Reflections from Our Rector

Dear Easter People,

A Blessed and Happy Mother's Day to our moms and all women who love in a motherly way. God bless you always!

The following two stories are powerful on this Mother's Day ... read and pass on.

The Raincoat

When the doctor suggested surgery and a brace throughout my youngest years, my parents scrambled to take me to massage therapy, deep tissue work, osteopathy, and soon my crooked spine unspooled a bit. I could breathe again and move more in a body unclouded by pain. My mom would tell me to sing songs to her the whole forty-five minute drive to Middle Two Rock Road and forty-five minutes back from physical therapy. She'd say even my voice sounded unfettered by my spine afterward. So I sang and sang because I thought she liked it. I never asked her what she gave up to drive me or how her day was before this chore. Today, now at her age, I was driving myself home from yet another spine appointment, singing along to some maudlin but solid song on the radio. I saw a mom take her raincoat off and give it to her young daughter when a storm took over the afternoon. My God, I realized I'd been under her raincoat my whole life, thinking it was somehow a marvel that I never got wet.

— Ada Limón

Excellent and thought-provoking story on this Mother's Day. Did you know the Latin root of the word "sacrifice" means "to make holy?" Many years ago, I asked my mother: "What is your definition of motherhood?" Mom looked at me and said, "A willingness to be inconvenienced." All I can add is "Amen" and keep reading.

The Way that God Loves Us

There was a TV interview of a heroic mother who had single-handedly raised a large family. Despite all the frustrations, disappointments, and obstacles, she persevered. All her children had made remarkable achievements, not only in their schooling but also in their vocations.

It was an inspiring story worth celebrating, for it revealed the heights and depths of human greatness. During the interview, the reporter asked the mother about her secret, who said, "I suppose you loved all your children equally, making sure that all got the same treatment?"

“Many years ago, I asked my mother: “What is your definition of motherhood?” Mom looked at me and said, “A willingness to be inconvenienced.”

The mother replied, “I loved them. I loved them all, each one of them, but not equally. The one I loved the most was the one down until he was up. I loved the one the most who was weak until she was strong. I loved the one the most was the one who hurt until he was healed. I loved the one the most was the one who was lost until she was found.”

May I add — never look down on anyone ... unless you are helping them up.

With joy and profound gratitude,
Fr. Greg

On the Cover

This Sunday is Good Shepherd Sunday, now traditionally celebrated on the Fourth Sunday of Easter.

Similar to Divine Mercy Sunday, it is on a fixed Sunday during the Eastertide. This particular Sunday coincides with the following passage from the Gospel according to St. John: "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." (John 10:11). The exact Gospel rotates each year, but always revolves around Jesus calling himself the "Good Shepherd."

It is a day to focus on Jesus' role as shepherd of souls and our role of following his voice wherever he goes. Jesus is the Good Shepherd for all people. Belonging to Jesus depends not on ethnicity or religious background or any accident of birth but on recognizing and responding to his call, "My sheep hear my voice." (John 10:27). Do we take the time to hear the voice of the Shepherd?

The Joyful Ordination Season Arrives at the Cathedral

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

During Lent, I wrote about Archdiocesan liturgies at the Cathedral, such as the Rite of Election, where those who will receive the Sacraments of Initiation — Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation — and enter their final stage before the Great Vigil of Easter. And the Chrism Mass during Holy Week when the Cardinal blesses the sacred oils used in our Sacraments. Ordination is another liturgy celebrated in the Cathedral that the entire Archdiocese celebrates with joy as these men are ordained to serve the people of God throughout the Archdiocese.

This year, the Archdiocese of Chicago will ordain twenty permanent deacons, five transitional deacons (who will be ordained priests next May) on May 14, and two priests on May 21. In Holy Orders, one of the seven Sacraments of the Church, there are three levels: Diaconate, Priesthood, and Episcopal.

There are many moving parts in an ordination liturgy. First, those to be ordained are called by name and affirmed of their calling by the congregation. After the homily, they make their promises in front of Cardinal Cupich and individually pledge their respect and obedience to the Cardinal. Next, those to be ordained lay prostrate on the ground while the Litany of Saints is sung, invoking the saints to be their help and guide as they minister to God's people. This part is my favorite moment in the Ordination liturgy.

