Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

For those old enough to remember, twenty-one years ago today (9/11) was one of the saddest days in the history of our country. We were glued to our televisions as the Twin Towers were turned into infernos.

We remember with profound pain and sorrow two decades later. We pray for world peace and an end to all the violence and destruction – now!

There is the story about a man who was exploring some caves by the seashore. In one of the caves, he found a canvas bag with a bunch of hardened clay balls. It was like someone had rolled up some clay and left them out in the sun to bake. They didn't look like much, but they intrigued the man, so he took the bag out of the cave with him.

As he strolled along the beach, to pass the time, he would throw the clay balls one at a time into the ocean as far as he could throw.

He thought little about it until he dropped one of the balls and it cracked open on a rock. Inside was a beautiful, precious stone. Excited, the man started breaking open the remaining clay balls. Each contained a similar treasure. He found thousands of dollars' worth of jewels in the 20 or so clay balls he had left, then it struck him.

He had been on the beach a long time. He had thrown maybe 50 or 60 of the clay balls with their hidden treasure into the ocean waves. Instead of thousands of dollars' worth of jewels in the 20 or so clay balls, he could have had tens of thousands, but he just threw it all away.

Sometimes, it's like that with people. We look at someone, maybe even ourselves, and we see the external clay vessel. It doesn't look like much from the outside. It isn't always beautiful or sparkling, so we discount it. We see that person as less important than someone more beautiful, stylish, well-known, or wealthy.

But we have not taken the time to find the treasure hidden within ourselves or another person by God. There is a treasure hidden in every one of us. Scripture says we are fearfully and wonderfully made. I don't think the author means just our physical bodies. I believe the author means our spiritual selves, which are sometimes hidden from others by the "earthen vessel."

If we take the time to get to know that person, and if we ask God the Father to show us that person the way God sees them, then the clay begins to peel away, and the brilliant gem begins to shine forth.

We are "earthen vessels" and "taking a step in faith" means making the Lord present to all we meet.

How? Through a kind word. Smile. Forgiving. Random act of kindness. Listening. Sharing time with someone. Act as if everything depended upon you. Trust as if everything depended upon God.

On the journey with you,
Fr. Greg

A special note: Words cannot express my deepest thanks to Fr. Bill Moriarity for his marvelous ministry these last 30 years at Holy Name Cathedral. His dedication, hard work, willingness to sacrifice, deep faith, profound spirituality, wonderful sense of humor and joy were obvious to all of us. Fr. Bill will always be remembered for his gift of listening and willingness to be inconvenienced. His compassion for all knew no boundaries. Fr. Bill was an absolute joy in our rectory. Our prayers will always be with you and please know you have left a huge heart print within our Faith Community. God's blessings always, Fr. Bill! Please join Fr. Bill for his Mass of Thanksgiving at 12:30pm on Sunday, followed by a reception in the Courtyard.

Remembering Fr. Mychal Judge, 9/11's "Victim 0001"

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

As we remember the attacks on Sept. 11, 2001, we pray for the 2,996 victims who lost their lives on that day and for their surviving families. Even as a seven-year-old, I remember where I was when I heard of the attacks. Sept. 11, 2001, will always be a day held in memory of those who died and those who heroically walked into the chaos, seeking to help others.

One such hero is Fr. Mychal Judge, OFM. Fr. Judge was a Catholic Franciscan Friar who became the New York City Fire Department Chaplain in 1992. During his ministry, Fr. Judge faithfully ministered to all people from all walks of life, embodying the Franciscan charism of service and love to the poor. He helped the hungry and homeless, the LGBTQ community, those with AIDS, recovering alcoholics and immigrants. He was deeply respected and loved among the people in New York City.

During the terrorist attacks, Fr. Judge went into the lobby of the North Tower, where there was an emergency command post. Fr. Judge prayed with victims, offered help to other rescuers, and blessed the dead. As the South tower collapsed, debris came into the North Tower lobby, striking Fr. Judge as he was ministering to others, killing him. Though Fr. Judge was not the literal first person to die in the attacks, he was the first body to be taken to and identified by the medical examiner, designating him as Victim 0001.

Before the North Tower collapsed, four firefighters and one policeman carried out Fr. Judge's body. Shannon Stapleton, a photographer for Reuters captured this photo, now widely revered as the American Pieta. His funeral on Sept. 15, 2001, celebrated by Cardinal Edward Egan of New York, drew 3,000 people.

On this day, we also remember all first responders and express our gratitude and support for them and their service to us as citizens. The first responders run towards the problem when we run from burning buildings or danger. When we are in need, we call first responders to help. Thank you to all past and present first responders who have served and are serving our communities, working to keep us safe.

The life and witness of Fr. Judge, and all first responders, is a living testament that there are heroes among us in ordinary clothing, living everyday lives. As we continue our journey of discipleship, may we answer the call to serve Christ in others, not counting the cost nor living in fear that it will be the end, but in total self-gift to others and giving thanks to God, from whom all good things come.

