Reflections from the Rector

Dear People of God,

The cold January winds remind us that spring is still in the distance. The winds howl and we long for warmer days and bright sunshine. The same image can be applied to our lives. At times our hearts are restless and the waters of our life are choppy. The winds howl and we wonder if we will ever find joy and light at the end of the tunnel. We also go through times in our life when the waters and wind of life are calm. Both in the turbulent times and calm days of our journey the Lord Jesus is with us. Are we open to His presence?

The following story is a keeper! Read.....Reflect.....and pass it on.....

Can You Sleep While the Wind Blows?

Years ago, a farmer owned land along the Atlantic seacoast. He constantly advertised for hired hands. Most people were reluctant to work on farms along the Atlantic. They dreaded the awful storms that raged across the Atlantic, wreaking havoc on the building and crops.

As the farmer interviewed applicants for the job, he received a steady stream of refusals. Finally, a short, thin man, well past middle age approached the farmer. "Are you a good farm hand?" the farmer asked him. "Well, I can sleep when the wind blows," answered the little man. Although puzzled by this answer, the farmer, desperate for help, hired him.

The little man worked well around the farm, busy from dawn to dusk, and the farmer felt satisfied with the man's work.

Then one night the wind howled loudly in from offshore. Jumping out of bed, the farmer grabbed a lantern and rushed next door to the hired hand's sleeping quarters. He shook the little man and yelled, "Get up! A storm is coming! Tie things down before they blow away!"

The little man rolled over in bed and said firmly, "No sir. I told you, I can sleep when the wind blows."

Enraged by the response, the farmer was tempted to fire him on the spot, instead, he hurried outside to prepare for the storm. To his amazement, he discovered that all of the haystacks had been covered with tarpaulins. The cows were in the barn, the chickens were in the coops, and the doors were barred. The shutters were tightly secured. Everything was tied down. Nothing could blow away.

The farmer then understood what his hired hand meant, so he returned to his bed to also sleep while the wind blew.

Can we sleep when the wind blows through our life and the waters of life are choppy and turbulent? We secure ourselves against the storms of life by grounding ourselves in God. We may not have all the answers, but are we able to trust, surrender and let the hand of God touch us with His peace during the storms of our lives? In the arms of God, sleep well when the wind blows!

On the lighter side, enjoy some of the wit and wisdom of Will Rogers. Laughter is wonderful medicine during these cold and dreary days of January.

- Never miss a good chance to shut up.
- If you find yourself in a hole, stop digging.
- Good judgment comes from experience, and a lot of that comes from bad judgment.
- If you're riding ahead of the herd, take a look back every now and then to make sure it's still there.
- The older we get, the fewer things seem worth waiting in line for.
- Some people try to turn back their odometers..... Not me. I want people to know WHY I look this way.
- When you are dissatisfied and would like to go back to your youth, think of Algebra.
- One must wait until evening to see how splendid the day has been.
- Long ago when men cursed and beat the ground with sticks, it was called witchcraft. Today it is called golf.

Keep smiling,

Fr. Greg

Blessing of the Oils

In today's Gospel reading, we hear Jesus read from the scroll, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me." Anointing is an important part of our Catholic faith as we are anointed at a variety of stages of our lives – Baptism, Confirmation, possibly as Catechumens, and when we are sick. The three oils are blessed, traditionally during Holy Week by the Bishop.

Our Archbishop, Cardinal Cupich, consecrates the sacred Chrism and blesses the other oils. It is among the principal manifestations of the fullness of the Bishop's Priesthood and is considered to be a sign of the close bond of the Priests with him. For it is with the sacred Chrism that the newly baptized are anointed and those to be confirmed are signed. It is with the Oil of Catechumens that catechumens are prepared and disposed for Baptism. Finally, it is with the Oil of the Sick that those who are ill are comforted in their infirmity.

Catholic Illuminations

Change the World through the Word

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

On Sept. 30, 2019, the Feast of St. Jerome, Pope Francis issued a Motu Proprio entitled “Aperuit Illis.” The title comes from Luke 24:45 where Jesus opened the disciples’ minds to understand the Scripture in the post-resurrection story of the Road to Emmaus.

In his Motu proprio, Pope Francis declared the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time, “Word of God Sunday.” He shared his desire that the Word of God be celebrated, studied and shared throughout the world. The Bible is a collection of books of various genres meant to be read in their own unique way. The Psalms are different than the Letters of Saint Paul. By bringing to attention the importance of the Word of God in the life of the Church, Pope Francis is inviting each of us to renew our awareness of the Word of God in our life and to share its message: that all people are encountered, loved and saved in Christ Jesus, with the world around us.