The essential part of any Ordination liturgy is the laying on of hands and the Prayer of Ordination. The laying on of hands finds its origin in the Acts of the Apostles, "The Apostles laid hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit" (Acts 8:17).

After the Cardinal concludes the Prayer of Ordination, the newly ordained deacons and priests are vested in their proper vestments. Next, deacons are handed the object of their ministry: the Book of the Gospels. For priests, their hands are anointed with Sacred Chrism, and they receive the vessels of their ministry: the chalice and paten with bread and wine. This section, called the Rite of Ordination, concludes with the sign of peace from the Cardinal and the Liturgy of the Eucharist proceeds as usual.

As we move closer to the Ordination of Deacons and Priests, let us pray for the men who will lay down their lives in service to God's people and that the Lord of the harvest may call more laborers for his harvest.

Want to Attend the Priesthood Ordinations?

Limited seating is available for the public for the May 21 event. Scan the QR code to register.

Congratulations, Fr. Andy!

On Sunday, May 15, 2022, Fr. Andy Matijevic will celebrate his first anniversary as an ordained priest. You can see him in this picture as Fr. Marek Smolka lays his hands on him during his 2021 ordination. Please join Fr. Andy at the 5:30pm Mass on May 15 as he celebrates his first year, as a priest and an Associate Pastor at Holy Name Cathedral.

Living with the Saints

Dearest Mothers, Thank You

 This saintly information compiled by Fr. John Boivin

“The most important person on earth is a mother. She cannot claim the honor of having built Notre Dame Cathedral. She need not. She has built something more magnificent than any cathedral—a dwelling for an immortal soul, the tiny perfection of her baby’s body. The angels have not been blessed with such a grace. They cannot share in God’s creative miracle to bring new saints to Heaven. Only a human mother can. Mothers are closer to God the Creator than any other creature; God joins forces with mothers in performing this act of creation. What on earth is more glorious than this: to be a mother?”

— Venerable Josef Cardinal Mindzenty (1892-1975)

“A society without mothers would be a dehumanized society, for mothers are always, even in the worst moments, witnesses of tenderness, dedication and moral strength. Dearest mothers, thank you for what you are in your family and for what you give to the Church and the world.”

— Pope Francis

To St. Juan Diego (Dec. 9),

“Do not be troubled or weighed down with grief. Do not fear any illness or vexation, anxiety, or pain. Am I not here who am your Mother? Are you not under my shadow and protection? Am I not your fountain of life? Are you not in the folds of my mantle? In the crossing of my arms? Is there anything else you need?”

— Our Lady of Guadalupe (Dec. 12)

“Thank you, women who are mothers! You have sheltered human beings within yourselves in a unique experience of joy and travail. This experience makes you become God’s own smile upon the newborn child, the one who guides your child’s first steps, who helps it grow, and who is the anchor as the child makes its way along the journey of life.”

— St. John Paul II (Oct. 22)

St. Zélie Guérin Martin and her daughter,
St. Thérèse of Lisieux

“Above all, during the months immediately preceding the birth of her child, the mother should keep close to God, of whom the infant she bears within her is the image, the handiwork, the gift and the child. She should be for her offspring, as it were, a temple, a sanctuary, an altar, a tabernacle, in short her life should be, so to speak, the life of a living sacrament, a sacrament in act, burying herself in the bosom of that God who has so truly instituted it and hallowed it, so that there she may draw that energy, that enlightening, that natural and supernatural beauty which He wills, and wills precisely by her means, to impart to the child she bears and to be born of her.”

— St. Zélie Guérin Martin, the mother of St. Thérèse of Lisieux (July 12)

“The loveliest masterpiece of the heart of God is the heart of a mother.”

— St. Thérèse of Lisieux (Oct. 1)

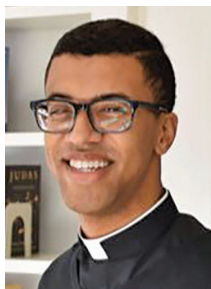

Evangelization

Friends of Fr. Augustus Tolton

Sunday, May 15 at 12noon, Parish Center

Please join us as we pray for the Venerable Augustus Tolton and the cause for canonization for his sainthood. During our May meeting, our speaker will be Fr. Michael Trail, pastor of St. Thomas the Apostle.

