Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Our journey to the cross continues. Lent is an opportunity to take a long look at our life. When all is said and done, how much is God part of my life?

Lent is a time to probe deeply those areas of my life which keep me from being the person I need to be regarding loving, forgiving and being Christ to others. Let me offer a different lens. Something to think about. I share with you what someone some years ago gave to me. ... Read and pass it on. ...

Too many people put off something that brings them joy just because they haven't thought about it, don't have it on their schedule, didn't know it was coming or are too rigid to depart from their routine.

I got to thinking one day about all those people on the Titanic who passed up dessert at dinner that fateful night in an effort to cut back. From then on, I've tried to be a little more flexible.

How often have your kids dropped in to talk and sat in silence while you watched "Jeopardy!" on TV?

I cannot count the times I called my sister and said, "How about going to lunch in a half hour?" She would gas up and stammer, "I can't. I have clothes on the line. My hair is dirty. I wish I had known yesterday. I had a late breakfast. It looks like rain." And my personal favorite: "It's Monday." She died a few years ago. We never did have lunch together.

Because Americans cram so much into their lives, we tend to schedule our headaches. We live on a sparse diet of promises we make to ourselves when all the conditions are perfect! We'll go back and visit the grandparents when we get Steve toilet trained. We'll entertain when we replace the living room carpet. We'll go on a second honeymoon when we get two more kids out of college.

Life has a way of accelerating as we get older. The days get shorter, and the list of promises to ourselves gets longer. One morning, we awaken, and all we have to show for our lives is a litany of

"I'm going to," "I plan on," and "Someday, when things are settled down a bit."

When anyone calls my "seize the moment" friend, she is open to adventure and available for trips. She keeps an open mind on new ideas. Her enthusiasm for life is contagious. You talk with her for five minutes, and you're ready to trade your bad feet for a pair of rollerblades and skip an elevator for a bungee cord.

My lips have not touched ice cream in 10 years. I love ice cream. It's just that I might as well apply it directly to my stomach with a spatula and eliminate the digestive process. The other day, I stopped the car and bought a triple-Decker. If my car had hit an iceberg on the way home, I would have died happy.

Now...go on and have a nice day. Do something you WANT to...not something on your SHOULD DO list. If you were going to die soon and had only one phone call you could make, who would you call and what would you say? And why are you waiting?

Make sure you read this to the end; you will understand why I sent this to you.

Have you ever watched kids playing on a merry-go-round or listened to the rain lapping on the ground? Ever followed a butterfly's erratic flight or gazed at the sun into the fading night? Do you run through each day on the fly? When you ask, "How are you?" Do you hear the reply?

When the day is done, do you lie in your bed with the next hundred chores running through your head? Ever told your child, "We'll do it tomorrow." And in your haste, not seen his sorrow? Ever lost touch? Let a good friendship die? Just call to say "Hi?"

When you worry and hurry through your day, it is like an unopened gift.... Thrown away.... Life is not a race. Take it slower. Hear the music before the song is over.

Lent is a marvelous time to stop procrastinating and let the Lord Jesus steer the ship of our lives. I promise the Lord will never let us sink!

On the Lenten Journey with you,
Fr. Greg

On the Cover

This scene of the biblical event of the Transfiguration of Jesus is captured in this beautiful fresco, painted in the Church of the Transfiguration, Mount Tabor, Galilee, Israel. The Transfiguration is significant because it was the glorification of the body of Jesus for those with Him saw Jesus in His glory. The appearance of Moses and Elijah spoke to Jesus being the One to whom the law and prophets spoke.

In today's Gospel (Luke 9: 28b-36), Jesus' disciples need reassurance. Shortly before this passage, Jesus, who was to be "savior" of all (Luke 2:11), has told his followers that he will suffer rejection and execution (Luke 9:11). On the mountain, the disciples receive their assurance: a dazzling vision of the glory that will follow Jesus' passion and a glimpse of the divine essence Jesus shares with the Father.

The familiar story of the Transfiguration makes one thing clear: prayer changes us. Just as a cloud came over Peter, James, John and Jesus as they prayed together on the mountaintop, so too does God overcome us at times when we pray. Do we cower in fear and cling to the familiar ways of life? Or do we heed God's command to listen?

Catholic Illuminations

Election Day at the Cathedral

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

A cathedral in a diocese is known for many liturgical celebrations that are important to the life of the diocese.

