Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The sudden and unexpected influx of men, women and children seeking asylum to U.S cities, including Chicago, over recent weeks has presented our community with significant challenges but also significant opportunities to share God's message of compassion and joy. The plight of these asylum seekers, most of whom are fleeing violence, political oppression and crushing poverty in their home countries causes us grave concern, but I am convinced that this is a moment for us to join together in a mission of love and mercy.

Over 3,000 asylum seekers arrived in our city as of mid-October. Almost all the migrants we have welcomed report that they plan to stay in the Chicago area and will need support to reestablish their lives. Unlike other migrants, most do not have relatives in the States with whom they can live and learn as they build new lives.

The Catholic community has shown an outpouring of compassion as churches, religious congregations, and other ministries have opened their doors, and Catholic Charities has deployed a team to connect people with loved ones and conduct initial needs assessments. Across the Church, many parishes have responded, and more help is needed. We have mobilized to create a coordinated Catholic response to assist asylum seekers so we might maximize the impact of our assistance as we bear witness to our faith. A Working Group has gathered to evaluate opportunities to serve. We are considering several options including transitional shelter, parish sponsorships, and pastoral care for asylum seekers.

In support of these efforts, parishes throughout the Archdiocese will hold a second collection for asylum seekers at all Masses celebrated the weekend of November 5-6. The commitment of faithful Catholics like you will help ensure the success of this mission. Please consider giving to this collection or giving directly to Catholic Charities which will serve as a central gathering point for donations. You can make a donation to this effort by following a link on the Catholic Charities website: www.catholiccharities.net, by emailing donations@catholiccharities.net or by calling (312) 655-7525.

Assisting asylum seekers will require significant time, talent and treasure. Anyone interested in knowing more about participating in this response may contact Tori Bawel at Catholic Charities (WelcomeTheStranger@catholiccharities.net). We will keep you informed and welcome your questions, prayers, and support.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

In today's Gospel,
we hear about Zacchaeus, the tax collector, who seeks out Jesus by climbing up a tree
and reaching out

from a branch. Tax collectors were hated in Judea of Jesus' time. But Jesus acknowledges Zacchaeus which shocks the crowd who think he is not worthy of the His attention.

Clearly, Zacchaeus is missing something in his life. This interaction changed Zacchaeus forever, eventually giving away half of his possessions.
Zacchaeus is much like us, chasing dreams of money, fame, fulfillment and happiness. Today we can discover a new way of living, one that is truly fulfilling and empowering. We need only answer Jesus' call and take our first steps on this adventure which, if we are faithful to it, will lead us to everlasting life in heaven.

Remember Our Death by Praying for Those Who Have Died

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

This Wednesday, Nov. 2, is All Souls Day, also called the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed. In Mexico, the day is known as Dia de Los Muertos or Day of the Dead. From the beginning of Christianity, we have prayed for the dead. One can see this in the Roman catacombs, as the faithful went to the tombs of the early Christians martyred for the faith.

The Catholic Church has prayed for the dead in various ways throughout the centuries. Within each celebration of the Mass, there are two prominent examples. The first example is that the last petition in the universal prayer generally is for the faithful departed. The second example is whatever Eucharistic Prayer the presider chooses (there are 10 options; in some seasons, the presider is limited in his selection), there is always a reference to the dead. Two examples are: “Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy” (Eucharistic Prayer II). And “To our departed brothers and sisters and to all who were pleasing to you at their passing from this life, give kind admittance to your kingdom” (Eucharistic Prayer III).

And you may ask yourself, why? Why do we pray for the dead? Why do we continue to remember those who have died, especially since the grief of their passing is so deep and heavy? Our Christian belief is that those baptized have died in Christ and that the body’s physical death is when we await the promise of the resurrection. Those who have died in the flesh, “for God’s faithful people, life is changed, not ended” (Preface for the Dead, I).

Death is a part of the human condition. In a sense, we are born to die. But as we live and move and are aware of this reality, we are called to live according to God’s will, giving Him glory and honor by doing what he created us to do: love. Grief is painful because our love for those who have died has nowhere to go. As people of faith, we remember our death by praying for those who have died, that one day we will all be united in the new and eternal Jerusalem.

Join us this Wednesday at any of our liturgies at 7am, 8am, 12pm and 5:15pm as we come together to pray for our beloved dead. At the 5:15pm Mass, our talented choir will sing the Requiem Mass composed in 1947 by Maurice Duruflé while we remember in a particular way those whose passing we have had in the Cathedral in the past year. Due to the Requiem music and the remembrance of the deceased at the 5:15pm special Mass, the Mass will be longer than a typical Wednesday evening Mass. Let us come to thank God for our loved ones and pray they are enjoying the face of God for eternity.

Feast of All Souls

Masses on Wednesday, Nov. 2

On Nov. 2, we will gather to remember those who have passed away over the past year. We invite you to join us for this annual Mass to pray for the repose of all these souls. We will have four Masses on All Souls Day (7am, 8am, 12noon, and 5:15pm). Fr. Greg Sakowicz will be the celebrant at the 5:15pm Mass.

