, He had to walk it by himself. O nobody else could walk it for him, He had to walk it by himself. We must walk this lonesome valley, we have to walk it by ourselves; O nobody else can walk it for us, We walk it by ourselves. Jesus walked the road to Calvary; He bore our sins upon the cross! O nobody else is like our Savior, He died that we may live.

SUPPER THANK YOU

This month marks the 14th year that our Human Concerns Commission has hosted the Thursday Suppers each week at Catholic Charities (August will be the 13th year for our Friday Suppers). Most of our Thursday Suppers served to the 130 dine in guests are donated by local restaurants. Since 2006, our third Thursday Supper has been donated by Chicago Chop House.

Located at 60 W. Ontario, with a Buick Touring car in front, Chicago Chop House features hand-cut steaks, a live pianist nightly, 1,400+ historic photos on its walls, and a spirit of hospitality that extends to its patrons and to our third Thursday Supper guests.

One way to express our gratitude to the owners and staff for 14 years of support is to make a reservation, enjoy one of Chef Martin's specials, and personally thank them for their generosity to our Supper guests.

BLESSINGS IN A BACKPACK

Volunteers pack and deliver 250 bags of supplemental food to St. Malachy School each week during the academic year. The bags reduce the chance of hunger on weekends, allowing students to focus on their education and enjoy being kids!
