Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Lent is a marvelous opportunity to ask questions, listen and take a few moments each day to ponder the rich meaning of our lives. The great Season of Lent provides a forty day window to better connect the mystery of God and our journey.

I am presently reading an outstanding book Seeking with All My Heart by Paula D'Arcy. I would highly recommend this book to all of you! The book deals with encountering God's presence in our everyday lives. She begins one of the chapters with a series of questions reflecting her journals over the years:

Am I secretly waiting for someone else to make me happy?

Am I willing to endure pain in order to grow?

Can I accept the fact that it takes effort to bring about growth?

Do I want truth even if it makes my life uncomfortable?

Have I yet recognized that my points of view are also my judgments?

Do I still project human emotions, feelings and desires onto God?

Do I want to see who God really is?

Will I ever give up the illusion of permanence?

Will I continue to insist on certain beliefs, preferring them to direct encounters with the Divine?

What am I really willing to know? And at what cost?

Do I have the desire (or courage) to find God in life?

An outstanding range of questions to probe this Lenten Season! At the same time, connecting questions that touch the core of our lives cannot be disconnected from our everyday experiences. Life is a teacher if we are willing to listen. What lessons has life taught us through our experiences? Am I willing to let life surprise me? What have I learned?

Andy Rooney, a man who had the gift of saying so much with so few words shares the following:

- I've learned ... that when you're in love, it shows.
- I've learned ... that just one person saying to me, "You've made my day!" makes my day.
- I've learned ... that being kind is more important than being right.
- I've learned ... that you should never say no to a gift from a child.
- I've learned ... that I can always pray for someone when I don't have the strength to help him in some other way.
- I've learned ... that sometimes all a person needs is a hand to hold and a heart to understand.
- I've learned ... that life is like a roll of toilet paper. The closer it gets to the end, the faster it gets.
- I've learned ... that we should be glad God doesn't give us everything we ask for.
- I've learned ... that under everyone's hard shell is someone who wants to be appreciated and loved.
- I've learned ... that when you plan to get even with someone, you are only letting that person continue to hurt you.
- I've learned ... that love, not time, heals all wounds.
- I've learned ... that everyone you meet deserves to be greeted with a smile.
- I've learned ... that no one is perfect until you fall in love with them.
- I've learned ... that life is tough, but I'm tougher.
- I've learned ... that opportunities are never lost; someone will take the ones you miss.
- I've learned ... that when you harbor bitterness, happiness will dock elsewhere.
- I've learned ... that I wish I could have told my Mom that I love her one more time before she passed away.
- I've learned ... that one should keep his words both soft and tender, because tomorrow he may have to eat them.
- I've learned ... that the less time I have to work with, the more things I get done.

Quite an impressive list! And I've learned God doesn't need Lent.... We do!

Learning with you,
Fr. Greg

On Our Cover

This is a fresco of Jesus and the Parable of the Barren Fig Tree in the crypt of the Saint Sava Temple in Belgrade, Serbia.

Today's Gospel prepares us to hear Lent's call to conversion and repentance as we hear Luke describing Jesus' journey to Jerusalem as He teaches and heals. He must also respond to those who question and challenge his authority and actions. While Mark and Matthew describe an incident in which Jesus curses the fig tree, today's reading makes the barren fig tree the subject of a parable...

...Jesus' words at first appear to have a fire-and-brimstone quality. Jesus changes from "repent or perish" to a tone that contrasts the patience and hopefulness of the gardener with the practicality of the property owner. When told to cut down the barren fig tree, the gardener counsels patience. If properly tended, the barren fig tree may yet bear fruit.

This is our reason for hope: Not only does God refuse to abandon us, he chooses to attend to us even when we show no evidence of his efforts.

Scrutinies: Deeper Reflections on Life

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

As we continue in this season of Lent, our liturgy offers us a unique look into the preparation of the elect – those who will be baptized, confirmed, and receive their First Communion at the Great Vigil of Easter on Holy Saturday. The period of purification and enlightenment begins at the conclusion of the Rite of Election, which was celebrated here at the Cathedral during the past two weekends, where the catechumens become “the elect.” “This period of more intense spiritual preparation [for the celebration of the paschal mystery,] consisting more of internal reflection than in catechetical instruction” (RCIA #138).

The scrutinies, then, are ways for deeper reflection on what will take place in the life of those who will enter the Pascal Mystery on Holy Saturday. Within this period are two types of rituals, scrutinies, and presentations.