In 2010, Cardinal Francis George announced the Fr. Tolton cause for canonization. All are welcome to join us to learn more about the first African American priest in the United States.

Fr. Michael Trail

Cathedral to Cathedral 5K Walking Pilgrimage to support Ukraine

Saturday, May 14, 3:30pm

This will be a follow up to our Part I of support for Ukraine when we held "9 Days of Prayer for Ukraine" at the Consul General (March 7-15).

Join us for a walk of Easter hope to St. Nicholas Ukrainian Catholic Cathedral. We will begin at Holy Name Cathedral and walk together to St. Nicholas, 835 N. Oakley Blvd. (return on your own). We will begin at 3:30pm on Saturday, May 14 and gather for a prayer vigil with Vespers with our Ukrainian brothers and sisters at 5:00pm at St. Nicholas.

Ask family or friends to walk with you or sponsor your walking pilgrimage and donate proceeds to Ukrainian Assistance Fund. Solidarity is Synodality ... Walking Together! If you are interested in joining our 5k walk, scan the QR code.

Is There Life After Roe?

Wednesday, May 25 at 6:30 p.m., FFW auditorium

Come and watch a conversation with Dr. Steve Jacobs of Illinois Right to Life and Dawn Fitzpatrick, senior coordinator of Respect Life Ministries at the Archdiocese of Chicago as they talk about possible ramifications in light of potential Supreme Court decisions on the Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization Supreme Court decision. How will Illinois respond to a post-Roe America and how can we, the faithful, be prepared?

Please register to attend in person or to join the event via Zoom by contacting Joyce Gallagher at joyce.gallagher1@comcast.net or scan the QR code.

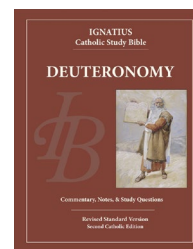

ACT II Bible Study Group

Thursdays, 10:30am in the Rectory

Please join us for our weekly Bible Study meetings at the Holy Name Cathedral Rectory.

We are studying the Book of Deuteronomy. For those unable to attend the meeting in-person, we will continue offering participation via a phone conference call.

We gather from 10:30am to 12noon every Thursday in the Holy Name Rectory. Please scan the QR code if you are interested in joining the group. All parishioners over 40 years old are welcome.

Winning the Interview, Cover Letters and Thank You Notes

Thursday, May 19 at 7 pm

Join Holy Name Cathedral Career Network for our monthly webinar. Next month, our topic is “Winning the Interview”. Tired of being the “runner up” in your job search? Attend this session and learn general interviewing strategies to win the hiring game, what questions you absolutely need to ask at the beginning of the interview, the three most important questions you need to prepare answers to, and how to overcome objections and weaknesses. You will also learn techniques for devising an elevator speech that draws interest and starts conversations.

Speaker: Tom Nosal is a Career Transition Coach with the outplacement firm of Challenger, Gray & Christmas. With a background of over 20 years as a hiring manager and 10 years as a career coach, he has helped job seekers from hourly workers to senior executives successfully land new positions. He is the author of the book “Scaling Up Your Job Search: Three Strategic Steps to Landing Your Ideal Job.”

School Supplies Drive – Volunteers Needed!

Returning after a two-year COVID hiatus is our annual School Supplies Drive to support two Archdiocese of Chicago schools. We are looking for volunteers who would be interested in helping us plan the drive as well as work with the two schools to obtain their list of needed supplies.

We plan to start meeting in May with a goal to have the drive completed in time for Back to School. If you have an interest in helping us rebuild this program, please scan the QR code and one of our Human Concerns team members will be in touch with you.

These schools count on our help so any amount of time you can give to make this program successful is greatly appreciated!

Young Adults Networking

Sunday, June 26 after 5:30pm Mass

Please save the date to welcome summer and learn about the Career Transitions Center of Chicago (CTC). Join us on June 26 after the 5:30 Mass to hear a short message from Anita Jenke, Executive Director of the CTC. Learn about the Human Concerns Career Network Ministry.