This celebration is important to us as Catholics and as individual Christians. One way to honor the Word of God in your personal life is to place your Bible in a prominent place in your home. For some, that may require you to buy a Bible, or for others, to dust it off from your bookshelf or nightstand drawer. But each person who wants to have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ needs to talk to Him, and that is done through personal prayer and reading about Jesus of Nazareth. The Bible is our way to begin our journey with the Lord on the road to Emmaus, where Jesus will open our hearts and our ears, to learn and feel his love for every one of us.

Pope Francis discusses the inseparable link between the Scriptures and the Sacraments. Each Sunday we are fed by the Word of God in the Liturgy of the Word. Then we are fed on the Word made Flesh, Jesus Christ, in the Eucharistic Meal in the climax of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. Let us use this Word of God Sunday as a wake-up call to reflect on how we are allowing the Word of God, both in Scripture and in Jesus Christ who is the Word made Flesh, to change our hearts and impel us to go out and change the world by sharing the Word with those we meet.

Visiting Our Favorite Italian Saints

Pilgrimage June 15 – 25, 2022

Have you ever wanted to visit some of Italy’s greatest saints? From June 15 to June 25, 2022, you will have an amazing opportunity to travel with Catholic author, speaker, and retreat leader Dr. Amy Cattapan (St. Emily Parish, Mt. Prospect) and Fr. Andy Matijevic (Associate Pastor, Holy Name Cathedral) for the “Visiting Our Favorite Italian Saints” pilgrimage. This tour will visit some of Amy and Fr. Andy’s favorite spots (and saints!), including St. Rita of Cascia, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Clare, Padre Pio, and a multitude of saints in Rome and the Vatican.

Interested in learning more? Join us for a brief informational meeting on Tuesday, January 25, 2022, at 7:30 P.M. on Zoom. To receive the Zoom link, scan the QRcode below. There will be special prizes and deals for the Zoom attendees!

Evangelization

Living with the Saints

Holy Thoughts from Our Holy Fathers

This saintly information compiled by Fr. John Boivin

"Help me to conquer anger with gentleness, greed by generosity, apathy by fervor. Help me to forget myself and reach out to others."

Make prudent in planning, courageous in taking risks.

Make me patient in suffering,
unassuming in prosperity.

Keep me, Lord, attentive in prayer,
temperate in food and drink,

diligent in my work, firm in my good intentions."

--Pope Clement XI (1700-1721), Universal prayer

"Consult not your fears but your hopes and your dreams. Think not about your frustrations, about your unfulfilled potential. Concern yourself not with what you tried and failed in, but with what is still possible for you to do."

--Pope St. John XXIII (1958-1963)

"It is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else satisfies you; He is the beauty to which you are attracted; it is He who provoked you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is He who urges you to shed the mask of a false life; it is He who reads in your hearts your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle."

"It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be ground down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal."

--Pope St. John Paul II (1978-2005)

"A nation can be considered great when it defends liberty as Lincoln did, when it fosters a culture which enables people to 'dream' of full rights for their brothers and sisters as Martin Luther King sought to do; when it strives for justice and the cause of the oppressed as Dorothy Day did by her tireless work; the fruits of faith which becomes dialogue and sows peace in the contemplative style of Thomas Merton."

--Pope Francis (2013 to present),
2015 address to U.S. Congress

Opportunities to Serve at Catholic Charities Suppers

“And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased.” Hebrews 13:16

No matter how much of your time or whatever talents you can share, the Thursday/Friday Suppers welcomes your help!

What is it?

Every Thursday and Friday, Holy Name Cathedral partners with Catholic Charities and parishioners to serve 120 people who need a helping hand.

Serve at Catholic Charities

Volunteers pack 60-to-go bags and serve a hot meal to 60 guests, working from 3:00pm – 5:00pm on a Thursday or Friday.

Bake

Volunteers are needed to bake 120 cookies or small desserts we serve at our Thursday and Friday suppers.

Donations

All food for the program is provided by HNC. We need help reaching out to local restaurants to donate 120 meals for one of the Thursday or Friday suppers each month.

Entertainment

Can you play the piano? We would love to entertain the guests with music on Thursdays and Fridays from 4-5pm.

Sign up today

Please share your areas of volunteer interest. One of our program leaders will be in touch with you.

Join Our Young Adults at Catholic Charities

2nd Friday each month – Friday, February 11

Our Young Adults group gathers each second Friday of the month to serve our neighbors in need. We serve from Catholic Charities at 731 N. LaSalle Street, between Superior and Huron. We meet from 1:30pm to 3:00pm. We've had a few new people join over recent months but we would love even more to join! You can check on the details on our Facebook page @hncya

Stewardship

“Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared. For rejoicing in the Lord must be your strength.”
(Nehemiah 8:10)

In today's first reading, Ezra's instructions to the people show us that God does not forbid us from enjoying the good things in life. God wants us to be happy. God also asks us to be grateful for all that He has given us and to generously share our blessings with those who are in need. The Holy Name Cathedral Faith Community consistently responds to the call to give with open hearts and open minds. Thank you for your generosity and your support of all our Cathedral ministries, programs and special projects. Your giving has a significant impact on our mission to inspire, nurture, and join people on their faith journey as they encounter and grow in Jesus Christ.