How Better to Be Humble in Today's World

By Fr. Louis J. Cameli

Second of two parts. The first part ran in last week's bulletin and also can be found by scanning the QR code at the end of the column.

In preparation for the Sacrament of Penance, we are called to make an examination of conscience. That good and healthy exercise helps us pinpoint how we have failed God, others, and ourselves. An examination of conscience can foster honest self-knowledge for humility, but it is insufficient. We also need to discern the gifts that make us who we are. Remember that humility is a full sense of honesty that embraces limitations but also gifts. How do we do that discernment of gifts? There is a path forward for that discernment.

The deliberate and intentional discipline of gratitude enables us to discern the gifts that belong to us. We take stock of what God has given us beginning with the very gift of life itself and then the sacred relationships that connect us with others. We note the talents, opportunities, and possibilities that belong to us. As we scan our lives through the lens of gratitude, we recognize the blessings that belong to us. We know the gifts. We can honestly claim them. We gather them with the limitations that also inevitably belong to us. Together — gifts and limitations — mark out an honest picture of who we are. That leads to humility.

Gratitude in itself is also a path to living humbly. Being grateful means that we know and remember we are fundamentally not self-made people. God created us, and Jesus redeemed us. The things that matter most to us enter our lives, not because of our own making, but because God gave them to us as gifts. Again, these gifts include life itself, precious relationships, and the faith and hope that sustain us. To recognize what we have been given and what we have leads us to gratitude, not entitlement and, certainly, not a sense that we are owed something. We cannot indulge in sinful pride and be truly grateful at the same time. Gratitude makes us and keeps us humble.

Another path to genuine humility involves letting go of calculation. If we relentlessly and restlessly calculate what we need to do, how we need to approach others, where we need to be positioned — all to achieve or acquire what we want — we can never have a peaceful and free sense of humility. When we are always ready to jump ahead, to plan outcomes according to our own design, and to work thing out so that we end up winning whatever, then we threaten our own sense of integrity. We cannot calculate and try to control life and, at the same time, be honestly, simply, and gratefully humble. Jesus said very pointedly about this free and non-calculating way of living: “When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbors, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you...” (Luke 14:12-14) To be free of calculation means to be humble and truly free.

In our culture, as we reflected earlier, the bias is against humility. It seems to be the virtue of passive, self-denigrating, and even groveling people. In fact, as we look at our tradition, the opposite is true. Humble people, genuinely humble people are very attractive. You want to be with them. They draw others to themselves, because they are honest, grateful, free, and joyful. They are certainly at peace with themselves and others.

Finally, humble people are close to God. Words from the prophet Micah remind us: “With what shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before God on high?... He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.” (Micah 6:6, 8)

Transitions of a Priest: Goodbyes, Hellos & IKEA shopping

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

With a rolling walker, Leah made her steady steps toward the young man. Tears started to fall on Leah's cheeks as she shakily said, "I am so sad that you are leaving us. Can I have a hug?" And the conversation continues. As the young man was embracing the reality of leaving his first parish as a priest, he received an email asking if he had any furniture moving to a new place. "What? What kind of furniture?" he asked. "Your bed, sofa, etc." Since he thought furniture would miraculously appear in any given room, he got a kind instruction to shop at IKEA. He didn't know where to start with millions of items to select from. Fortunately, a clerk helped him out. He now had more appreciation of the typical family activity of having to choose furnishings for the home.

Moving to Holy Name Cathedral, many people have been approaching him with their bright smiles introducing themselves, touring him around the facilities, giving him notes and pieces of advice, welcoming him, and trying to make him feel at home. The young man was again trying to grasp reality. People often address this circumstance as "overwhelming mode." So, he knelt before the tabernacle and conversed with the Lord.

Many of us might have been in a similar situation as "there is nothing new under the sun" (Ecclesiastes 1:9). We hear about Abraham and Sarah running around collecting herbs, catching a steer, and preparing a meal from this weekend's first reading. Martha ran like "a chicken without a head" in the kitchen to host Jesus. Those welcoming initiatives may be reasonable and necessary (breaking me into this beautiful parish with a cup of coffee or meals are good things). Yet, Jesus said, "Mary has chosen the better part, and it will not be taken away from her." And what is the better part? It is to listen to God's word, gnaw on those words, and live it. JMJ.

I Love Being a Priest

As I nervously accepted the emergency on-call phone, Fr. Moriarity calmly explained the procedure of taking these calls from Northwestern Hospital. He shared his experiences as a Chaplain at the hospital, signaled Fr. Andy to give me a tour, and printed out an anointing prayer for the sick card. And Fr. Moriarity had it laminated – so fancy and high-tech. What a model priest for me to follow! We wish Fr. Moriarity a blessed farewell filled with God's grace and love.