We will gather in the Cathedral Courtyard to meet some new people and say hello to old friends. We encourage you to bring a friend or family member! Learn about the Human Concerns Career Network Ministry.

This event is co-hosted by Michael Ripani from the Human Concerns Career Network Ministry and Alanna Chiefari from the Young Adults Ministry. Scan the QR code to register.

Stewardship

How Your Stewardship is Making a Difference

At Holy Name Cathedral, we are grateful for every donation and the important impact it has on those we serve. Your generosity provides vital funding for Cathedral ministries and programs including our liturgies, faith formation programs, and assistance to those in need. One of those ministries is our Music Ministry. Please continue reading to learn more about this ministry and the work they do to bring the Word of God alive with the gift of music.

Children at the Crossroads Scholarship Dinner Honors Fr. Greg Sakowicz

Friday, May 13 at the Four Seasons Hotel

The 2022 Children at the Crossroads (CATC) Scholarship Dinner supporting students at the Frances Xavier Warde School will be held Friday, May 13 at the Four Seasons Hotel located at 120 E. Delaware Place. Honorees this year include our Rector, Fr. Greg Sakowicz, who will receive the Heart of the Crossroads Award, and the FXW faculty and staff, who will receive the Founders Award. To purchase a ticket for the Scholarship Dinner or make a donation, please scan the QR code.

Proclaiming God's Glory with the Gift of Music

In the Catechism of the Catholic Church music is referred to as one of God's greatest gifts. It states that "the musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art." Liturgical music engages us to rejoice in God's infinite love, proclaim His glory, and give thanks for His abundant generosity.

At Holy Name Cathedral we are blessed by the gifts and talents of some of the greatest voices and musicians in the world. Our Director of Music, David Jonies, is an international award-winning organist who has played around the world, including at Notre Dame Cathedral in Paris and Westminster Abbey in London. He masterfully plays our grand Flentrop Organ which has been refurbished and returned to its former glory. Under the leadership of David and our Music Administrator, Elizabeth Vasiljevic, Holy Name's Music Ministry is composed of four exceptional choirs, talented cantors, instrumentalists, organists, and the recently formed Young Adult Music Ministry.

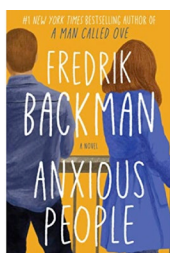

In addition to providing the magnificent music we hear at liturgies, the work of the Music Ministry includes evaluating and replacing deteriorating hymnals, purchasing new musical works for our library, maintaining our liturgical robes, and investing in technology that furthers the mission of bringing the Word of God to the Cathedral. We are grateful for the gift of music provided by the Holy Name Cathedral Music Ministry. The beautiful sounds they provide truly enhance our spiritual understanding of the Mass and our relationship with God.

Fellowship

A Little Humor from the Rector

“Why is lemon juice made with artificial flavor, and dishwashing liquid is made with real lemons?”

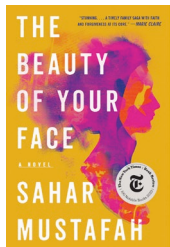

ACT II Book Group

Please join us for fellowship and some good reading. Details about our upcoming meetings are below.

For now, we are continuing to meet via Zoom. Interested in joining us? Scan the QR code. Here are our future selections and meetings:

Thursday, May 26 at 7pm

by Sahar Mustafah.

Join Our Cathedral Docent Ministry

After a two-year hiatus, we are very excited to restart our Docent ministry and you are invited to join. The Docent ministry is made up of parishioners who are passionate about the history of the Cathedral.

Each member is trained to give tours to visitors and parishioners that strengthen their spirituality and connection to our Faith Community.

Although visitors are welcome to explore Holy Name Cathedral on their own, with so much history and hidden elements, only a trained docent can share it all with a guided tour. Tours of Holy Name are available to any size group, tailored to their requested date, time and length. Tour requests can be made on the Cathedral website.

Please consider becoming a part of this wonderful ministry and as we bring people back to Church. Docent training will take place over two evenings. You must attend both sessions on May 19 and May 26 from 5:30pm to 7:00pm. Just scan the QR code and we will be in touch!

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Just scan the QR code to complete the request form.
