Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Most of us are uncomfortable with change. However, the Lord Jesus is our strength, pillar and guidepost each day. Life is a teacher and is a profound gift. I share the wisdom rendered from Noah's Ark.

Everything I need to know, I learned from Noah's Ark

- ONE: Don't miss the boat!
- TWO: Remember that we are all in the same boat!
- THREE: Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the Ark.
- FOUR: Stay fit. When you're 60 years old, someone may ask you to do something really big.
- FIVE: Don't listen to critics; just get on with the job that needs to be done.
- SIX: Build your future on high ground.
- SEVEN: For safety's sake, travel in pairs.
- EIGHT: Speed isn't always an advantage. The snails were on board with the cheetahs.
- NINE: When you're stressed, float awhile.
- TEN: Remember, the Ark was built by amateurs; the Titanic by professionals.
- ELEVEN: No matter the storm, when you are with God, there's always a rainbow waiting.

Wonderful words of wisdom to be remembered and lived — especially during those difficult times in our life! Wisdom does occur as we age if we connect the mystery of God rooted in our daily experiences. God speaks to our hearts, but are we listening? I close today's column with these words of wisdom written by an elderly individual ... read ... and pass it on ...

I would never trade my amazing friends, my wonderful life, my loving family for less gray hair or a flatter belly. As I've aged, I've become kinder to myself and less critical of myself. I've become my own friend. I don't chide myself for eating that extra cookie, or for not making my bed, or for buying that silly cement gecko that I didn't need but looks so avant-garde on my patio. I am entitled to a treat, to be messy, to be extravagant.

I have seen too many dear friends leave this world too soon, before they understood the great freedom that comes with aging.

Whose business is it if I choose to read or play on the computer until 4 a.m. and sleep until noon? I will dance with myself to those wonderful tunes of the 40's & 50's, and if I, at the same time, wish to weep over a lost love ... I will.

I will walk the beach in a swimsuit that is stretched over a bulging body, and I will dive into the waves with abandon if I choose to, despite the pitying glances from the jet set. They, too, will get old. I know I am sometimes forgetful. But there again, some of life is just as well forgotten. And I eventually remember the important things.

Sure, over the years my heart has been broken. How can your heart not break when you lose a loved one, or when a child suffers, or even when somebody's beloved pet gets hit by a car?

But broken hearts are what give us strength and understanding and compassion. A heart never broken is pristine and sterile and will never know the joy of being imperfect.

I am so blessed to have lived long enough to have my hair gray and to have my youthful laughs be forever etched into deep grooves on my face. So many have never laughed, and so many have died before their hair could turn silver.

As you get older, it is easier to be positive. You care less about what other people think. I don't question myself anymore. I've even earned the right to be wrong.

So, to answer your question, I like being old. It has set me free. I like the person I have become. I am not going to live forever on this earth, but while I am still here, I will not waste time lamenting what could have been, or worrying about what will be. And I shall eat dessert every single day (if I feel like it).

Taking one day at a time,
Fr. Greg

On the Cover

Today's Gospel intends to teach us about salvation, depicted as a narrow gate that requires strength and skill to navigate. Luke depicts judgment, the Christian life, as being difficult, with many becoming overwhelmed by its demands. How can we follow those who give their all to fight injustice through the narrow gate?

Look to Pope St. Pius X to Fuel Our Eucharistic Revival

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Like Christmas, saints' feast days fall on the same numerical day every year. But unlike Christmas, if the saint's feast day falls on a Sunday, or on a major solemnity, such as Christmas or Easter, it is not celebrated in favor of the solemnity. On Aug. 21, the Church remembers Pope St. Pius X.

St. Pius X is a special saint to me personally, as I wrote my undergrad thesis for my Bachelor's degree in Religious Studies on him. He was Pope from 1903 to 1914, and was a very humble and simple man. The focus of my thesis was on his Eucharistic reforms in the Church.

As we move further into the National Eucharistic Revival, various saints stand out in our tradition for their devotion to the Eucharist. Leading up to Pius X's papacy, the practice of reception of the Eucharist at Mass by the faithful was very low. There was a movement, the Jansinist heresy, that said the Eucharist was only for the perfect. Pius X sought to crush that heresy in two ways. The first was encouraging the frequent reception of the Eucharist, and also lowering the age of First Communion.

Through his ministry, Pius X taught the faithful that the sick need medicine, and the Eucharist is that medicine for our souls. So frequent reception of the Eucharist heals us, and also conforms us closer to Christ which is a good thing. Additionally, the age of First Communion was around 14 years old before Pius X's papacy. He lowered it to the 'age of reason' which Church law says is around 7 years old. Today, most parishes have First Communion in second grade, and some in third grade. By lowering the age, the Pope shows us that once we are able to determine right from wrong, and are able to begin to understand the mystery of the Eucharist, we should be able to receive that gift from God.

The Eucharist is a gift. It is God dwelling among us in the form of bread. The Eucharist strengthens us, nourishes us, forgives of us our venial sins, and sustains us on the journey of life. Everyone is in need of healing and an encounter with God. This is made possible through reception of the Eucharist. No, we as humans are not worthy of this gift, but the Eucharist is a gift, as Jesus freely broke and offered bread, and his life, for the salvation of the world.

On this Sunday, Aug. 21, though we celebrate the 21st Sunday in Ordinary Time, let us also take a moment to thank God for the life and ministry of Pope St. Pius X. Without his vision and desire to return to the roots of our faith, we would not be grounded in our reception of the Eucharist. May he guide our National Eucharistic Revival, deepening our need for this 'food for the journey.'

Join the Holy Name Cathedral Music Ministry!

Auditions on Sept. 11 or Sept. 13

We are inviting all interested in raising their voice in song to the Lord to enter our volunteer Music Ministry. We have several choirs: The Cathedral Filipino Singers (no need to be Filipino to join!), the Women's Schola and the Cathedral Singers.

Each fills a special place in the Cathedral liturgy and performs multiple times during our 2022-2023 choral season, from October to June. Auditions will be held on Sunday, Sept. 11 from 2 to 4pm and Tuesday, Sept. 13 from 3 to 8pm at the Music Office, located in the Cathedral Courtyard.

These auditions aren't scary — they are an opportunity for you to meet us and for us to listen to your voice and find the best ensemble fit for you. We encourage all people of any voice type to come and lift your voice — God wants to hear you praise him in song!

Any questions, please contact music@holynamecathedral.org for more information. No need to sign up in advance — come by on the dates and times listed above.

Theology on Tap

A crowd of 50 people turned out to listen to Julia Hogan speak on “A Work in Progress: Embracing the Life God Gave You” on Aug. 14 at our third installment of Theology on Tap in the Courtyard. Mark your calendar for our next Theology on Tap on Sunday, Aug. 31, after the 5:30pm Mass. The featured speaker will be our own Fr. Andy Matijevic, Director of Worship. Bring your questions: this will be an open Q&A session: “Ask Father.”

Want to become Catholic?

The Year-Round Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA) Process at Holy Name is Unique

In most parishes, a person who feels a “calling” to consider becoming a part of the Catholic Church must wait until the next RCIA process begins around mid-September and concludes at the Easter Vigil.

Well, not at Holy Name. We welcome inquirers throughout the year. There are times in the year when three separate cohorts are meeting. Each cohort (a group being formed together) gathers under the patronage of a saint, chosen by a team member. For instance:

- At Easter 2022, we welcomed nine adults from the St. Josaphat cohort into the Church.
- In early autumn 2022, we will welcome eight adults from the St. Therese de Lisieux cohort
- Next Easter, we plan to welcome adults from the St. Francis of Assisi cohort (pictured above right)
- There are preparations to begin a new cohort in autumn 2022, yet to be given a patronage.

Our three RCIA teams believe that we invite adults to the journey when the Holy Spirit calls them. We use Pope Francis’ “Art of Accompaniment” as the basis of our ministry: walk with the person, listen attentively, no pre-judgment, gain trust and invite to the Catholic tradition.

What can you do?

- Foremost, pray for our inquirers, team members and sponsors.
- Invite friends and family members who have questions about the Faith. YOU are the best ambassadors for those interested.
- Volunteer to help with some preparations and events surrounding the ministry.

The Stump of Jesse

Join our Thu./Fri. Suppers Ministry at Catholic Charities

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

I often think about the image of a seed bursting forth green leaves during summer and ask myself if my faith constantly seeks opportunities to grow like those plants! Being amazed at how wonderful this planet is and how widely the Scripture applies to our daily lives, I'd like to share some of my musings with you.

"Then a shoot shall sprout from the stump of Jesse, and from his roots, a bud shall blossom" (Isaiah 11:1). The prophet Isaiah foretells an ideal Davidic King. He shall arise filled with the spirit of wisdom, understanding, counsel, knowledge, fortitude, piety and fear of the Lord to wholeheartedly serve his people. It is King David, a chosen one that God has anointed to lead his people to live in a relationship with the Lord and one another.

People at that time thought David was the figure of a savior. However, seeing salvation history as a whole, we know that Jesus Christ is our Savior. He is the second person of the Trinity, and God incarnated to be one of us, not to rule over us as an earthly king but to rule out of love for our salvation. Through Christ's life, death, and resurrection, he took the initiative to renew us into God's image; we are made new in the sacrament of baptism. In other words, if we use the language of the old self versus the new self, we are living in the newness of life and letting our old selves/corrupted parts/sin die out.

Since we are anointed like Jesus as a priest, prophet and king, I pray and hope that, from the stump of Jesse, a new image of loving grandparents, caring parents, respectful children, good friends, and kind neighbors will emerge and blossom. Together with Christ, we can live our new selves daily to build the kingdom of God on earth! With that in mind, I'd like to share a bit about Holy Name Cathedral Thursday/Friday Suppers Ministry at Catholic Charities.

Every Thursday and Friday night, Holy Name Cathedral provides a helping hand to 120 guests at the Catholic Charities at 721 N. La Salle St. We purchase meals from local restaurants and offer a hot or bagged meal to a community that depends on this for their dinner. This ministry was founded in 2006 by Fr. John Boivin and a faithful group of volunteers and has continued to thrive ever since. Everyone involved with the suppers knows Fr. Boivin!

Fr. Joe Tito came in during the pandemic and faithfully served this ministry, identifying new and safe ways to offer the meals. The guests often ask me about him, "Where is the kind, sincere priest who used to come here on Thursday and Friday?" I have big shoes to fill as I humbly take on this responsibility. Yet, I am confident that with a group of dedicated volunteers, your support, and your prayers, we will continue to be Jesus' hands and feet, serving our neighbors in need. The kingdom of God will thrive wonderfully. "Am I, then, a new king?" Well, we have only one King, and that is Jesus Christ. Then, friends, let's continue to blossom together in Christ, through Christ, and with Christ as we carry on this ministry. ✠JMJ

Help Deserving Schools in our School Supplies Drive

This Weekend — Before and After All Masses

As adults, we remember our own days of going back to school with our homeroom class all decorated for the new school year. Teachers, then and now, work hard to create a warm and inviting environment for their students. The difficulty is that many teachers don't have the resources needed to decorate, let alone provide the basic tools their students need to be successful in the classroom.

So many teachers try to supplement the many missing school supplies by using their own money to buy needed items for their classroom and students. And now with inflation, those teacher funds don't go as far as usual. They need our help!

During all weekend Masses on August 20 and 21, we will be collecting school supplies for two schools: Our Lady of Tepeyac High School and The Academy of St. Benedict the African Elementary School.