Want to become Catholic?

The Year-Round Rite of Christian Initiation (RCIA) Process at Holy Name is Unique

In most parishes, a person who feels a "calling" to consider becoming a part of the Catholic Church must wait until the next RCIA process begins around mid-September and concludes at the Easter Vigil. Well, not at Holy Name. We welcome inquirers throughout the year. Our three RCIA teams believe that we invite adults to the journey when the Holy Spirit calls them. Each cohort (a group being formed together) gathers under the patronage of a saint, chosen by a team member.

- At Easter 2022, we welcomed nine adults from the St. Josaphat cohort into the Church.
- In early autumn 2022, we will welcome eight adults from the St. Therese de Lisieux cohort
- Next Easter, we plan to welcome adults from the St. Francis of Assisi cohort
- There are preparations to begin a new cohort in autumn 2022, yet to be given a patronage.

Career Network: Helping You With Your Job Hunt

Thursday, Sept. 15 at 7:00pm in the Club Room

This interactive workshop will provide tips, strategies, and real-life examples to enhancing your job search efforts. Learn about “go-to” resources to help you make the most of today’s online resources.

There are some excellent web resources to explore career direction, research job opportunities, assure key words and criteria on your resume and in your LinkedIn Profile, and prepare for interviews and conversations. Part of the impetus behind this program is to help job seekers use the internet effectively, not scouring listings, reading career advice, or blasting out their résumé.

While we recommend researching companies and the internet can be a great source of information, you need to focus your efforts on networking and meeting people face to face. A workbook with resources will be provided. Our guest speaker will be Anita Jenke, Executive Director, The Career Transitions Center

Join Our Ministry of Care to Bring Communion to the Sick

Holy Name Cathedral’s Ministry of Care is dedicated to engaging fellow Catholics in prayer, reflection, and support so these individuals feel the comfort of faith when faced with a serious illness or chronic disease. Members of the Ministry -Ministers of Care-visit Catholics while they are undergoing treatment in a healthcare facility or facing an illness that has them homebound.

Ministers of Care visit with those undergoing treatment at a time when they face challenges in their lives. Ministers comfort these individuals by offering conversation, a listening presence, the comfort of prayer, and sharing the Eucharist. Through the compassion extended by Ministers of Care, individuals in need of care experience the nearness of God and a connection to their faith community as they journey on the road to recovery.

Ministers of Care visit people in their homes or at one of the following local healthcare facilities:

- Northwestern Memorial Hospital
- Prentice Women’s Hospital
- Shirley Ryan Ability Lab
- Warren Barr Pavilion

Ministers of Care serve on a weekly basis or twice monthly for approximately two hours each time. Comprehensive training and continuing education are provided to those who serve in the Ministry. Interested in learning more about this Ministry? Just click on the QR Code and we will be in touch! Our initial gathering to restart the ministry will be in early October.

Seminarian Education Second Collection

Sept. 17 & 18 Weekend

Today, more than ever, we need compassionate and knowledgeable priests who will walk with us through life, sharing in our joys and sorrows and guiding us through life's challenges. The weekend of September 17 and 18 there will be a second collection at all Masses for the formation of our seminarians. Your financial support will help to cover the educational and formational costs of their preparation, including tuition and fees, room and board and health insurance. Please join us in investing in the formation of our seminarians and the future of our Church. Remittance envelopes will be placed in the back of the Cathedral, or you can make a gift online at archchicago.org/seminarianfund. Thank you for your support.

Becoming God's Grateful Stewards

Today's readings focus on the personal, passionate, and merciful love of God which should fill us with unending gratitude to Him. This gratitude is the fuel, if you will, that keeps the stewardship way of life rolling along.

In our Second Reading, from St. Paul's letter to Timothy, we find a grateful Paul who says of himself, "I was once a blasphemer and a persecutor and arrogant, but I have been mercifully treated." St. Paul is well aware of the sins he has committed. But this does not hold him back from ministry. Rather, it makes him all the more grateful to be God's steward. How encouraging to know that this is true for us as well. Our past sins, and even our present struggles, do not disqualify us from becoming God's grateful stewards.

Jesus gives us several poignant illustrations of His merciful love in today's Gospel reading from Luke. Let us focus on one, in particular — the story of the lost sheep. He asks, "What man among you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the 99 ... and go after the lost one until he finds it?"

The logical response is no one! It simply does not make sense to spend time and energy searching for one lost sheep when there are so many others to tend to. But God's logic, God's mercy, defies human logic. And who is the lost one? It is every one of us when we stray away from God through sin, great or small.

What gratitude we owe to such a personal, passionate, loving God! Just think, even our sins, once forgiven, become a source of fuel for our stewardship way of life as we reflect with deep gratitude on the powerful mercy of our Savior.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention.