A Prayer for Stewardship

O Lord, giver of life and source of freedom, we know that all we have received is from your hand. Gracious and loving God, You call us to be stewards of Your abundance, the caretakers of all You have entrusted to us. Help us to always use Your gifts wisely and teach us to share them generously. Send the Holy Spirit to work through us, bringing Your message to those we serve. May our faithful stewardship bear witness to the love of Jesus Christ in our lives. We pray with grateful hearts, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Special Collection for Church in Latin America

All Masses on January 22 & 23

Bishop Octavio Cisneros invites you to help strengthen families, fund Catholic education, and foster priestly and religious vocations by giving to the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For over 50 years, Catholics in the United States have expressed solidarity with the Church from Mexico to the Caribbean, to the southern tip of South America through the Collection.

We will have a special collection this weekend for this fund. Learn more about the work of our brothers and sisters in Latin America on the next page of today's bulletin.

Sign up for eGiving today!

eGiving is a secure and convenient way of giving to Holy Name Cathedral. It is eco-friendly and cost-saving. Just scan the QRcode to make your one-time, weekly, or monthly donation.

If you have any questions, please contact Mary Lederer at mlederer@holynamecathedral.org or call her at (312) 573-4432.

your generous heart!

Share YOUR Faith

Support the Collection for the Church in Latin America

I should no longer say that I have neighbors to help, but that I must myself be a neighbor to others.

—Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, no. 81

On June 26, 2020, Fr. Ricardo Antonio Cortez Martínez, rector of the St. Óscar Arnulfo Romero seminary in Usulután, El Salvador, sent a request to the Subcommittee on the Church in Latin America for financial aid for 42 seminarians in the philosophy stage of their formation. Less than two months later, on August 7, Fr. Ricardo was found assassinated. Despite a falling homicide rate in El Salvador, three priests were slain from 2019 through August 2020.

To answer the call to priestly or consecrated life is a courageous act of faith, especially in a time and place where priests face violence, as Fr. Ricardo did. The Subcommittee on the Church in Latin America recognizes the courage and openness of seminarians, such as those at the St. Óscar Arnulfo Romero seminary, by supporting their formation as they prepare for lives of dedicated service. Your support for the Collection for the Church in Latin America makes it possible for young men in El Salvador and throughout Latin America and the Caribbean to answer that call. Thank you for your generosity.

A Little Humor from the Rector

“If you had to choose between drinking wine every day or being skinny, would you choose red or white?”

Our New Parking Garage is Open!

IMPORTANT! Please be sure your vehicle exits the parking lot within the validated time on your ticket (e.g. two hours for Masses). This is important for people who are arriving for the next Mass. If you do remain beyond the validation period, there is a $100 fee (payable in the garage) in order to exit the parking garage. There is no overnight parking. Cars remaining overnight will be subject to towing.

What happens if I lose my parking ticket?

If you lose your parking ticket, you will be responsible to pay the $100 fee to exit the parking garage. When you approach the exit gate on LL1, you will press the button to issue a Lost Ticket. Then re-insert the ticket and use a credit card to pay the fee. Holy Name Cathedral is not able to provide tickets or waive the fee.

Important Validation Tips

Only insert your parking ticket into the validation machine one time. If you insert the ticket twice or more, it will cancel your validation and you will not be able to use it to exit the garage.

When you approach the exit gate, insert your validated ticket into the machine. Do not attempt to scan it as this will not open the gate.

For additional information and frequently asked questions, please visit our website.

Scan the QRcode to take you to the parking page on the Holy Name Cathedral website.

Sights and Sounds of the Cathedral Conference

The Cathedral Ministry Conference is a biennial gathering of Roman Catholic pastors/rectors and staff from around the country involved in the management of Cathedrals. Postponed one year by COVID, Holy Name Cathedral hosted this year's conference. About 70 attendees gathered across three locations, the Sofitel Hotel, St. James Chapel, and Holy Name Cathedral. Highlights include opening Mass celebrated by Cardinal Cupich, keynote speakers Cardinal Joseph Tobin, Rev. Ricky Manalo, Rev. Louis Cameli, 15 workshops, the Organ/Brass concert, and a variety of networking forums. Congratulations to the planning team for a very successful conference!

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal
