Statement of Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, on the Supreme Court's Decision in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization

June 24, 2022 — Today, the U.S. Supreme Court issued its ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization, which overturns the court's tragic 1973 decision that removed legal protection for unborn children. We welcome this important ruling and the opportunity it creates for a national conversation on protecting human life in the womb and promoting human dignity at all stages of life. This moment should serve as a turning point in our dialogue about the place an unborn child holds in our nation, about our responsibility to listen to women and support them through pregnancies and after the birth of their children, and about the need to refocus our national priorities to support families, particularly those in need.

The Catholic Church brings to such a conversation the conviction that every human life is sacred, that every person is made in the image and likeness of God and therefore deserving of reverence and protection. That belief is the reason the Catholic Church is the country's largest provider of social services, many aimed at eliminating the systemic poverty and health care insecurity that trap families in a cycle of hopelessness and limit authentic choice.

We also come to this dialogue as Americans, knowing that the principle that all human beings are endowed by the Creator with certain inalienable rights is enshrined in the Declaration of Independence, and that first among these is the right to life.

Make no mistake, because this ruling regrettably will have little impact on abortion in Illinois, as there are virtually no restrictions here, we will continue to advocate strongly for legal protections for unborn children. And we will redouble our efforts to work with all to build a culture that values the inalienable rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness for all.

This ruling is not the end of a journey, but rather a fresh start. It underscores the need to understand those who disagree with us, and to inculcate an ethic of dialogue and cooperation. Let us begin by examining our national conscience, taking stock of those dark places in our society and in our hearts that turn to violence and deny the humanity of our brothers and sisters, and get to work building up the common good by choosing life.

Note: The Jones v. Jackson Women's Health Organization was released too late for last week's Bulletin.

Weekly Rector's Update (every Friday)

Thank you, Michelle!

As Michelle Peltier “retires” and moves on to a new chapter of her life, I want to acknowledge and thank her for 10 outstanding years of dedicated service to Holy Name Cathedral.

Michelle Peltier and Fr. Marek Smolka share a lighter moment in the sacristy.

As the Director of Liturgical Services and Special Events, Michelle was instrumental in reopening the Cathedral during COVID, working tirelessly to reengage liturgical ministers and welcome our Faith Community back to church. She will be missed in church and around the Rectory, especially for her hard work, gift of laughter, dedication and presence in her ministry. We will miss her daily presence but know she will remain an active parishioner. God's blessings always, Michelle!

— With Much Gratitude, Fr. Greg

“He Sent them out Two by Two,” by Jacques Joseph Tissot; at Brooklyn Museum.

Today's Gospel reminds us of the high level of commitment in Jesus' community of disciples. Jesus sends out 72 disciples, in addition to the twelve apostles. The term 'apostle' means 'one who is sent.' Luke explains the rationale for the mission: “The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few.” (10:2)

A Note of Thanks and Goodbye from Michelle Peltier

I moved from Kansas City, Missouri to Chicago in May of 2002. I left my family, friends – everything I knew and loved to start a new life because ... It. Was. Time.

When I arrived, I had one friend, no job and no place to live. In one week, I did three things that grounded me in ways I wouldn't understand at the time. I found a place to live, registered to vote and became a member of Holy Name Cathedral.

One day after mass at Holy Name I read the bulletin and the church was asking for people to join a commission. Thinking it would be an exercise in futility, I filled out the application. To my delighted surprise, I received a call to come in for discernment. Thus, began my relationship and love affair with the Cathedral.

My first commission was Parish Life and I became chair in my third year. It was the best thing I ever did. Because PLC was social, I met many parishioners who became and are my friends to this day.

I was also tapped to serve on Parish Pastoral Council where I filled the term of Larry Palmer's seat who unexpectedly passed away. I was on PPC for 5 years and served as its chair in my last year.

During those years I also became an usher (10 years — but once an usher always an usher!) and a lector.

Ten years ago, Msgr. Dan Mayall reached out to me to replace Pat Still who had sadly passed away. I had a successful event planning business and Msgr. promised me that he didn't want me to give up my company. This job, he said was only part time (ha! — never was). I reluctantly agreed.

Fast forward 10 years later ...

Never in my wildest dreams would I have known that these years would be the hardest, saddest, happiest, most joyful times of my life. I've always known and found comfort in the fact that I was part of a community here.

I've been working with volunteers in some capacity since I was 18 and I can unequivocally say that the ministers at Holy Name Cathedral are exceptional (that also goes to our parishioners whose service manifests itself in many other beautiful ways to serve the Lord). I say it all the time – "I can't do what I do without you."

I wish an experience such as mine is gifted to everyone willing to be open to receive it. This has been such a beautiful journey because of you. You have welcomed me, cried with me, laughed with me, broke bread with me, hugged me and made me feel like a part of your families. My prayer is that I did the same for you.

Expressing my thanks and love isn't adequate because my feelings cannot really be articulated.

I've loved this job – it was never a job for me, but my ministry and I will be forever grateful for the blessings that were bestowed on me by being here.

I will be taking a break for a bit until I start looking for something else. As I have recently said, "I am scared but I am not worried" because I know I will be taken care of and ... It. Is. Time.

Thank you to Msgr. Mayall, Fr. Greg Sakowicz, and Fr. Brad Zamora. All have been at different times my mentors, friends and (even though they didn't know it) my spiritual guides.

Special thank you to Fr. Marek Smolka. My boss and friend for the final leg of this journey. I could not have done it without him. There are no words.

Take care of yourselves, continue to do good works, keep those prayers up and know that I am praying for you — always.

I'm sure I will see you around sometime soon.

With you in prayer,
Michelle

Introducing Our New Associate Pastor, Fr. Ton Nguyen

Fr. Ton Nguyen

Have you ever sat down to observe a seed during the summer? Are you fascinated by how strong they are to burst forth some green leaves when the weather gets warm? You might say, “It is hot, Padre.” Well, I am from Vietnam, so Chicago is not the warmest place. My parents have four daughters (one of them is a Visitation sister — so I have a sister sister) and two sons. I came to Chicago in 2012. It makes 2022 my 10th year living in the US.

I took English at DePaul University; then I spent six years learning philosophy and theology at Mundelein Seminary. I do love Mundelein dearly. It is like heaven on earth — so peaceful and amazingly beautiful. During the formation years, I was sent to different parishes for pastoral ministry such as St. Ita (where I spent my first winter – free ice), St. Hillary (where I spent my first summer learning how to serve Mass), St. Bernadette in Evergreen Park (where I did my internship), St. Francis Borgia (where Fr. Marek Smolka is currently assigned to be a pastor), and Mary Seat of Wisdom (where Fr. Andy Matijevic and I were doing the Teaching Sunday Parish Program; we had many good memories doing ministries there).

On May 18, 2019, at this very magnificent Cathedral, I was ordained to be a priest of Jesus Christ. It was one of the happiest days of my life. How can I know? Well, my cheeks hurt at the end of the day from smiling too much. Shortly after my ordination, I was assigned to St. Julie Billiart Parish in Tinley Park as my first priestly assignment. “How is your experience at St. Julie?” you might ask. Well, I came to St. Julie as a baby priest and left St. Julie as a chubby priest. I hope this can tell how much St. Julie parish and I enjoy one another.

Today, I want to express my joy about my assignment to Holy Name as one of your new associate pastors; the rectory now has two millennials in the house so pray “May God bless Fr. Greg with more patience”. I am looking forward to celebrating the liturgy and deepening our love of the Lord with you. I can’t wait to begin our faith journey! May God bless you and keep you close to Jesus’ heart and Mother Mary’s.

Deacon Welter Retires From Archdiocesan Post, To Remain At Holy Name

Deacon Daniel Welter, J.D. is retiring as chancellor for the Archdiocese of Chicago — a role he has served for five years. Below is an excerpt of an article in Chicago Catholic. But Deacon Welter is not retiring from ministry. He will continue serving as an active deacon at Holy Name Cathedral.

The Archdiocese announced the appointment of Deacon David Keene as chancellor, effective July 1. Deacon Keene is currently the auditor-actuariarius in the Office of Canonical Affairs.

When Deacon Daniel Welter retires from his position as archdiocesan chancellor June 30, he will be leaving a post that on paper is all about keeping proper records, dotting the i's and crossing the t's.

The chancellor, after all, oversees all the diocesan records, under canon law. But that's not what Welter is all about, according to friends and colleagues. What he is about is serving people, the charism of a deacon.

