Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

A second-grade teacher in a Catholic grammar school asked her students to write a note to

God. Here are some of their actual messages!

- Dear God: I didn't think orange went with purple until I saw the sunset You made on Tuesday. Awesome!
- Dear God: Maybe Cain and Abel would not have killed each other if they had their own rooms. That's what my Mom did for me and my brother.
- Dear God: If You watch me in church on Sunday, I'll show You my new shoes.
- Dear God: I bet it is very hard to love everyone in the whole world. There are only four people in our family and I'm having a hard time loving all of them.
- Dear God: In school, they told us what You do. Who does it when You are on vacation?
- Dear God: Is it true my father won't get to heaven if he uses his bowling words in the house?
- Dear God: Did you mean for the giraffe to look like that, or was it an accident?
- Dear God: Did You really mean "do unto others as they do unto you?" Because if You did, then I'm going to get my brother good.
- Dear God: Thank you for the baby brother, but I think You got confused because what I prayed for was a puppy.

- Dear God: I think about You sometimes, even when I'm not praying.
- Dear God: We read that Thomas Edison made light. But in school they said You did it. So, I bet he stole your idea.

Charlie Chaplin lived 88 years and left us with four profound statements, attributed to him:

1. Nothing is forever in this world, not even our problems.
2. I love walking in the rain because no one can see my tears.
- 3 The most lost day in life is the day we don't laugh.
4. Six best doctors in the world: the sun, rest, exercise, diet, self-respect, friends

Stick to them at all stages of your life and enjoy a healthy life!

And may I add...

- If you see the moon, you will see beauty.
- If you see the sun, you will see strength.
- If you see a mirror, you will see the finest creation. So, believe it.

We are all tourists; life has already mapped our routes, bookings, and destinations. Trust the journey and enjoy every moment. Life is just a journey! Therefore, live today — tomorrow may not be.

And ponder these powerful thoughts...

- "Laziness kills ambition.
- Anger kills wisdom.

Fear kills dreams.

Ego kills growth.

Jealousy kills peace.

Doubt kills confidence.

Now read that right to left!"

— Author unknown

And may I conclude with...

A Leader's Prayer

Leadership is hard to define.

Lord, let us be the ones to define it with justice.

Leadership is like a handful of water.

Lord, let us be the people to share it with those who thirst.

Leadership is not about watching and correcting.

Lord, let us remember it is about listening and connecting.

Leadership is not about telling people what to do.

Lord, let us find out what people want.

Leadership is less about the love of power, and more about the power of love.

Lord, as we continue to undertake the role of a leader, let us be affirmed by the servant leadership we witness in your son Jesus.

Let us walk in the path He has set and let those who will follow.

Let our greatest passion be compassion.

Our greatest strength love.

Our greatest victory the reward of peace.

In leading let us never fail to follow.

In loving let us never fail.

Join Us to Celebrate 175 Years of Holy Name!

This year, we are celebrating a special milestone — our 175th anniversary as a Faith Community! Here is our next exciting event that is coming up:

✠ 'DAMIEN' PLAY: The story of 19th Century St. Damien of Molokai resonates today. He ministered to an outcast population — the marginalized, abandoned men, women and children living with leprosy, which was an incurable and thought-to-be highly contagious disease. These people were living in exile in an isolated leper colony in Molokai, Hawaii.

Chicago sports icon Wayne Messmer will transform into “Damien” in a one-man play by Aldyth Morris on Sunday, March 2 at 7:30 p.m. in the Cathedral.

Our Rector, Fr. Greg, invites you to be his guest but requests that you reserve your complementary ticket(s) by scanning the QR code. Preferred, reserved seating is available for $15 and includes a pre-play light dinner. For more details, see page 8.

For updates, visit our website, the bulletin, newsletter and social media. Scan the QR code for more. If you have questions, email 175@holynamecathedral.org.

From Feb. 4, 2009. This week 16 years ago, firefighters battled a fire at Holy Name Cathedral. Flames were shooting through the church's roof for about an hour before they were replaced by plumes of white smoke as firefighters doused it with water. The Cathedral was closed for six months for repair.

Join Us for the Annual Pueri Cantores Mass

Saturday, Feb. 22 at 5:15pm Mass

Youth choirs have long been integral to the Church's mission. One of the most celebrated of these groups, Les Petits Chanteurs la Croix de Bois (The Little Singers of the Wooden Cross), was brought to prominence in 1917 by Fernand Mailliet, and performed in the cities, towns and villages of France. Their example has since been followed by other choirs internationally. Msgr. Mailliet organized the first International Congress for the choirs in 1947. It took place in Paris, and at that time, he gave the federation its name, PUERI CANTORES.

The American Federation Pueri Cantores was formed in 1953 to accomplish the same mission in the United States. Choirs proliferated in Catholic churches and schools across the country and took a significant and inspirational leadership role in worship and education-related events. Reflecting general lack of support of the arts, however and reacting to worship guidelines set forth in Vatican II, nearly all of those groups disappeared during the late 1900s.

Now, many communities are once again committed to establishing and developing new choirs of young singers throughout America. Sharing an exciting and expanded vision, these choirs create unprecedented opportunities for children, families, schools, churches and organizations locally, nationally and throughout the world.

Students who travel with their choirs have a chance to meet singers from other cities and states. They establish friendships, learn about different cultures, and bring Christ's message of peace and joy. Choir directors exchange musical ideas, traditions and performance practice information with other musicians throughout the nation and world. Pueri Cantores singers learn music of faith, hope and love; they grow in musicianship, spirituality, liturgical understanding and community.

