Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Please read both stories from the start and do not skip to the end. The ending left me speechless ... I have nothing to add.

Story Number One

Many years ago, Al Capone virtually owned Chicago. Capone was notorious for everything from bootlegged booze and prostitution to murder. Capone had a lawyer nicknamed “Easy Eddie.” Eddie was very good and kept Al out of jail for a long time.

To show his appreciation, Capone paid him very well. Eddie lived the high life and gave little consideration to the Mob atrocities that went on around him.

Eddie did have one soft spot — his son. Eddie saw to it that his son had the best clothes, cars and education. And, despite his involvement with organized crime, Eddie tried to teach him right from wrong. Eddie wanted his son to be a better man than he was.

Yet, with all his power, there were two things he couldn’t give his son: a good name or a good example.

One day, Easy Eddie reached a difficult decision. Easy Eddie wanted to rectify the wrongs he had done.

He decided he would go to the authorities and tell the truth about Capone, clean up his tarnished name, and offer his son some resemblance of integrity. To do this, he testified against the Mob, knowing the great cost.

Within the year, Easy Eddie’s life ended in a blaze of gunfire. But in his eyes, he had given his son the greatest gift, at the greatest price he could ever pay. Police removed from his pockets a rosary, a crucifix, a religious medallion and a poem clipped from a magazine.

The poem read: “The clock of life is wound but once, and no man has the power to tell just when the hands will stop at a late or early hour. Now is the only time you own. Live, love, toil with a will. Place no faith in time. For the clock may soon be still.”

Story Number Two

World War II produced many heroes. One such man was Lt. Cmdr. Butch O’Hare. He was a fighter pilot assigned to the aircraft carrier Lexington in the South Pacific.

One day his squadron was sent on a mission. After he was airborne, he looked at his fuel gauge and realized that someone had forgotten to top off his fuel tank.

He would not have enough fuel to complete his mission and get back to his ship. His flight leader told him to return to the carrier. Reluctantly, he dropped out of formation and headed back to the fleet.

On his return, he saw something that turned his blood cold; a squadron of Japanese aircraft was speeding its way toward the American fleet.

The American fighters were gone, and the fleet was all but defenseless. He couldn’t reach his squadron nor could he warn the fleet.

Laying aside all thoughts of personal safety, he dove into the formation of Japanese planes, attacking one surprised enemy plane and then another. Butch firing until all his ammunition was finally spent.

Undaunted, he continued. He dove at the planes, trying to clip a wing or tail in hopes of damaging as many enemy planes as possible. Finally, the exasperated Japanese squadron took off in another direction.

Deeply relieved, Butch O’Hare and his tattered fighter limped back to the carrier. Upon arrival, the film from the gun-camera mounted on his plane showed he had destroyed five enemy aircraft. For his actions, he became the Navy’s first Ace of WWII and the first Naval Aviator to win the Medal of Honor.

A year later, Butch was killed in aerial combat at the age of 29. His hometown would not allow his memory to fade, and today, O’Hare International Airport is named in tribute to his courage. So, the next time you’re at O’Hare, visit Butch’s memorial displaying his statue and his Medal of Honor. It’s located between Terminals 1 and 2.

So what do these stories have to do with each other?

Butch O’Hare was “Easy Eddie’s” son.

God’s Blessings,
Fr. Greg

"The Disciples Admire the Buildings of the Temple" by James Tissot (1886-94). Brooklyn Museum

For several weeks, we've felt the drama of end times building. Today, we find ourselves one Sunday away from the end of the liturgical year, and the heat of impending judgment is high. The Gospel describes a terrible time of trial. Yet, as in the prophecy from Malachi (first reading), the faithful who persevere will be protected.

Jesus lays out the brutal path of martyrdom in today's Gospel. Those who give their lives for Christ will be seized, persecuted and even betrayed by the people closest to them. Yet amid this torture, Jesus promises "Not a hair on your head will be destroyed." (Luke 21:10). Jesus' teachings often involve holding two seemingly opposite realities in tension: death and life, poverty and riches, pain and salvation. Our call is to trust God's abiding love for us.

Yes, Cremation is Allowed in the Catholic Church

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

For years there has been a misunderstanding of the practice of cremation within the Catholic Church. The Church prohibited cremation in the first century until the 1960s for a few reasons. Cremation was primarily the use of deposition of the deceased for pagans and atheists. Since death is the end of one's life and they don't believe in the resurrection, the cremation is the total annihilation of the body. It was believed that to destroy the body through cremation would be the final way to deny the existence of the resurrection, and by extension, of God.

In 2016, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith issued an instructional document, "Ad resurgendum cum Christo/ To Rise with Christ," clarifying the Church's stance on cremation. The burial of the body gives tangible belief in the resurrection of the dead at the end of time. Burial also honors the dignity of the body, as each person is uniquely made in the image and likeness of God (To Rise with Christ, 3). Through a full-body burial, we show our belief in the resurrection and respect for the body, ultimately giving a fuller expression of the belief of our Christian faith in the face of death.

Since the Second Vatican Council in 1963, the Church changed to permit cremation with some parameters. Because of rising costs of a traditional full-body funeral, immediate cremation and a funeral Mass is becoming more popular. However, that is not the preferred way. The current stance of the Catholic Church is that the Church permits cremation; however, it prefers the body to be present for the vigil for the deceased (wake) and the funeral Mass. After the Mass, the body can be cremated and buried in a cemetery. The cremated remains should not be kept at home, scattered or divided among the family.

It is important to remember whether it is a full-body burial or cremation, the deceased's body should be treated with the utmost care and respect. We believe the body will rise from the dead because this body was made in the image and likeness of God (Genesis 1:27). This body was a dwelling for the Holy Spirit and received the body of Christ through the reception of the Holy Eucharist.

It is never too early to talk about your funeral plans with family, your Church's pastoral ministers or the staff at a funeral home or cemetery. With so many decisions, planning your funeral will take pressure off your loved ones and ensure your wishes are followed. As Christians, whether buried in the grave or having your cremated remains entombed in a niche, we continue to profess that when the trumpet sounds, all will rise from the dead to eternal glory.

Closing of the Holy Door

For the past year, we have been celebrating the Diamond Jubilee of Mother Frances Xavier Cabrini's canonization.

Mother Cabrini was the first U.S. citizen to be canonized a saint and the first Chicagoan. On Oct 15, we blessed and dedicated a bas-relief reliquary containing a 1st class relic of Mother Cabrini, as well as a life size statue of her in our Courtyard. Throughout the year, the Holy Door was open, allowing pilgrims to obtain a plenary indulgence having fulfilled the necessary requirements. With Mother Cabrini's feast day on Nov. 13, the Holy Year has now concluded, and the Holy Door is now 'closed.' The next Jubilee Year with the opening of the Holy Door will be in 2025, with the universal theme of: Pilgrims of Hope.

Catholic Charities Junior Board Relaunch

We need YOU! All people between the ages of 21 and 45 are welcome on the Catholic Charities Junior Board, whose motivation is to become more involved in the work of Catholic Charities and to give back to the community through volunteer service, social fundraising, and theological exploration.

Come meet our executive team, learn more about upcoming service opportunities and connect with young professionals excited to support the Catholic Charities mission at our relaunch celebration for the Catholic Charities Junior Board.

The event will be from 6:00pm – 7:30pm on Thursday, Nov. 17 at Catholic Charities (721 N. LaSalle St.). RSVP by Wednesday, Nov. 16; scan the QR code to register.

Cathedral Express Tour Today After 10:30 Mass

You're invited to take a tour of Holy Name Cathedral from our Cathedral Docents. No reservations needed!

- Every Sunday after the 10:30 a.m. Mass: Docents will give quick 15-minute express tours. The tours will begin immediately after Mass and will start at the front of the main, center aisle.
- On the first and third Sundays of the month — unless there is a conflicting event — after the 12:30 p.m. Mass: Docents will give a full tour that lasts approximately 45 minutes. There will not be a full tour on Oct. 2 because of an event.

New Bible Study Program for Young Adult Women

Are you a Young Adult woman in your 20s or 30s? We invite you to join our new Bible Study group for Young Adult women. We will meet every Tuesday at 7:00pm in the Rectory, starting on Tuesday Nov. 22. We will be reading the bible together, praying, and growing in fellowship as young adult women in Chicago. This is a great opportunity to meet other women while deepening our relationship with God. All are welcome to join us – there is always room for you! Fr. Ton Nguyen will be our spiritual director.

Young Adult Men's Bible Study

Tuesdays at 7:00pm in Rectory, Room 209

The Young Adult Ministry now has a Bible Study at the Cathedral for men in their 20s and 30s. Our meetings will be on Tuesday evenings at 7pm in Room 204 of the Rectory. We will read the gospel, pray and reflect on God's word.

Fr. Ton Nguyen, one of our new Associate Pastors, will be there to guide us. Please join us on this Tuesday, Nov. 15 at 7:00pm! For more information, scan the QR code.

Be Christ's Hands and Feet — Serve at Thu/Fri Suppers

"Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he sees compassion in this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, and yours are the feet and the eyes. You are his body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours."

— St. Theresa of Avila

By Ursula Aguirre

Having traversed several blocks from home through a snow blizzard, I stopped momentarily to clear snow from my hood. As I raised my head to lead onward, I saw a person before me with what appeared to be a walking stick flailing in the wind. Before I knew it, I was holding a frail woman by her shoulders and saw that she wore an ID around her neck that read "deaf and blind." I secured her walking stick in her hand, gently cleared snow from her hood and coat, and made a forward motion with her walking stick. I laced my arm through hers to keep her safe and steady and to guide me. I asked our Lord to watch over us.

We walked the same path I had just walked and beyond. Amid this terrible blizzard, I maneuvered us around snow drifts too high to overcome alone. We crossed the street three times and walked at least half a mile when we arrived at a familiar, long road of single-family homes with large open front lawns.

Halfway down the street, she motioned to turn, and we walked up some stairs, where she rang the doorbell. A blind man answered the door. I expressed joy at her safe arrival by clapping our hands together. She took my hands in hers and attempted to say something, which I could not discern, but I could see the great effort in her face to try again and said, "God Bless You."

Ursula Aguirre is the program coordinator for Holy Name's Thursday/Friday Supper Ministry at Catholic Charities.

Join Us in Our Thursday/Friday Suppers Ministry

Every Thursday and Friday, Holy Name Cathedral provides 130 suppers for our neighbors in need. Our volunteers gather at Catholic Charities (721 N. LaSalle St.) to prepare the meals and serve our guests (usually starting at 3pm). As this program is entirely funded by Holy Name Cathedral, we count on donors like you to help us provide these meals week in and week out. Please consider donating to the Rector's Appeal (see page 10 of today's bulletin) which will fund our meals and allow us to continue caring for our neighbors.

We are so grateful for the many volunteers who serve these meals, especially the Supper Coordinators who plan each week's suppers. And our overall program coordinator, Ursula Aguirre, who just as St. Theresa described is "the hands through which all are blessed." Thank you, Ursula, for your hard work to ensure we will continue be able to provide these needed meals.

HNC Career Network Webinar on Growing Your Professional Relationships

Thursday, Nov. 17 at 7pm via Zoom

Join us for our November webinar! The topic will be 'Can't Do Small Talk? Learn to Enjoy Growing your Professional Relationships!' Nurturing and growing relationships are two of the most important skills you can develop for career success. All success — in business, work, and leadership - is made possible through relationships.

Building and maintaining a network of good relationships makes you more engaged and committed in your current role, while opening doors to key projects, career advancement and raises. Studies have shown that those in career transition with good networks find a new position more quickly and at higher salaries than those applying online only.

In this session, you will:

- Learn the art of building rapport with two proven models that work online as well as in person.
- Explore 5 easy 'small talk' topics to begin and sustain a conversation.
- Discover a new idea using your calendar to create a relationship-building advantage.
- Practice some tried & true tips and meet some new people.

Our speaker is Elene Cafasso, who is a leadership development expert, an executive mentor, and president of Enerpace, Inc. Passionately committed to her clients, she helps grow agile leaders who grow high-growth, purpose-driven firms. Elene holds an MBA in Finance and Marketing from the University of Chicago.

Scan the QR code to sign up. We will send you the Zoom link for the webinar.

Warm Gloves for Christmas Bags For Suppers Guests

This is the time of year when we look to our lives and realize how grateful we are to God for his many blessings.

We have a way for you to express your gratitude by an act of generosity on your part.

Many people who spend a great deal of time outside do not have warm gloves or a way to buy them. Holy Name is seeking to collect new pairs of warm winter gloves (mostly men) to be given out at the Thursday and Friday Suppers in early December.

Please drop off the gloves to the Rectory by Sunday, Nov. 24 (Mon-Sat 9am-4pm; Sun 9am-2pm). We need 200 pairs of gloves. Thank you and God bless!