If you plan to be with us at the 5:15pm Mass, please feel free to bring a framed picture of your loved one to place on the steps of the altar during the Mass (this Mass only). Our ushers will be available to assist you in placing the picture of your loved one. This is a beautiful tradition that adds to the presence of your loved one in our Mass.

Annual White Coat Mass

Sunday, Nov. 13, 2022 at 12:30pm Mass

Join us as at Holy Name Cathedral as we celebrate and honor all medical personnel at our annual White Coat Mass. At the conclusion of this mass, all hands of those in the medical profession will be blessed as they continue to bring hope and healing to the sick in our world. All are welcome to attend.

Our presider and homilist will be Fr. Andy Matijevic, Director of Worship at Holy Name Cathedral. Following this Mass, there will be a brief reception in the Parish Center Cafeteria and the relaunch of the Cathedral's Ministry of Care Program after an extended COVID-19 hiatus.

Join Our Ministry of Care: Introductory Session on Nov. 13

"I was sick, and you visited Me."

— Matthew 25:36

After our extended two-year+ hiatus, we now have the green light to resume the Ministry of Care at local healthcare facilities. This includes Northwestern Hospital (Galter, Feinberg and Prentice), Shirley Ryan AbilityLab, and Warren Barr Rehabilitation Center. There are two additional locations that we hope to add later in 2023. All these facilities are a short walking distance from the Cathedral. We also have several opportunities to visit the homebound who are unable to come to church.

What is the Ministry of Care?

Ministry of Care to the sick is a pastoral ministry of caring for those who are hospitalized, in nursing homes, hospice, or confined to private homes. Volunteer ministers are trained to conduct pastoral visits with time to listen and pray about the concerns of the sick or shut-in person and to share the Eucharist with them.

Becoming a Minister of Care

Each minister must complete a minimum of ten hours of training. Holy Name Cathedral is blessed to have a cadre of priests and deacons who collaborate with Lori Doyle, Director of Service Ministries, to design and deliver the training. Deacon Dan Welter is joining the team and will be supporting the ministry going forward. Please plan to attend our Introductory Session on Sunday, Nov. 13, following the White Coat Mass and Reception. We will gather in the Parish Center (FXW) Auditorium. All new and returning ministers are encouraged to attend. We will start at 2pm and finish no later than 3:30pm. Follow up training for new ministers will be Sat., Nov. 19 and Sat., Dec. 10. All ministers will be required to complete new safety and health protocols.

Scan the QR code to register. Any questions can be sent to Lori Doyle at ldoyle@holynamecathedral.org

World Day of the Poor: Join Our Volunteer Teams on Nov. 5 & 13

Pope Francis established the World Day of the Poor in 2017. This year he shared a reflection “Jesus Christ... for your sakes became poor” (2 Corinthians 8:9). With these words, the Apostle Paul addresses the first Christians of Corinth in order to encourage their efforts to show solidarity with their brothers and sisters in need. The World Day of the Poor comes this year as a healthy challenge, helping us to reflect on our style of life and on the many forms of poverty all around us... May this 2022 World Day of the Poor be for us a moment of grace. May it enable us to make a personal and communal examination of conscience and to ask ourselves whether the poverty of Jesus Christ is our faithful companion in life”

Please consider joining our volunteer teams as we pack and deliver Bags of Kindness to our neighbors in need. These bags contain gift cards for food, some snacks, prayers, and other personal items. This event has two parts: filling the bags on the morning of Saturday, Nov.

5. And then on Sunday, Nov. 13, we will gather as a team for a blessing at the 10:30am Mass and then move out into the neighborhood to hand out the bags. You are welcome to serve at either or both days.

Christmas in October!

FINAL WEEKEND! Help Us Fill our Christmas Bags for Catholic Charities Suppers

Every Thursday and Friday afternoon a team of volunteers from Holy Name Cathedral organizes a supper to be served to 130 of our neighbors in need at the Catholic Charities center on LaSalle Street. Holy Name Cathedral entirely funds this program.

Each holiday season, we give our guests a Christmas bag to support them through the holidays. Help us fill our holiday bags by donating $20 gift cards from Jewel-Osco grocery store (accessible to all our guests) and drop it off at the Rectory or drop in the Sunday collection. Or scan the QR code and donate online – we will purchase the cards for you! Thank you for your support.

Warm Gloves for Christmas Bags For Suppers Guests

This is the time of year when we look to our lives and realize how grateful we are to God for his many blessings.

We have a way for you to express your gratitude by an act of generosity on your part.

Many people who spend a great deal of time outside do not have warm gloves or a way to buy them. Holy Name is seeking to collect new pairs of warm winter gloves (mostly men) to be given out at the Thursday and Friday Suppers in early December.

Please drop off the gloves to the Rectory by Sunday, Nov. 24 (Mon-Sat 9a-4pm; Sun 9a-2p). We need 200 pairs of gloves. Thank you and God bless!