Examples include priesthood and diaconate ordinations where men are ordained to serve God's people, Chrism Mass where the oils we use for our Sacraments — Chrism, Oil of the Sick and Oil of the Catechumens — are blessed by the bishop and distributed to the parishes, and even installation Masses of new bishops where a new shepherd takes leadership of his diocese. But one event that is often overlooked or neglected is the Rite of Election. This event takes place in the beginning of Lent each year and is important to the life of the local Church.

Last weekend and this weekend, Holy Name Cathedral is hosting the Archdiocesan Rite of Election and invites those to be baptized in the Church at this upcoming Easter Vigil, to come before the bishop to reaffirm their intention to be admitted to the Church through the Sacraments of Initiation. "Within the Rite of Election, the bishop celebrant or his delegate declares in the presence of the community the Church's approval of the candidates" (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, #122). The whole Archdiocese is represented in this liturgical event as people from Cook and Lake counties come together to be accepted by the Church for the Easter Sacraments. As each catechumen's name is called in the rite, their name echoes throughout the Cathedral, joining with the names of so many who have been found worthy to participate in the Paschal Mystery of Christ.

After the Rite of Election and until Holy Saturday, the catechumens are called "the elect" because they have been 'elected' to participate in the Sacraments of Initiation at the Great Vigil of Easter, Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist as the bishop says, "The Church in the name of Christ accepts their judgment and calls you to the Easter Sacraments" (RCIA, #132).

We, as the Cathedral parish, have a duty to pray for our brothers and sisters who will be baptized into the Church on Holy Saturday, at the Easter Vigil, because they will soon call the Cathedral their mother church as well no matter the parish they belong to in the Archdiocese. Let us then be mindful during this Lenten season to pray for those preparing to enter in Christ's passion, death, and resurrection, and celebrate with them the joy of Easter when they conquer sin and death with our Lord, the same victory we share in by our own baptism.

You Are Invited to Become a HNC-Trained Lector

When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his word, proclaims the Gospel. Therefore, the readings from the Word of God are to be listened to reverently by everyone, for they are an element of the greatest importance in the Liturgy.

There will be three days of required lector training.

Pope Francis' Prayer for Peace

Lord God of peace, hear our prayer!

We have tried so many times and over so many years to resolve our conflicts by our own powers and by the force of our arms. How many moments of hostility and darkness have we experienced; how much blood has been shed; how many lives have been shattered; how many hopes have been buried... But our efforts have been in vain.

Now, Lord, come to our aid! Grant us peace, teach us peace; guide our steps in the way of peace. Open our eyes and our hearts, and give us the courage to say: "Never again war!"; "With war everything is lost". Instill in our hearts the courage to take concrete steps to achieve peace.

Lord, God of Abraham, God of the Prophets, God of Love, you created us and you call us to live as brothers and sisters. Give us the strength daily to be instruments of peace; enable us to see everyone who crosses our path as our brother or sister. Make us sensitive to the plea of our citizens who entreat us to turn our weapons of war into implements of peace, our trepidation into confident trust, and our quarreling into forgiveness.

Keep alive within us the flame of hope, so that with patience and perseverance we may opt for dialogue and reconciliation. In this way may peace triumph at last, and may the words "division", "hatred" and "war" be banished from the heart of every man and woman. Lord, defuse the violence of our tongues and our hands. Renew our hearts and minds, so that the word which always brings us together will be "brother", and our way of life will always be that of: Shalom, Peace, Salaam!

Amen.

Living with the Saints

Holy Advice on How to Avoid Temptation and Sin

This saintly information compiled by Fr. John Boivin

As is our liturgical tradition, last weekend, on the first Sunday of Lent, the Gospel is the story of the temptations of Jesus in the desert. This year from St. Luke (4:1-13); last year from St. Mark (1:12-15); next year from St. Matthew (4:1-11). His temptations are to remind us of our temptations. Not one of us is a stranger to sin; aren't we all bombarded by temptations? We know firsthand how we have been seduced and deceived again and again. What do some of the holy people of our tradition write about temptation and sin?

"An excellent method of preserving interior silence is to keep exterior silence...even in the world, each one of us can make his own solitude, a boundary beyond which nothing can force its way unperceived. It is not noise in itself that is the difficulty, but the noise that is pointless; it is not every conversation, but useless conversations; not all kinds of occupations, but aimless occupations. In point of fact, everything that does not serve some good purpose is harmful. It is foolish, nay, more, it is a betrayal to devote to a useless objective powers that can be given to what is essential. There are two ways of separating ourselves from almighty God, quite different from one another but both disastrous, although for different reasons: mortal sin and voluntary distractions—mortal sin, which objectively breaks off our union with God, and voluntary distractions which subjectively interrupt or hinder our union from being as close as it ought to be. We should speak only when it is preferable not to keep silence. The Gospel does not say merely that we shall have to give an account of every evil word, but of every idle thought."

