Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

We live in a hectic and fast paced society. Our lives are too chaotic (at times) and the demands may get overwhelming. Ironically, when we feel overwhelmed it may create a sense of “being out of control.” How do we put the pieces of our lives into perspective? How do we develop a deep love for God, family, friends and at the same time keeping all our responsibilities from overwhelming us? As we continue our Easter Season, may we also rise to new heights with the grace and help of God. The resurrection means we are an Easter People—new life in and with the Lord Jesus.

I share with you “tips for a better life.” Read and may I add a tip at the start.....pass it on!

- Take a 10-30 minute walk every day. And while you walk, smile. It is the ultimate anti-depressant.
- Sit in silence for at least 10 minutes each day.
- Get more sleep.
- When you wake up in the morning complete the following statement: “My purpose is to ____ today.”
- Live with the 3 Es — Energy, Enthusiasm and Empathy.
- Play more games and read more books than you did in 2021.
- Make time to pray. Prayer provides us with daily fuel for our busy lives.
- Spend more time with people over the age of 70 and under the age of 6.
- Dream more while you are awake.
- Eat more food that grow on trees and plants and eat less food that is manufactured in plants.
- Try to make at least three people smile each day.
- Clear clutter from your house, your car and your desk this week.
- Don’t waste your precious energy on gossip, issues of the past, negative thoughts or things you cannot control. Instead invest your energy in the positive present moment.
- Realize that life is a school and you are here to learn. Problems are simply part of the curriculum that appear and fade away like algebra class, but the lessons you learn will last a lifetime.

- Eat breakfast like a king, lunch like a prince and dinner like a college kid with a maxed out credit card.
- Smile and laugh more.
- Life isn’t fair, but it’s still good.
- Life is too short to waste time hating anyone.
- Don’t take yourself so seriously. No one else does.
- You don’t have to win every argument. Agree to disagree.
- Make peace with your past so it won’t spoil the present.
- Don’t compare your life to other people. You have no idea what their journey is all about.
- No one is in charge of your happiness except you.
- Frame every so-called disaster with these words: “In five years, will this matter?”
- Forgive everyone everything.
- What other people think of you is none of your business.
- God heals and we need to trust in God (not easy!).
- However good or bad a situation is, it will change.
- Your job won’t take care of you when you are sick. Your friends will.
- Stay in touch.
- Get rid of anything that isn’t useful, beautiful or joyful.
- Envy is a waste of time. You already have all you need.
- The best is yet to come.
- No matter how you feel, get up, dress up and show up.
- Do the right thing!
- Call your family often (text or email them!!!). Each night before you go to bed complete the following statements: “I am thankful for ____.”
“Today, I accomplished_____.”
- Remember that you are too blessed to be stressed.
- Enjoy the ride. You only have one ride through life so make the most of it and enjoy the ride.

And may I add—root life in God—serve in the name of the Lord Jesus and appreciate now what you have (though you may be holding a tough hand) because one day it will be over. And laughter is music for the soul! Alleluia!

On the road with you,
Fr. Greg

Weekly Rector's Update (every Friday)

Indoor Mask Update

The City of Chicago, Cook and Lake Counties have now all reached a moderate level of COVID-19 transmission. As such, local health authorities and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) strongly recommend that individuals wear face coverings while in indoor public places.

While not a requirement, please consider this important recommendation to protect your own health and help avoid further increases in transmission of the virus.

Special note

Do not assume your symptoms are allergies or a minor cold. One of the contributing factors to the uptick in transmission is the tendency for many to assume that a minor symptom, such as a stuffy nose or tickle in the throat, is anything other than COVID-19. We suggest that when you experience any symptom, you get tested.

Answering the Call To Become a Missionary Disciple

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

As we continue on in our Easter season, it is easy to lose focus of the great mystery we celebrate. Jesus of Nazareth is truly risen from the dead. We celebrate this great reality everyday of our lives of discipleship, but in a more intentional way, during our Easter Season, which lasts 50 days, from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday.

The number 50 has significant meaning. The obvious fact is 50 is greater than 40. And 40 has the meaning of testing and that of a generation. With 50, the meaning is almost eternal. The Easter season is longer than Lent because of the great mystery it recalls, the Resurrection of Jesus from the dead and our participation in his victory through our baptism.

Regardless of what liturgical season we are in, whether Ordinary Time, Advent, Lent or even the three days of the Triduum, the call of discipleship that stems from Easter is relevant. It was at Easter Sunday Mass that we stood shoulder to shoulder with those around us and renewed our baptismal promises. The promise of rejecting evil and sin and professing our belief in God.

However, renewing our baptismal promises each year is much more than what we reject and who we profess in. The call of baptism, as Pope Francis wrote about in his first apostolic exhortation, “The Joy of the Gospel,” is primarily one of evangelization that stems from a personal encounter with the Risen Lord. Pope Francis writes, “In virtue of their baptism, all the members of the People of God have become missionary disciples.”

Baptism then is a catalyst to spread the Good News. We come to this Cathedral Parish to encounter the Risen Lord among us in the Sacraments, Scripture and people we worship with. And through this encounter, we are called to serve God’s people.

In a few weeks, the Cathedral Parish will enter a ‘discernment phase’ inviting parishioners to pray about how God is calling them to evangelize through the various ministries we offer. Next week, my article will focus on the wonderful areas you can pray about being involved in, to answer your baptismal call more faithfully and be a missionary disciple, spreading the Good News through the gifts and talents God has given you.