Very briefly, there are two presentations: the Presentation of the Creed and the Presentation of the Lord’s Prayer. These are simple rituals that can be done in a small setting rather than within the Sunday Liturgy.

The scrutinies, however, take place during Mass for three consecutive Sundays, beginning on the Third Sunday of Lent and concluding on the Fifth Sunday of Lent. The Scrutinies have their own readings and prayers for Mass, along with a minor exorcism and laying on of hands for each of the elect, and then their dismissal before the offertory rite begins.

The Gospels for the scrutinies: The Samaritan Woman at the Well, the Man Born Blind, and the Rising of Lazarus, have a deeper spiritual meaning than just being long. They are used to show that Christ is the living water, He is the light of the world, and He is the resurrection and the life (RCIA #143). Every ritual we have in the Church has power in our lives of faith and draws us deeper into an encounter with Jesus of Nazareth, whom we profess and believe is truly risen from the dead and desires a relationship with us.

The journey of conversion and renewal for the elect during this period of purification and enlightenment is also a reminder for us who have already been baptized of this great mystery. In these final weeks before their initiation, let us pray for the Elect as they make their way closer and closer to the font of new life, and for us as we prepare to renew our baptismal promises on Easter morning in the light of the Risen Lord.

You Are Invited to Become a HNC-Trained Lector

When the Sacred Scriptures are read in the Church, God himself speaks to his people, and Christ, present in his word, proclaims the Gospel. Therefore, the readings from the Word of God are to be listened to reverently by everyone, for they are an element of the greatest importance in the Liturgy.

There will be three days of required lector training.

Add the Stations to Your Journey

Fridays in Lent, 11:15am

The Stations of the Cross are a 14-step Catholic devotion that commemorates Jesus Christ's last day on Earth.

The 14 devotions, or stations, focus on specific events of His last day, beginning with His condemnation.

The stations are commonly used as a mini-pilgrimage as the individual moves from station to station. At each station, the individual recalls and meditates on a specific event from Christ's last day. Specific prayers are recited, then the individual moves to the next station until all 14 are complete.

In our church, the Stations of the Cross are found on the north and south walls of Holy Name Cathedral. Each Friday during Lent at 11:15am, everyone in our Faith Community is encouraged to “walk” with us through our Stations (in person or via livestream). On Good Friday, the Stations will be at 3:00pm. One of our lay ministries will lead the reflection each week.

The Stations of the Cross

- Christ condemned to death
- Jesus accepts His cross
- His first fall
- He meets His Blessed Mother
- Simon of Cyrene is made to bear the cross
- Christ's face is wiped by Veronica
- His second fall
- He meets the women of Jerusalem
- His third fall
- He is stripped of His garments
- He is nailed to the cross
- His death on the cross
- His body is taken down from the cross
- He is laid in the tomb

Immigration Ministry

Advancing and Uniting towards Justice for Migrants and Refugees

Since 2005 on behalf of the Archdiocese, we have taken leadership roles at local and national levels to bring meaningful legislative reform that provides a path to citizenship for undocumented immigrants, shelter for migrants and refugees, and protects families from separation. From our annual Posada, various press conferences, prayer vigils, and legislative visits to Faithful Citizenship and prayer-fasting-and action campaigns, our advocacy efforts are in collaboration and solidarity with our partner networks of over 200 priests, 20 religious orders and dozens of immigrant and native-born parishes and lay leaders engaged in our Archdiocese and across the U.S.

The growing humanitarian crisis in Ukraine and Eastern Europe is a call to open our hearts and welcome refugees fleeing for safety. It also reminds us of the need to protect the sanctity of every human life. How can you help? Stay tuned to JusticeforImmigrants.org

Palm Sunday Prayer Walk at Cook County Jail

Sunday, April 10, 3pm at Cook County Jail

Kolbe House is the jail ministry of the Archdiocese of Chicago. In response to the gospel mandate, “I was in prison, and you visited Me,” we strive to foster healing, hope, and faith in God’s merciful love among all those affected by crime and incarceration. We envision a world in which all who are effected by crime are reconciled to God, to each other, to family and to community.

Let us commemorate the beginning of Holy Week with a prayer walk around Cook County Jail with Kolbe House Jail Ministry on Sunday, April 10 at 3pm. We will reflect on Jesus’ entrance into Jerusalem, as well as His own arrest and detention, as calls to action to unite in our commitment to defend the human dignity of those incarcerated and promote reconciliation and healing for all those impacted by the criminal justice system.