— St. Alphonsus Liguori (Aug. 1)

"Occupy your mind with good thoughts, or the enemy will fill them with bad ones."

— St. Thomas More (June 22)

"As the pilot of the vessel is tried in the storm; as the wrestler is tried in the ring; the soldier in the battle and the hero in adversity; so is the Christian tried in temptation."

— St. Basil the Great (Jan. 2)

"Let the mouth also fast from disgraceful speeches and railings. For what does it profit if we abstain from fish and fowl and yet bite and devour our brothers and sisters? The evil speaker eats the flesh of his brother and bites the body of his neighbor."

— St. John Chrysostom (Sept. 13)

"The sign of the cross is the most terrible weapon against the devil. Thus the church wishes not only that we have it continually in front of our minds to recall to us just what our souls are worth and what they cost Jesus Christ, but also that we should make it at every juncture ourselves: when we go to bed, when we awaken during the night, when we begin any action, and above all when we are tempted."

— St. John Vianney (Aug. 4)

"One who has the habit of unclean speech is a person whose lips are but an opening and a supply pipe which hell uses to vomit its impurities upon the earth."

— St. John Vianney (Aug. 4)

"Fasting cleanses the soul, raises the mind, subject's one's flesh to the spirit, renders the heart contrite and humble, scatters the clouds of concupiscence, quenches the fire of lust, kindles the true light of charity."

— St. Augustine (Aug. 28)

It's always good for me to keep in mind the lesson of these three Gospels: Jesus did not go into the desert alone. The devil was waiting there, and Jesus went there 'filled with spirit'. A year round choice for me to make: who fills me? The devil, my intimate enemy, the opportunist who is always waiting? Or the same spirit, the only reality is who is stronger?

Blessings in a Backpack

By John Silver

Nine years ago, I was serving on the Human Concerns commission. I wanted to find a way to help kids beyond a School Supply Drive. I discovered Blessings in a Backpack, a national organization focused on childhood food insecurity. One in seven kids don't have access to affordable, healthy food on the weekends. Each week through their local affiliates, BIB provides these children with a bag of food for the weekend.

Working with Fr. John Boivin, we started a BIB program at HNC and connected with St. Malachy, a local Catholic grade school. We organized a fundraising weekend and raised enough money to feed 50 kids. I'd order food from Jewel and have it delivered to the Rectory. A dozen or so volunteers would pack bags of food and deliver them to St. Malachy each Thursday.

The program quickly expanded to feed the entire school. The parish has always been incredibly generous in making donations to fund the program.

Eventually, I rolled off of HCC and passed the baton to others who expanded it kept the program thriving and truly making a difference at St. Malachy.

After a long hiatus due to COVID-restrictions, we are looking for volunteers to assist us in bringing the program back to the Cathedral. If you would be interested volunteering for this program or for any of our other service, social, and spiritual ministries, scan the QR code.

Stewardship

Called to Christian Stewardship

In last week's Gospel, we followed Jesus into the desert where He fasted and prayed. This week, He leads us up a mountain to witness His Transfiguration. Why both experiences?

Jesus is preparing us to go with Him in a few short weeks to a hilltop — Golgotha — where He will lay down His life for our sake, and then finally to take us to an empty cave where He triumphed over sin and death once and for all.

Jesus perfectly understands our humanity. He knows we need desert experiences — times of self-denial and testing — in order to arrive at mountaintop moments when we see and feel His glorious presence in our lives. The purpose of these two types of experiences is summed up in the description of the Apostles who were with Jesus at that mountaintop experience in today's Gospel: "Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory..."

The reason for all our fasting and prayer and almsgiving during Lent is to be reawakened to all God has done for humanity, and to all that He has done for each of us personally. It is all too easy to get lulled into complacency in our daily routines, to "sleepwalk" through life. But we are called to so much more!

This Lent, let us train ourselves, or more precisely, allow Him to train us to say "Yes" to His will and to offer our lives back to Him in gratitude. In so doing, we, too, will become "transfigured." This is what it means to live fully awake; this is a stewardship way of life, and it is glorious indeed.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention.
