Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Today we celebrate Trinity Sunday. This Feast speaks clearly of the importance of the relationship between God the Father, Jesus His Son and the Holy Spirit. The Trinity has also been referred to as Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier.

No matter the words we attach to the significance of the Most Holy Trinity, the key component rests with the importance of relationships. Do I see the face of God in others? Do I seek to serve others and do I try to be Christ to others? Am I aware at the heart of God is my relationship with those around me?

The following story beautifully conveys how today's celebration of the Most Holy Trinity needs to be lived out in our daily lives — and let life surprise us! Read ... pass it on ...

Howdy Pardner!

A farmer had some puppies he needed to sell. He painted a sign advertising the four pups and set about nailing it to a post on the edge of his yard. As he was driving the last nail into the post, he felt a tug on his overalls. He looked down into the eyes of a little boy.

"Mister," he said, "I want to buy one of your puppies." "Well," said the farmer, as he rubbed the sweat off the back of his neck, "These puppies come from fine parents and cost a good deal of money."

The boy dropped his head for a moment. Then reaching deep into his pocket, he pulled out a handful of change and held it up to the farmer. "I've got 39 cents. Is that enough to take a look?"

"Sure," said the farmer. And with that he let out a whistle. "Here, Dolly!" he called. Out from the doghouse and down the ramp ran Dolly, followed by four little balls of fur. The little boy pressed his face against the chain link fence. His eyes danced with delight. As the dogs made their way to the fence, the little boy noticed something else stirring inside the doghouse.

Slowly another little ball appeared, this one noticeably smaller. Down the ramp it slid. Then in a somewhat awkward manner, the little pup began hobbling toward the others, doing its best to catch up...

"I want that one," the little boy said, pointing to the runt. The farmer knelt down at the boy's side and said, "Son, you don't want that puppy. He will never be able to run and play with you like these other dogs would." With that the little boy stepped back from the fence, reached down, and began rolling up one leg of his trousers.

In doing so he revealed a steel brace running down both sides of his leg attaching itself to a specially made shoe. Looking back up at the farmer he said, "You see, sir, I don't run too well myself, and he will need someone who understands."

With tears in his eyes, the farmer reached down and picked up the little pup. Holding it carefully, he handed it to the little boy.

"How much?" asked the little boy.

"No charge," answered the farmer. "There's no charge for love."

May we always "understand" and be understanding, loving, compassionate and the face of God to all we meet.

On the road with you,
Fr. Greg

Weekly Rector's Update (every Friday)

On Our Cover

The cover of today's bulletin comes from Fr. Marek Smolka's home church the Most Holy Trinity Church in Czarny Dunajec, Poland

The Trinity is the core of the Christian creed. We profess belief in one God who is three persons: Creator, Redeemer and Sanctifier — Father, Son and Spirit. This belief does not come easily for most. How can one God also be three persons? It defies logic! Luckily, the goal of faith is not to solve equations but to be in relationship with our deeply mysterious, ever-loving God who reveals God's self in the world in incredible unexpected ways.

God's spirit plays. What a delightful image we receive in today's first reading from Proverbs! The Spirit "plays on the surface of the Earth" and "finds delight in the human race" along the way (Proverbs 8:31).

Prepare Our Hearts & Minds for the Eucharistic Revival

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

In November 2021, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) met for their annual fall meeting in Baltimore. At this meeting, they approved a motion to begin a three-year Eucharistic Revival that will culminate in July 2024 at the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis.

The reasons for this Revival are many. In 2019, a Pew Study Survey showed that only 30% of Catholics believe in the Real Presence of the Eucharist. What does that mean?

As Catholics, we believe the Eucharist, the host and the wine, after being consecrated by the priest, are the actual body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus of Nazareth who was born of the Virgin Mary, suffered, died, was buried and rose from the dead. Jesus left us the Eucharist as the memorial of His love for us. This is why we have tabernacles in every Catholic Church: it is where Jesus resides in the Holy Eucharist. So, it is a little concerning only 30% of Catholic's believe in the Real Presence.

