Reflections from the Rector

Dear People of God,

We continue marching through winter and will soon turn the page and start February. Our Lenten journey is still a month away and the long days of winter can feel like an eternity. Despite the pandemic still with us, we are called to love this world back into life and be the light of Christ to all we meet. Never give up! Christ is our strength, our hope and joy on the journey.

I share a wonderful story with you that was recently given to me. Read.....and please pass it on.....

"A pastor of a small church would occasionally call on one gentleman to pray, and every time this one particular guy would pray, he would pray, "Oh God, thank you for this world today, and bless these people today." Then he would end with the strangest statement, "And, oh God, oh Lord, prop us up on our leaning side."

Finally, the pastor pulled him aside, and he said, "I love the way you pray, but I don't understand your little closing phrase. What are you talking about –prop us up on our leaning side?" He responded, "Well, Pastor, I'm a farmer. I live out on the farm and, you know, I live in the country. I've got an old barn, and it's been there a long time. It's been through a lot of weather, and a lot of storms, and a lot of bugs have eaten at it."

He said, "I got to looking at it one day when I was riding on my tractor, and I noticed that it was leaning to one side. So, I thought to myself, oh my goodness! The barn is leaning, and it's only a matter of time before the whole thing falls."

He continued. "So you know what I did? I went and got some pine beams, and I propped it up on its leaning side." He said, "It still leans, and probably always will. But I propped it up on its leaning side. And it's not going to fall down because I propped it up on its leaning side. And I got to thinking about it."

When I was on the tractor, Pastor, and I was riding in the field, I thought about the kind of year I've had, and some of the storms I've been through, and some of the people that are bugging me, and eating away at my joy and eating away at my spirit. And I just got to thinking, you know, I'm still here! I'm still standing after all that stuff I've been through. The storms, and the howling winds –they couldn't topple me. I'm still standing by the grace of God."

Oh Lord, prop us up on our leaning side.

He concluded, "From time to time, I find myself leaning. Leaning toward my old desires, leaning toward anger, leaning toward becoming bitter or hateful at the people who are bugging me, or leaning toward going back to the old habits and the old life I used to have. And when I feel myself start leaning toward that tendency, I just remember that old barn, and I pray out loud on my tractor – "Lord, I thank you that you're going to prop me up on my leaning side."

Jentezen Franklin

Despite the long cold days of winter, the continuing pandemic and all the struggles with life, we can also pray: "Lord, I thank you that you're going to prop me up on my leaning side!" Amen.

On the journey with you,

Fr. Greg

The Role of Candles

Candles play an important role in the Catholic Church and their origins go back centuries. The symbolism of light has long been used in religious practice, as well as the general usage of candles. In Judaism, a perpetual light was kept burning in the Temple and synagogues to show the presence of God.

Christians adapted the use of lit candles for Mass, liturgical processions, evening prayer ceremonies, funeral processions, and to show reverence to the Blessed Sacrament. It is also likely that candles or oil lamps were burned at the tombs of the saints, particularly martyrs.

In the Catholic Church, light has always had a special significance because it represents Christ. We know that Jesus called himself the Light of the World. Additionally, St. John's Gospel connects Christ with the imagery of light in John 1:4: "In him was life; and the life was the light of men."

Catholic Illuminations

Never see your shadow with Christ's light

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Feb. 2 is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, also known as Candlemas, and since 1997, it has also been referred to as World Day of Consecrated Life.

The Feast of the Presentation occurs 40 days after Christmas, keeping in line with the Jewish law of ritual purification of the mother after the birth of a son. Because blood was seen as impure, every time a child was born, the mother was ritually impure until her purification in the Temple. In Leviticus, chapter 12, the law states a mother is ritually impure for 40 days after the birth of a son, and 80 days after the birth of a daughter. In the same chapter, Leviticus states the purification ritual: offering a lamb or a pair of turtledoves to be sacrificed and making her clean (Leviticus 12:6-8).

