

February 22– Monday of the 1st Week of Lent

Victims of Domestic Violence

Loving God,

You are the author and sustainer of our lives.

You know the anguish of the sorrowful,

You are attentive to the prayers of the brokenhearted.

Hear your people who cry out to you in their need.

Strengthen their hope in you everlasting goodness.

We pray today for those who have died because of violence, of terrorism.

Draw them to yourself; let your face shine upon them.

May they be greeted with choirs of angels and experience your eternal peace and joy.

Be near to all those who have been touched violence: those who have been hurt, lost their loved ones or lost their sense of security.

Before them a steady comfort and safe resting place.

Soften the hearts and steady the minds of those who would do violence to others. May hate be replaced with love, violence with peace, and darkness with our light.