The walk will begin at 2810 S. Sacramento Ave. Parking is available on Sacramento Ave. as well as in the parking lot of La Villita Park. All ages are welcome. Let us know if you plan to join us using the QR code. Bring your palms!

Living with the Saints

Wisdom From The Saints: 'It's Not Enough To Be Good'

This saintly information compiled by Fr. John Boivin

"Each one of you has to be God's microphone. Each one of you has to be a messenger, a prophet. The church will always exist as long as there is someone who has been baptized. ... Where is your baptism? You are baptized in your professions, in the fields of workers, in the market. Wherever there is someone who has been baptized, that is where the church is. There is a prophet there. Let us not hide the talent that God gave us on the day of our baptism and let us truly live the beauty and responsibility of being a prophetic people."

— St. Oscar Romero (March 24)

"Here, there is a challenge from Christ to the goodness of humankind. It is not enough to be good. It is not enough to not do evil. My Christianity is something more positive; it is not a negative. There are many who say, 'but I don't kill, I don't steal, I don't do anything bad to anyone'. That's not enough. You are still lacking a great deal. It is not enough to be good."

— St. Oscar Romero (March 24)

"We become what we love and who we love shapes what we become. If we love things, we become a thing. If we love nothing, we become nothing. Imitation is not a literal mimicking of Christ, rather it means becoming the image of the beloved, an image disclosed through transformation. This means we are to become vessels of God's compassionate love for others."

— St. Clare of Assisi (Aug. 11)

"Temptation to a certain sin, to any sin whatever, might last throughout our whole life, yet it can never make us displeasing to God's majesty provided we do not take pleasure in it and give consent to it. You must have great courage in the midst of temptation.

Never think of yourself overcome as long as they are displeasing to you, keeping clearly in mind the difference between feeling temptation and consent to it."

— St. Francis de Sales (Jan. 24)

"Realize it, my brethren; — everyone who breathes, high and low, educated and not, young and old, man and woman, has a mission, has a work. We are not sent into this world for nothing; we are not born at random ... God sees every one of us:

He creates every soul. He lodges it in the body, one by one, for a purpose. He needs, He deigns to need, every one of us. He has an end for each of us; we are equal in His sight, and we are placed in our different stations, not to get what we can out of them for ourselves, but to labor in them for Him. As Christ has His work, we too have ours; as He rejoiced to do his work, we must rejoice in ours also."

— St. John Henry Newman (Oct. 9)

"Learn to dance, so when you get to heaven the angels know what to do with you"

— St. Augustine (Aug. 28)

Thursday/Friday Suppers at Catholic Charities

Hunger and food insecurity are two of the most pervasive issues in Chicago and Cook County. Hunger is when you don't have enough to eat; food insecurity is when your life's circumstances prevent you from regular and expected means of food. Addressing the needs of both adults and children are the focus of several of our Cathedral's lay ministries.

For more than 15 years, Holy Name Cathedral has partnered with Catholic Charities to provide hot meals and meals-to-go for our neighbors in need. Volunteers from the Cathedral gather every Thursday and Friday afternoon to prepare the 60 "to-go" meals and the set-up service for 60 hot meals at Catholic Charities' LaSalle Street location. While we have modified our service during COVID, we are beginning to expand the number of meals provided every week. All the food provided comes from local restaurants who have partnered with the Cathedral.

In addition to the team that provides the Thursday/Friday Suppers, a corps of volunteer bakers provides freshly baked cookies and small desserts for the guests. And, on some occasions, volunteer live entertainment is provided for our guests. Each supper (ten in total) has a team captain who coordinates the night's service. Some are led by some of our other ministries like Young Adults and ACT II by contributing their volunteers to help out.

Interested in being involved in our Thursday/Friday suppers or volunteering for one of our ministries serving those in need in our community? Or want more information about the various spiritual, social, and service programs at Holy Name? Just scan the QR code.

Career Network Ministry

For nearly 10 years, Holy Name Cathedral has offered a variety of services and programs through our Career Network Ministry. Early on, the ministry focused on monthly events with services (resume writing, interview role play) for individuals seeking new employment. Over the years led by several volunteers and the support of Fr. John Boivin, it has evolved as the job market, job search, and career management has evolved.

Most recently, the ministry quickly pivoted as COVID shut down in-person events and the shock of pandemic layoffs rippled through many industries. The current ministry is led by Michael Ripani whose passion is to connect our Faith Community with highly relevant career topics and the latest job search tools. Now a monthly Zoom workshop, the ministry brings experienced human resources professionals, recruiters and career counselors to share insights critical to job search success: the use of social media in a job search, resume writing, interviewing skills, cover letters and thank you notes, maintaining confidence, personal finance management, finding a job at an older age, and more. The sessions are a combination of presentation, followed by a Q&A session. This ministry also provides professionals who can offer advice on resumes or conduct mock interviews.