Holy Name Cathedral
730 North Wabash Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60611-2514

Dear Father Sakowicz,

With the leadership and encouragement that you and your staff offered, the people of Holy Name Cathedral have very generously supported this year's Annual Catholic Appeal. Together, you have raised gifts and pledges exceeding your 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal goal of $234,900. For that remarkable generosity and in the name of our local Church, I want to thank you and all the members of your parish community. In the midst of so many challenges that we face, your parish has heard and responded to the theme of the Appeal: Making all things new—God's promise and our responsibility.

Please let your people of Holy Name Cathedral know the gratitude of this entire local Church for their support that enables the mission and ministry entrusted to us by the Lord to move forward. As we walk together in a challenging renewal process, we need to pray and to hold fast to God's promise to make all things new and to our responsibility to collaborate with that great movement.

The Annual Catholic Appeal is an important instrument to foster renewal and revitalization in all our parish communities. The generosity of your parishioners gives witness to their commitment to walk this path. May the good Lord bless them for that and keep them steadfast.

Finally, Father Sakowicz, I ask you to call your people to pray for me and for all their brothers and sisters in the Archdiocese of Chicago and for the Church universal in communion with Pope Francis, so that we can always and everywhere live by God's promise and reclaim our responsibility. Thank you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

The World Series has started; unfortunately, the White Sox and Cubs are both watching from home. I have always enjoyed baseball since childhood (White Sox fan!) though football has always been my favorite sport to play!

Fr. Med Laz (Treats for the Soul) recently shared this powerful story which opened my eyes. Please read ... and pass it on ...

Knowing Who You Are!

On April 26, 1992, a baby was born to parents who did not want him for whatever reason. Fortunately for that child and the world, they chose to give him up for adoption.

One day after he was born, he was adopted by Patty and Wayne Judge, who went on to love him and raise him the same as if he was born to them. Thirty years later, that baby is 6-foot-7 and weighs 282 pounds. On Oct. 4, Aaron Judge hit his 62nd home run of the 2022 MLB season for the New York Yankees, setting the single-season record for the American League.

While Patty and Wayne Judge, two retired physical education teachers from California, did not give him his 6-foot-seven stature, they did teach Aaron how to be a devoted Christian, hardworking, and respectful.

Here are Aaron Judge's priorities in order of importance: "Christian Faith, Family, then Baseball." He goes on to say, "If what you did yesterday still seems big today, then you haven't done anything today."

Aaron Judge had a closed adoption. He does not and never has had any contact with his biological parents. Aaron claims that he has never wanted to either. He says, "I have one set of parents, the ones who raised me. That's how it is. ... When I was 10 or 11, I started asking questions, and they told me I was adopted. They answered all my questions, and that was that. It really didn't bother me because they were the only parents I've ever known."

Aaron Judge has put it perfectly, "Some kids grow up in their Mom's stomach. I grew up in my Mom's heart. She's always shown me love and compassion since I was a little baby. For this reason, I've never needed to think differently or wonder about anything."

Judge goes on to say, "I know I wouldn't be a New York Yankee if it wasn't for my Mom. The guidance she gave me as a kid growing up, knowing the difference between right and wrong, how to treat people, and how to go the extra mile and put in extra work. All that kind of stuff. She's molded me into the person I am today."

How does hearing this aspect of Aaron Judge's life and hearing what he has to say about his Mom impact YOUR thoughts and feelings about YOUR own life?

Great food for thought as a 2022 World Series winner will be crowned this week!

Enjoy Halloween!

In a sports mood,
Fr. Greg

Cathedral Express Tour Today After 10:30 Mass

You're invited to take a tour of beautiful, historic Holy Name Cathedral from our Cathedral Docents. No reservations needed!

- Every Sunday after the 10:30 a.m. Mass: Docents will give quick 15-minute express tours. The tours will begin immediately after Mass and will start at the front of the main, center aisle.
- On the first and third Sundays of the month — unless there is a conflicting event — after the 12:30 p.m. Mass: Docents will give a full tour that lasts approximately 45 minutes.

For information on how to schedule tours during the week, please visit our website.

Young Adult Fellowship Fireside Chat with Fr. Ton

After 5:15pm Mass, Sunday, Nov. 6

Join our Young Adults Ministry on Sunday, Nov. 6 for a fireside chat with Fr. Ton Nguyen, one of our new Associate Pastors. We will start with the 5:15pm Sunday mass and then gather in the Courtyard (assuming weather cooperates!). Fr. Ton will be leading a discussion on the topic of “love being a Young Adult.”

Fr. Ton Nguyen

Our plan is to have a firepit to create an evening ablaze with the colors of white-hot fire shimmering through yellow and orange flames.

There will be food, games, and fun! Don't miss this event as one of our final opportunities to gather in the Courtyard before the winter cold. In case the weather doesn't cooperate, we will move into the Parish Center Clubroom. Don't miss this event!

Prayers

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention.

Just scan the QR code to complete the request form.

Sign up for eGiving today!

eGiving is a secure and convenient way of giving to Holy Name Cathedral. It is eco-friendly and cost-saving. Just scan the QR code to make