THIS YEAR'S SCHOOLS

Our Lady of Tepeyac High School, 2228

S. Whipple St.: At this all-girls high school, their students succeed by engaging in rigorous academics, volunteering in the community, engaging in social justice and excelling on the court and the field. 100% of their graduates go to college.

Most needed items: college-ruled notebook and paper, two-pocket folders, pens and pencils, index cards, highlighters, Post-It notes, dry erase markers, calculators, Copier paper.

The Academy of St. Benedict the African, 6020 S. Laflin Ave. As the only Catholic school (preschool-8th grade) in West Englewood, they remain firmly committed to being a force of stability, spirituality, love and hope in the community.

Most needed items: No. 2 Ticonderoga pencils, Elmer's school glue sticks, Crayola 12-color watercolors, Crayola 24-pack colored pencils, black flair Pens plastic shoebox sized storage containers.

DON'T HAVE CASH? YOU STILL CAN SUPPORT THIS YEAR'S SCHOOL SUPPLIES DRIVE

You can make an online donation anytime through Aug. 22. Just scan this QR code to make an ACH or credit card donation. You can also make a cash donation before or after Mass during the weekend of Aug. 20 & 21.

Stewardship Takes Spiritual Discipline

Today's readings show us that it is not enough to be Christ's disciples in name only. To be a real disciple, we must live for Christ every day and in every aspect of life. This kind of life takes strength and discipline.

Intentionally and consistently offering the Lord the best of our Time, Talent, and Treasure through a stewardship way of life is a form of spiritual discipline. These spiritual disciplines teach us to become ever more aware of God's constant provision for us and they keep us on the narrow path towards the Kingdom of Heaven. The more we embrace this way of life, the more we can be "trained" by the Lord in the ways of true discipleship. Though difficult, these disciplines become a source of spiritual strength.

Our Lord Himself speaks of the difficult path to the Kingdom of Heaven in today's Gospel passage from Luke. He is asked, "Lord, will only a few be saved?" Jesus responds, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough." Showing up for Mass on Sunday while living as if Christ is an afterthought the rest of the week does not make us disciples. What's more, this approach to our faith is an unjust and unloving response to our good God who has given us all that we have and are.

Jesus does not want us to merely go through the motions of faith. He wants much more from us and for us. He wants to know us deeply and for us to get to know Him so that we become His holy disciples. This is not a burden; it is a privilege. But it does take discipline, the discipline of a stewardship way of life.

— Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship Consultants

A Simple Way to Give a Gift

Do you have a life insurance policy you no longer need? A gift of life insurance is a powerful and simple way to provide future support for our parish. Here are two ways to give a gift of life insurance to Holy Name Cathedral:

1. Name Holy Name Cathedral as a beneficiary of the policy. Simply update your beneficiary designation form with your policy holder and list the primary or contingent beneficiary as: "Holy Name Cathedral, The Catholic Bishop of Chicago, a Corporation Sole".

2. Make an outright gift of an existing policy. You can irrevocably name Holy Name Cathedral as owner and beneficiary of a policy with accumulated cash value that you and your family no longer need. You qualify for a federal income tax charitable deduction when

For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

— LUKE 12:34

you itemize on your taxes. Also, if you continue to pay premiums on the policy, each payment is tax deductible as a charitable gift, if you itemize.

For more information on making a gift of life insurance, we recommend you consult with your financial planner, attorney or insurance representative. Please contact Mary Lederer, Director of Stewardship, at mlederer@holynamecathedral.org or 312-573-4432 with any questions.

Replica Resurrection Crosses For Sale

At Holy Name Cathedral, our Resurrection Cross is unique. Sculpted out of one piece of wood and suspended over the altar, artist Ivo Demetz carved our Resurrection Cross in 1969. It is unique because Christ is not depicted in agony, but rather triumphant in glory.

Small replicas of our cross are for sale in the Rectory for $20. We only accept cash (exact change only) and checks made payable to Holy Name Cathedral. This replica can serve as a reminder of God’s unconditional love for you and of the connection to Holy Name Cathedral. Ask our ushers for more details.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.