"He always found the need of being of service," said Fr. Dominic Grassi. "He would go into any ministry wanting to find out, what did that ministry need? And then serving the people of the parish, the diaconal community, now he ministers to the people who work in the chancery. ... In this day and age, where people are concerned with titles and roles, rules and regulations, he is concerned about the task at hand."

Welter has been one of the Santas at Macy's department store on State Street, usually serving as the jolly old elf for special meals with Santa. That didn't happen in 2020 because of the COVID-19 pandemic. and in 2021, the store had its "Santaland" but no meals. Welter chose not to participate, noting that many of the others rely on the job for holiday income.

Deacon Dan Welter, shown with Fr. Greg Sakowicz, will continue to serve as an active Deacon at Holy Name Cathedral.

KAREN CALLAWAY/CHICAGO CATHOLIC

He did, however, portray Santa Claus at private events and even a few home visits. "I'll always be Santa Claus," he said, adding that he would be happy to return to Macy's as well.

What Welter will give up is the job of making sure the archdiocese keeps records in order and serving as the archdiocese's official notary.

In reality, Welter said, most of the actual keeping of records is done in the archdiocesan Archives and Records Center. His job, he said, is "really more about the 'other duties as assigned.'"

That includes advising Cardinal Cupich and other archdiocesan leaders as well as helping others, whether they are clergy or laypeople, when they need to understand and then figure out what to do about their own situations relative to the church.

Welter served for 22 years as a judge in Cook County Circuit Court, and started working in the Office of Canonical Services the day after he retired from the bench in 2008. He worked on the laicization of former priests in the wake of changes to policies having to do with clerical sexual abuse.

Living with the Saints

The Many Saints of Vietnam and the Philippines

This saintly information compiled by Fr. John Boivin

This month our parish family welcomes Fr. Ton Nguyen (born in Vietnam) and welcomes back Fr. Don Cambe (born in the Philippines). As Fr. Marek Smolka and Fr. Robert Fedek were both born in Poland, what a reminder of how catholic (universal) our Roman Catholic Church is!

Each country has its native-born patron saints and each country has favorite images of our Blessed Mother. What better way to welcome our new associate pastors than to know and love their saints and titles of Mary.

We begin with the story of Our Lady of La Vang. During a persecution of Catholics in Vietnam in 1798, people hid in the rainforest of LaVang, and many became ill. Every night in the jungle, they gathered at the foot of a tree to pray the rosary. One night in the branches of the tree, a lady appeared wearing traditional Vietnamese clothing, holding a child in her arms, with two angels beside her. The Lady comforted them and told them to boil leaves from the trees for medicine to cure the illness. The tradition states that one definition of 'LaVang' means 'crying out'; another from a native word meaning 'leaf'.

Though not an official Vatican recognition as a Marian apparition, Pope John Paul II in 1998 publicly recognized the importance of this title and expressed his support in rebuilding the basilica destroyed in the 1972 war. The feast of Our Lady of La Vang is August 15.

On June 19, 1988, Pope John Paul II canonized a group of 117 martyrs who died for the faith in Vietnam during the 19th century. 96 were Vietnamese, 11 Spaniards and 10 French. Eight were bishops. 50 were priests and 59 were lay Catholics. Some of the priests were Dominicans, others diocesan who belonged to the Paris Mission Society.

During the 17th to the 19th centuries in Vietnam, 130,000+ Christians suffered cruel martyrdom often by decapitation and strangulation. Among them was St. Andrew Dung-Lac; he was a Vietnamese diocesan priest from a poor, non-Christian family who was taught by a Christian lay catechist. Andrew was imprisoned and repeatedly tortured during the 1820-1840 persecutions of emperor Minh-Meng. Another Vietnamese Martyr was St. Peter Thi. Their feast day is Nov. 24.

Our Cathedral Filipino Network has been a vital parish group for over 20 years. Their great love for the Lord is often expressed in their devotion to Santo Nino and to the Black Nazarene of Quiapo. Also this bulletin has often featured the story of the first two Filipino saints, San Lorenzo Ruiz (Sept 28) and San Pedro Calungsod (April 2); both laymen of the 17th century, both martyrs.