The program has grown in popularity with more than 260 people among those interested in our program communications. Typically, up to 50 individuals register for a monthly event, depending upon interest in the topic. The April 21, 2022 event will focus on Age Issues in Job Searches. This workshop will provide tips, strategies and real-life examples to give a competitive edge to experienced professionals in career transition.

Interested in being involved by joining volunteers creating programs and serving specific needs in our community? Or want more information about the various spiritual, social, and service programs at Holy Name? Just scan the QR code to the right.

Caring for Our Architectural Treasure

As a parish and the seat of the Archdiocese of Chicago, Holy Name Cathedral is home to Cathedral and Archdiocesan liturgies and events which brings thousands of people into the Cathedral every year. Completed in 1875 after the Great Chicago Fire, Holy Name Cathedral was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 2000. Caring for this great Gothic-Revival structure made of marble, bronze, stained glass and a ceiling of 23,000 individual pieces of wood takes a team of dedicated staff lead by Director of Facilities, Ryan Pietrzak and our head of Maintenance and Special Projects, Jesse Macias.

Preserving the architectural beauty and significance of the Cathedral as well as day-to-day upkeep requires constant cleaning and maintenance including repairs to the lighting, heating, cooling and plumbing systems. The Facilities team is responsible for the aesthetic integrity of the entire campus and has overseen numerous renovations required to repair the buildings.

How Stewardship is Making a Difference

At Holy Name Cathedral, we are grateful for the support of our parishioners, friends, and visitors. Your generosity provides important funding for Cathedral ministries and programs. You help us to maintain the architectural beauty of our Cathedral. We are grateful for every donation and the important impact it has on those we serve. Please read the column about Caring for Our Architectural Treasure, one of the many ways your support is making a difference.

Lenten Almsgiving Immigration Ministry

During this Lenten season, we encourage Holy Name Cathedral parishioners, guests, and online participants to support the immense endeavor of the Archdiocese of Chicago Immigration Ministry as described on page 7 of this weekend's bulletin. We encourage you to make this part of your Lenten almsgiving. A second collection of the Immigration Ministry will be taken up at all Masses during the weekend of April 2 and 3. You can also donate at any time, just scan the QR code. Consider accompanying our brothers and sisters who are walking their very own desert experience.

Our Annual Fish Dinner Returns ... plus Trivia!

Friday, April 8, 6pm in Cafeteria

One of the most popular events on the Holy Name Cathedral calendar was the annual Lenten Fish Dinner. After a two-year hiatus, this wonderful event is back on Friday, April 8 in our Parish Center Cafeteria. And we've added a new feature this year — a group Trivia session following dinner.

We welcome back our partner, Kasia's Deli as our caterer for the evening. Our dinner this year will feature a wild-caught cod fillet, Kasia's famous potato and cheese pierogies and assorted kolaczki for dessert.

The cost for this year's dinner will be $20 per person. It is a BYOB so feel free to bring your favorite beverage. Doors open at 5:30pm with dinner beginning at 6pm.

After dinner, we will move onto the fun of group trivia. We know we have some great competitors in our Faith Community along with trivia experts. If you are only coming for trivia (this part of the evening is free), we reopen the doors for you at about 7:15pm.

Don't wait to buy your tickets ... this event always sells out! Scan the QR code to the right to buy tickets. The ticket deadline is April 4.

This event is co-sponsored by the Parish Life Commission and the Young Adults.

Volunteers Needed!

Our Fish Dinner and Trivia Night on April 8 will take a village to deliver. We are seeking people who are available starting at about 4pm that evening to help set up. Can't arrive by 4pm? Let us know what time you can arrive, and we will see how to put you to work!

Mustard Seeds Small Christian Faith Group

Mustard Seeds is a close-knit group of up to 12 Holy Name parishioners who meet every other week by Zoom. Now in our fifth year, our purpose is to contribute to each other's growth in Christ through study of the Bible and works of Catholic literature and culture, while participating in small Christian community life.

"For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them." (Matthew 18:20).

We can welcome up to four new members willing to commit to growth in Christ with like-minded people. Please contact Christine Lawless at (312) 972-1838 or christine.lawless@yahoo.com for more information.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Just scan the QR code to complete the request form.