Living with the Saints

Two Saints with the Same Feast Day: May 15

 This saintly information compiled by Fr. John Boivin

St. Dymphna was born in 7th century Ireland, the daughter of a devout Christian mother and Damon, a pagan king. At age 14, Dymphna consecrated herself to Christ taking a vow of chastity, followed by the death of her mother. The mental health of her father deteriorated after his wife's death. At the urging of many close to him, he agreed to remarry only if his future bride was as beautiful as was his late wife. Since no one was found to match his request, Damon began to desire his daughter, who bore a strong resemblance to her mother.

Aware of her father's intentions, Dymphna and Fr. Gerebernus, her confessor, set sail for mainland Europe landing in Geel, Belgium.

She used her wealth to house the poor and sick.

This act of charity brought her father's attention.

Agents of King Damon traveled to Geel to recover her, but the soldiers could not force Dymphna to return to Ireland. So furious at her refusal, the king, with sword in hand, struck off his daughter's head. Dymphna, a virgin and martyr, was only 15 years old.

A victim of her father's mental distortion, St. Dymphna is known for the healing of mental illness as well as emotional and nervous disorders.

O lord, You chose St. Dymphna as the patroness of those afflicted with mental and nervous disorders. She is an inspiration and a symbol of charity to the thousands who seek her intercession. Lord, through this young martyr's prayers, please grant relief and consolation to all suffering such trials. Please fill them with hope and grant them the relief and cure they desire. May you speak to their hearts and reassure them: "My peace I give you. Let not your heart be troubled nor let it be afraid."

Please pray for me, St. Dymphna, that I may know serenity and personal peace. Amen

St. Dymphna

St. Isidore

The national shrine of St. Dymphna is in Massillon, Ohio.

Isidore was born in 1070 to a peasant family near Madrid, Spain. He was a day laborer on a farm. His wife was Maria Torribia, who is also a saint in our Catholic tradition. Her feast day is Sept. 9.

As a couple, they vowed to serve God. He prayed while he worked; shared his food with the poor and, often unannounced, brought home hungry guests after work. Isidore was a model of charity and faith. He attended Mass every morning, which often made him late for work. Yet, he always accomplished his many chores. The story is told that two angels often appeared to help with the plowing. He died on May 15, 1130.

Their shared virtues of family, love of the land, service to the poor, deep prayer life, are not only inspirations for farmers and those who live in rural areas, but they inspire all people in city, suburbs and farms.

In our current time of war, inflation and climate inconsistencies, when there are food shortages across our nation and the globe, we pray for our farmers and for the success of their labors.

O Saint Isidore, patron saint of farmers, we come to you asking your intercession on behalf of all whose livelihood is based in farming. We pray that their crops are protected from strong winds, flooding, hail, rust, and every blight of worm and insect.

St. Isidore, please pray that God in His love and wisdom will bless their labors so that they may reap the rewards of work well done here on earth and in heaven. Amen

Relics of St. Isidore the Farmer rest in the reliquary chapel in the Basilica of the Sacred Heart on the campus of the University of Notre Dame.

Stewardship

Sharing Your Light

As stewards of our faith, we are a light to others and acknowledge that all we have is a gift from God. As good stewards, we cultivate these gifts and share them lovingly with others. There are many ways you can be a light to others at Holy Name Cathedral.

One way is considering a gift through your individual retirement account (IRA). After your family's needs are being met, you may wish to include Holy Name Cathedral as a beneficiary. By naming Holy Name Cathedral as a beneficiary, you'll provide crucial financial support for the ministries and programs of the Cathedral while the entire value of your gift will be transferred to us free from federal estate and income tax. It costs nothing to change the beneficiary on your retirement plan and will mean everything to the future of the Cathedral and our mission of bringing people to Christ.

You can contact your IRA administrator and request a change-of-beneficiary form to include Holy Name Cathedral as a recipient of your good stewardship. Please consult with your account administrator for more information, or contact Mary Lederer, Director of Stewardship, at (312) 573-4432 or mlederer@holynamecathedral.org. Thank you for sharing your light with others.

How Your Stewardship is Making a Difference

Over the past few years, Holy Name Cathedral has invested in our livestream programming with the goal to bring the Word of God to all those seeking to experience a personal encounter with Jesus Christ. Livestreaming was crucial to keeping our Faith Community connected during the pandemic.

Beginning in Spring 2020, Fr. Marek Smolka built out our new livestream capability at the Cathedral. He created the Cathedral's YouTube channel, now engaging 2,600 subscribers. This doesn't even include the thousands of viewers on Holy Name's Facebook page.

Our livestream Masses have reached thousands of online worshipers. Private, smaller gatherings including weddings, funerals and baptisms have been made available around the world as well.

Under the direction of the Cathedral's Livestreaming Coordinator, Paula Colin, and supported by Michelle Peltier and Fr. Andy Matijevic from Liturgy, the Cathedral's livestream programming is constantly being evaluated for improvements.

Recently, the Cathedral upgraded the livestreaming software, updated Wi-Fi capabilities, and replaced a camera for a total of six. The newest camera sits above the Cathedra (Bishop's Chair), positioned so that those watching can experience the full beauty of the Cathedral during liturgies and events. We are grateful to Paula and the Liturgy Team for ensuring the highest quality livestream programming. This important means of evangelization allows us to share the Good News of Jesus Christ with everyone, everywhere.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.