Each year, the Revival has a theme or a focus. 2022 will focus on the Eucharist in the life of the diocese. 2023 will focus on the Eucharist at the parish level. In 2024, will focus on the Eucharistic Congress in July, and how to bring what was experienced there, back to the personal, parish and diocesan level.

This Revival is crucial to the life and future of the Church. The Eucharist, as the Second Vatican Council said, is the "source and summit of the Christian life." The Eucharist is foundational to our faith because it fulfills the promise of Jesus before his Ascension that he would remain with us until the end of time (Matthew 28:20). Let us prepare our hearts and our minds for this three-year Revival, and rediscover the treasure that the Eucharist is to each believer.

The Eucharistic Revival officially begins next weekend, June 18-19, on the Feast of Corpus Christi. As the Cathedral of the Archdiocese of Chicago, to kick off the Revival at the diocesan level, we will have a Eucharistic Procession following the 5:30pm Mass on Saturday, June 18. Bishop Robert Lombardo, C.F.R., the Cardinal's Delegate for the Eucharistic Revival, will be the main celebrant and homilist at the Mass. The Procession will simply go around the block of the Cathedral. Please join us and invite a friend as we bring Jesus to the world that is so desperately searching for Him.

Join Us for Fr. Marek's Farewell Mass & Reception

Sunday, June 19, 12:30pm

For the past five years, our Liturgy Department has thrived under the leadership of Fr. Marek Smolka. He developed many new ways to make our Cathedral Masses more engaging and spiritual throughout his tenure.

Fr. Marek navigated the many obstacles thrown at him and his team throughout the COVID pandemic, finding ways to reopen the Cathedral and safely bring the Mass to everyone. His tireless efforts enabled us to rapidly meet each stage of reopening so that those who wished to pray in the church could be there.

As he embarks on his new chapter as Pastor of St. Francis Borgia, we wish and pray Godspeed to him. Our HNC family will miss him but know he will be back to visit.

Join us for the farewell mass on Sunday, June 19, at 12:30pm. A reception will follow in the Courtyard. Thank you, Fr. Marek!

Living with the Saints

Holy Thoughts from Holy People

 This saintly information compiled by Fr. John Boivin

Commitment is doing what you said you would do, after the feeling you said it in has passed.

— St. Camillus (July 18)

In our self-centered culture and classic American emphasis on work, we often feel we have to accomplish something during our times of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. We rate our experience by how 'good' our prayer was, how heartfelt our devotion was, or how focused we could remain. Yet prayer and contemplation are fundamentally God's work, in which we are invited to participate. We need only to give Him the opening, and He will do the rest. By coming to adoration, we are handing Him the keys to our hearts, allowing the rays of His love and grace to bathe our souls in the light of His presence, as the rays of the sun bathe our bodies in light. If we can take the time to pull away from the busyness and distractions of life and just sit at His feet, He will lead us.

— Poor Clare's of Perpetual Adorations

If you ate only one meal a week, would you survive? It is the same for your soul. Nourish it with the Blessed Sacrament.

— St. Andre Bessette (Jan. 6)

St. John Henry Newman

Realize it, my brethren; everyone who breathes, high and low, educated and ignorant, young and old, man and woman, has a work. We are not sent into this world for nothing; we are not born at random; God sees every one of us; He creates every soul. He deigns to need, every one of us. He has an end for each of us; we are all equal in His sight, and we are placed in our different ranks and stations, not to get what we can out of them for ourselves, but to labor in them for Him. As Christ has his work, we too have ours; as He rejoiced to do His work, we must rejoice in ours also.

— St. John Henry Newman (Oct. 9)

Dorothy Day

I really only love God as much as I love the person I love the least.

— Servant of God Dorothy Day (1897-1980)

If I have achieved anything in my life, it is because I have not been embarrassed to talk about God.

— Servant of God Dorothy Day (1897-1980)

Reading the Holy Scriptures confers two benefits. It trains the mind to understand them; it turns one's attention from the follies of the world and leads one to the love of God.