Volunteer! Get involved at Holy Name Cathedral

Are you interested in becoming involved in a ministry or volunteer opportunity at Holy Name Cathedral. As our Rector often says, "YOU are the church." We cannot do everything that we do at Holy Name Cathedral without a dedicated group of lay volunteers. We are so grateful for all of our volunteers who put in their time and talent toward the mission of Holy Name Cathedral.

Some of the areas where you can get involved include: Bible Study Groups, Blessings in a Backpack, Career Network Ministry, Friends of Fr. Augustus Tolton, Garden Ministry, Knitting & Crocheting Group, Ministry of Care, Social Programs for Young Adults, Thurs/Fri Night Suppers at Catholic Charities.

If you're interested in Cathedral volunteer opportunities, please scan this QR code and someone will be in touch with you.

Holy Name Cathedral Rector's Annual Appeal

Fall 2022

Dear Faith Community,

I recently heard a story told by a doctor that touched my heart.

The doctor was to perform emergency surgery on a very young girl. She needed blood immediately and her twin brother was the only compatible blood type. Time was of the essence. The doctor explained the best he could to the young boy that his donation of blood was a matter of "life and death." The young boy agreed, disappeared and made the donation for his sister. The little boy later saw the doctor after the successful surgery and asked, "Now when will I die?"

There are times, as your Rector, that I witness the private sacrifices members of our Faith Community make to care for a homebound spouse, sibling or child, to walk with those who are ill, to provide sustenance for the poor with meals and so much more. The Faith Community of Holy Name Cathedral understands clearly our Vision Statement: "A world in communion with Jesus Christ."

That world which we aspire to as His disciples, calls each one of us to bring the love and mercy of Jesus Christ to those troubled in body, mind or spirit. The gospel of Jesus calls us to sacrifice our very selves for others in His Holy Name. St. Teresa of Calcutta reminds us where this begins: "A smile, a simple smile is the beginning of love."

As special temporal needs arise in the parish I will provide financial support to individuals and groups to whom we minister. I do this quietly in your name through a special fund called The Parish Assistance Fund. This separate fund, so graciously supported for many years through the volunteer efforts of Fr. John Boivin, is the sole resource for me to quietly financially support our Catholic Charities Suppers and so many other important people and programs in your name. Fr. Ton Nyugen now thankfully coordinates Catholic Charities Thursday & Friday suppers.

I need your help to sustain this fund and meet other needs of Holy Name Cathedral, which is why I am initiating The Rector's Annual Appeal this year. I have decided once a year I will humbly ask each of you for a special gift to support the "quiet" acts of mercy and love which come so frequently to my e-mail, phone and the rectory door.

Your weekly Sunday collection supports our day-to-day operations and needs as a parish. This is a request to go a step further and to support exceptional urgent needs. One example of these needs is the Catholic Charities Suppers. Did you know that to fund the two days per week Catholic Charities suppers alone requires $1,600 per week averaging $6,400 per month and $83,200 per year all covered over these many years by Fr. Boivin's leadership, the Parish Assistance Fund and your generosity.

Please pray about this request and do what you can to support our brothers and sisters in need.

What a privilege and honor it is to serve as your Rector. Together let us continue to bring the gospel to life here at Holy Name. My heartfelt thanks for the many sacrifices you make to bring Jesus' message of love and mercy to your family, friends, our Faith Community and the wider community.

You are the Church and together we are the Body of Christ. My prayers are with you.

With profound gratitude,
Very Rev. Gregory Sakowicz
Rector

A visit from old friends

Fr. Ton Nguyen was recently visited by parishioners from St. Julie Billiart church in Tinley Park, where he served before being assigned to Holy Name Cathedral in July. After attending Mass, they received a tour of the Cathedral by Fr. Andy Matijevic.

What is a Mass Intention?

Holy Name Cathedral offers you different possibilities when you request that Mass be celebrated for a particular intention. Requesting a Mass intention means that you are asking that the grace of Christ's sacrifice in his death and resurrection be applied for a particular purpose, for example, for a deceased person or a living person who is ill or in thanksgiving for a favor received.

At Holy Name Cathedral, we celebrate single-intention Masses as well as gathered-intention Masses (Wednesdays at 8:00am and Fridays at 12pm). To request a Mass Intention, please stop by our Rectory during business hours. Any questions, call the Rectory (312) 787-8040.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention.