This year's Mass will feature Fr. Dan Korenchan as the main celebrant with Anna Doering as the guest conductor. The choir will include Mixed Voice and Treble Choirs (grades 4-12) from throughout the Midwest.

Jonies, Director of Music & Organist, Holy Name Cathedral.

Anointing of the Sick: A Most Misunderstood Sacrament

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

The Anointing of the Sick is one of the Church's seven sacraments. Along with the Sacrament of Reconciliation, they are the sacraments of healing. There have been a lot of misunderstandings surrounding the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. Many incorrectly believe it is only celebrated in the hour of death. In reality, the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, like the other six Sacraments, is for the living. We celebrate the Sacrament of the Sick when we need healing in body, mind, or spirit, including when that healing is also at the moment of death.

Like all Sacraments, the Anointing of the Sick brings one into an encounter with Jesus Christ. The Sacrament enables sick persons to find solace and comfort in their illness and allows them to live out their call of discipleship in their illness. The beginning pages of the Praenotanda of the Ritual for the Anointing of the Sick says, "By their witness, the sick show that our mortal life must be redeemed through the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection" (Pastoral Care for the Sick, 3). We see that the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus have touched everything that happens in this life.

Celebrating the Anointing of the Sick is personal and communal, meaning it belongs to the individual and the Church community. It is personal because the individual receives the Holy Spirit's grace. It is communal because the church community unites in prayer for the ill person suffering. This duality contrasts sharply with how society sometimes treats sick people. Before the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965), the Anointing of the Sick was celebrated in extremis as a person approached death. So, it was known as "Last Rites" and "Extreme Unction." The Council affirmed that this was indeed a sacrament for all that are sick and not only for those near death (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, n. 73). The personal and communal aspects of the Sacrament show that the anointing can be done in a home or a hospital room, or within the context of a Mass.

The anointing of the Sick is not a one-time event. It is a sacrament that can be celebrated more than once, offering reassurance and hope to those in need. A priest can anoint those who are seriously ill, people about to undergo surgery, older individuals who struggle with declining health, people with chronic illnesses, and those who suffer from mental illness at any point in their lives. This repeated celebration of the Sacrament is a reminder that healing is a journey, and the Church is there to provide spiritual support and comfort along the way.

This upcoming Saturday, Feb. 8, at 9:00am, there will be a Healing Mass with the Anointing of the Sick for those who have come to reflect on the Sacrament and their current health issues and avail themselves of this Sacrament. Tuesday, Feb. 11 is the World Day of Prayer for the Sick and traditionally the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, whose water at the Grotto in Lourdes is known for miraculous healings. How appropriate then to approach Mary, the mother of the divine physician, through the celebration of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, to seek healing in mind, body, and spirit so the sick can draw close to Christ and see suffering as a participation in the salvation of the world.

Celebrate Black History Month with Our Friends of Fr. Augustus Tolton

Sunday, Feb. 16 at 12noon in Club Room

February is Black History Month. To celebrate, come learn about The Venerable Father Augustus Tolton, the first African American priest in the United States.

This month, we have a video presentation relating to the life of Fr. Tolton. All are welcome on Sunday, Feb. 16 at 12noon in the Rectory, Room 201. No advance registration is required.

What is Black History Month?

Harvard-trained historian, Carter G. Woodson believed that truth could not be denied and that reason would prevail over prejudice. His hopes to raise awareness of African Americans’ contributions to civilization was realized when he and the organization he founded, the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History (ASNLH), conceived of Negro History Week in 1925. The event was first celebrated during a week in February 1926 that encompassed the birthdays of both Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass. The response was overwhelming. By the time of Woodson's death in 1950, Negro History Week had become a central part of African American life. The Black Awakening of the 1960s dramatically expanded the importance of black history.

The celebration was expanded to a month in 1976. That year, 50 years after the first celebration, the association held the first Black History Month. By this time, the entire nation had come to recognize the importance of Black history in the drama of the American story.

These people were living in exile in an isolated leper colony in Molokai, Hawaii.

‘Chicago’s Original Voice of the National Anthem.’

Wayne Messmer is a native Chicagoan who grew up on the Southwest Side. As the P.A. Announcer for the Loyola University hockey team, the tape recording of the National Anthem broke before a game, so Wayne took the microphone and sang it himself and a career began.

Wayne gained recognition as the celebrated National Anthem soloist with the Blackhawks at Chicago Stadium for 13 seasons, including a famous NHL All-Star Game performance in 1991. He has also performed with the Wolves, Cubs and White Sox. Messmer became known nationally as, “Chicago’s Original Voice of the National Anthem.” Meet him in the role of Damien and say hello!

To all our faithful parishioners who give of their time, talent and treasure - thank you for your generosity.

To all of our visitors today from all over the country and world, know that your monetary gift will go toward the support of the mission and ministries of Holy Name Cathedral. Thank you for your generosity.

HNC 175th Anniversary Prayer

Heavenly Father, we are thankful for Holy Name Cathedral, a place of prayer and worship for 175 years.

We thank you for the faith, friendship, and generosity that has flowed so freely through this parish and remember with gratitude the generations who have come before us in this sacred space

May we continue to welcome all with love, faith, and hospitality, and be united in our shared mission, serving as joyful disciples of Christ. Amen.