The hymn of the international Eucharistic Congress in Manila in 1937 speaks of Filipinos as a 'people in love with Mary'. There are several Marian titles and devotions that are in the spiritual life of Filipinos; especially well known are Our Lady of Penafrencia, Our Lady of Manaoag, and Our Lady of Porta Vaga.

For our Filipino Network, the first image of Mary that was present at our meetings was Our Lady of Antipolo, also known as Our Lady of Peace and Good Voyage.

This image of Mary was brought to the Philippines from Mexico in 1626. Its safe passage was attributed to this image; six other safe voyages with Mary on board were attributed to her. As a church to honor her was being built on the shores of Antipolo, Rizal in the 1630s, this image vanished several times, reappearing atop a tipolo tree. Her feast day is the first Tuesday of May.

Many Filipino homes have altars with images of Jesus and Mary as well as their native and favorite saints. Filipino Cardinal Luis Tagle has said that the Blessed Mother has always shown mercy to Filipinos, especially amid challenges, because 'Mary has gone through all that'.

To learn more about these titles of Mary and these Asian Saints, let the internet do what it does best. We look forward to Fathers Ton and Don sharing more about these holy people.

Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

As a way to lighten summer, I share with you vignettes. Enjoy.... Ponder... smile....and pass it on...

What is a Grandparent?

(Taken from papers written by class of 8-year-olds)

Grandparents are a lady and a man who have no little children of their own. They like other people's.

A grandfather is a man grandmother.

Grandparents don't have to do anything except be there when we come to see them. They are so old that they shouldn't play hard or run. It is good if they drive us to the store and have lots of quarters for us.

When they take us for walks, they slow down past things like pretty leaves and caterpillars. They show us and talk to us about the color of the flowers and also why we shouldn't step on "cracks." They don't say, "Hurry up."

Usually grandmothers are fat, but not too fat to tie your shoes.

They can take their teeth and gums out.

Grandparents don't have to be smart.

They must answer questions like "Why isn't God married?" and "How come dogs chase cats?"

When they read to us, they don't skip. They don't mind if we ask for the same story over again.

Everybody should try to have a grandmother, especially if you don't have television, because they are the only grown-ups who like to spend time with us.

They know we should have snack-time before bedtime and they say prayers with us every time, and kiss us even when we've acted badly. A 6 year-old was asked where his Grandma lived. "She lives at the airport, and when we want her we just go get her. Then when we're done having her visit, we take her back to the airport."

And ponder these "Pearls of Wisdom"..... not written by children!

- If you're too open-minded, your brains will fall out.
- Artificial intelligence is no match for natural stupidity.
- My idea of housework is to sweep the room with a glance.
- It is easier to get forgiveness than permission.
- Bills travel through the mail at twice the speed of checks.
- Men are from earth. Women are from earth. Deal with it.
- A balanced diet is a cookie in each hand.
- Middle age is when broadness of the mind and narrowness of the waist changes places.
- Opportunities always look bigger going than coming.
- Junk is something you've kept for years and throw away three weeks before you need it.
- Experience is a wonderful thing. It enables you to recognize a mistake when you make it again.
- By the time you can make the ends meet, they move the ends.
- Thou shalt not weigh more than thy refrigerator.

Summer blessings,
Fr. Greg

Renew My Church Update

During the past few months, Assumption, Old St. Mary's, Old St. Patrick's, St. Peter, St. James and Holy Name Cathedral parishes engaged in the Renew My Church (RMC) review and discernment process. The Grouping Feedback and Discernment team (GFDT), which was made up of members from each community, met to review and discern how to respond to the call to renewal for the grouping's parishes, including any potential changes to parish structures.

Cardinal Blase J. Cupich, archbishop of Chicago, the archdiocese's auxiliary bishops, and the archdiocese's Presbyteral Council met to discuss the Commission's recommendation. Based upon those discussions and prayerful consideration, Cardinal Cupich made the following decisions regarding the Downtown grouping.

The new structure will be:

- The Downtown grouping's six parishes will remain in their current structure.
- Old St. Mary's School will continue in its current structure.

The parish communities will continue to the next phase of renewal, focusing on strong evangelization to the world around us. We will continue to build the new reality, focused on deepening discipleship, and supporting disciples in becoming missionary disciples for the work of evangelization.