— St. Isidore of Seville (April 4)

St. Ignatius of Loyola

Man was created for a certain end. This end is to praise, to reverence and to serve the Lord God and by this means to arrive at eternal salvation. All other beings and objects that surround us on the earth were created for the benefit of man and to be useful to him, a means to his final end; hence his obligation to use or abstain from the use of these creatures according as they bring him nearer to that end, or tend to separate him from it.

Theology 101

Why is Family Life So Important — and Difficult?

By Fr. Louis J. Cameli

The essential pieces of our lives unfold in family life — love, life itself and our connection with each other. The Bible begins with the book of Genesis. In the stories of creation, we learn about the foundational value of marriage and family life. Obviously, in God’s plan, family is central to our existence. It is a gift and a grace.

The opening chapters of Genesis also relate the challenge, difficulty and even the pain of family life. Original sin divides Adam and Eve from God, and it also separates them from each other. Later, pushed by an overwhelming resentment, their son Cain slays his brother Abel. And so, early on, we know that the gift and grace of marriage and family life are marked and marred by sin and division. Families need the healing and redeeming power of Jesus Christ. And, indeed, the Lord does heal and redeem our families through his Word, sacraments and the life of the Church.

We find ourselves positioned between the gift of family and its brokenness. Perhaps, the difficult challenges of being a family more often eclipse its reality as a gift. The 20th-century social commentator Michel Foucault described families as “fields of misunderstanding.” He argued that bringing together people of different genders, ages, roles and levels of experience and expectation necessarily results in painful difficulties.

Foucault’s point has validity, although it is incomplete because he did not consider the power of God’s grace to move us beyond our pain. Still, he named something that echoes, in my experience as a priest, what is often heard in the confessional: the people to whom we are closest and love are the very ones that seem to “provoke” us to sin with impatience, anger and resentment.

In a practical way, how can our faith help us establish our family as a school of love and not simply as a source of frustration and disappointment? There are some strategies that Pope Francis has offered in his apostolic exhortation on family life, Amoris laetitia. Here are a few of these strategies, and you may want to go directly to his exhortation to draw on more of his wisdom.

First, receive the gift of family—really, the gift of each other—with gratitude. Deliberate and intentional gratitude is a fundamental discipline of Christian life that enables us to see life and others through a new lens.

Then, learn to love each other by learning to listen to each other. Often, the default path in family life is to think that we already have our family members figured out and know what they are saying without really listening to them. We need the discipline of dialogue rooted in listening deeply to each other.

Third, embrace forgiveness as a way of life. It is not a question of whether we will hurt or offend each other, because we most certainly will. Rather, it is a question of what we will do when it inevitably happens. Much depends on our own awareness of being forgiven. It helps to remember our prayer: “Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.”

Fourth, pray for each other. Place each other intentionally, deliberately and regularly into God’s hands. And as we pray for each other, we will also see and appreciate each other differently.

A final word of hope is in order. As people of faith, we lean into the future with hope. This means that our family life together—so important in itself—is even more significant as a prelude to our life ahead in God’s house as a part of God’s family. That makes meeting the graces and challenges of family life entirely necessary and completely worthwhile.

Consider Making a Gift from Your IRA to Holy Name Cathedral

Making a gift from your IRA can benefit you and our parish. A Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free. The main benefits are:

- If you are 72 years old or older, the amount you transfer can satisfy all or part of your required minimum distribution.
- The amount transferred directly to charity does not generate taxable income, which may reduce your annual income level. This may help lower your Medicare premiums and decrease the amount of Social Security that is subject to tax.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention.

Just scan the QR code to complete the request form.

Prayer Line

Pope Francis writes, "we are called to dive into the sea of prayer, which is the sea of the boundless love of God." And, he continues, "praying in that sea of love leads us to experience the great tenderness of God." No matter where you live in the world, you are invited to share your needs with those who have committed to pray on your behalf.