The Gospel for the Feast of the Presentation (Luke 2:22-40) reminds us of the ritual purification and sacrificial offering. Though the Christmas season ends liturgically on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, with Mary's purification, it ritually restores her to her Jewish community.

This day is also known as Candlemas because in the Gospel, again, there is reference to Jesus as the Light of the World through the words of the prophet Simeon. A common practice on this day is for churches to bless candles that will be used throughout the year for liturgical celebrations. Some communities also have candlelight processions into the church, to show that Christ truly is the light that guides us on the journey of life.

In a nod to Fr. Marek, our Director of Liturgy, in Poland this day is called Święto Matki Bożej Gromniczej (Feast of Our Lady of Thunder) because candles are blessed for the faithful to take home and place in their windows to ward off storms, as well as to protect their homes when there is a rainstorm.

In 1997, Pope St. John Paul II declared Feb. 2 as World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life for a few reasons. He said this day is to praise the Lord and thank him for the great gift of consecrated life in the Church, to promote knowledge of consecrated life among the People of God and to allow those who are consecrated to celebrate how God is at work in their lives and their ministry.

The Holy Father chose the Presentation of the Lord to celebrate Consecrated Life because it "is an eloquent icon of the total offering of one's life for all those who are called to show forth in the Church and in the world, by means of the evangelical counsels." Let us pray on Wednesday for Consecrated Religious, and for the Church that all of us may be lights of the world and never stray from the Light that guides us to fullness of life, Jesus of Nazareth.

First Friday Adoration

Friday, February 4 at 8:30am

The Catechism quotes Pope John Paul II: "The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go to meet him in adoration, in contemplation full of faith, and open to making amends for the serious offenses and crimes of the world. Let our adoration never cease." (CCC, 1380)

Every vocation in the Church comes from and through Christ Jesus. It is he who calls. Spending time in Eucharistic Adoration with our Divine Lord and Friend is a good place to go to ask what he wants with our life. Why not spend some time each week in adoration, in union, in contemplation of the Lord present in the Eucharist?

Join us to spend time together at our First Friday Adoration on February 4, in church or via livestream.

Living with the Saints

Mission, prayer & offerings

This saintly information compiled by Fr. John Boivin

“God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission — which I may never know it in this life, but will be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do his work. I shall be an angel of peace, a preacher of truth in my own place while not intending it — if I do but keep His Commandments. Therefore, I will trust Him. Whatever, wherever I am, I can never be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him; if I am in perplexity, my perplexity may serve him; if I am in sorrow, my sorrow will serve Him. He does nothing in vain. He knows what He is about. He may take away my friends. He may throw me among strangers. He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me — still He knows what He is about.”

— St. John Henry Newman (Oct. 9)

“A soul to whom prayer is a familiar thing profits more from the sacraments and the other means of salvation than does another in whom prayer, intermittent prayer, is disconnected and without vigor. A soul that is not faithfully devoted to praying can recite the Divine

Office, assist at Holy Mass, receive the sacraments, hear the word of God, but its progress will often be mediocre. Why is that? Because the principal author of our perfection and of our holiness is God himself, and prayer keeps the soul in frequent contact with God; it establishes, and keeps going a fire-hearth in the soul. As soon as that soul is put in direct communication with the Divine life (for instance in the sacraments) this is like a strong breath of air that sets the soul ablaze. A soul's supernatural life is measured by its union with God through Christ in faith and love. This love has to produce acts; but those acts, if they are produced in a regular and intense way, require a life of prayer. Progression forward in our love of God depends in practice on our life of prayer.”

— Blessed Coumba Marmion (Oct. 3)

“Take, lord, and receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, my entire will — all that I have and call my own. You have given it all to me. To you, Lord, I return it. Everything is yours: do with it what you will. Give me only your love and your grace. That is enough for me.”

— St. Ignatius of Loyola (July 31)

Prayers

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.
