Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Sharing and watching are two commonly used words and actions.

However, are we good at sharing? Do we observe well, or are we too busy accomplishing five things simultaneously? Lent is a marvelous opportunity to look deep within our souls and be honest in how we share with others.

All is a gift, and we are stewards of God's many gifts.

There is a wonderful saying that captures it well:

What's mine is mine, and I'll keep it.

What's mine is mine, and I'll take some of yours.

What's mine is mine, and I'll share it.

And speaking of sharing...

The older man ordered one hamburger, fries and a drink. He unwrapped the hamburger and carefully cut it in half, placing half in front of his wife. He then carefully counted the fries, dividing them and neatly placing half in front of his wife. He took a sip of the drink, his wife took a sip and then set the cup down between them.

As he began to eat his few bites of hamburger, people around noticed them. Clearly, they were thinking, "That poor old couple — all they can afford is one meal for two of them."

As the man began to eat his fries, a young man came to the table and politely offered to buy another meal for the old couple. The older man said they were just fine — they were accustomed to sharing everything.

People closer to the table noticed the lady hadn't eaten a bite. She sat there watching her husband eat and occasionally taking turns sipping the drink.

Again, the young man came over and begged them to let him buy another meal for them. This time, the wife said, "No, thank you, we are accustomed to sharing everything."

Finally, as the older man finished and wiped his face neatly with the napkin, the young man again approached the wife, who had not yet eaten a single bite of food, and asked, "What is it you are waiting for?"

She answered, "The teeth."

Sharing is great, but I do suggest keeping your own teeth!

When You Thought I Wasn't Looking

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you hang my first painting on the refrigerator, and I immediately wanted to paint another.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you feed a stray cat and learned that being kind to animals was good.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make my favorite cake, and I learned that the little things can be the special things in life.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I heard you say a prayer, and I knew there was a God I could always talk to. I learned to trust God.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make a meal and take it to a sick friend, and I learned that we all have to help take care of each other.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you take care of our house and everyone in it, and I learned we have to take care of what we are given.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw how you handled your responsibilities, even when you didn't feel good, and I learned that I would have to be responsible when I grew up.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw tears come from your eyes, and I learned that sometimes things hurt, but it's all right to cry.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw that you cared, and I wanted to be everything I could be.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I learned most of the life lessons I needed to know to be a good and productive person when I grew up.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I looked at you and wanted to say, "Thanks for all the things I saw when you thought I wasn't looking."

How will you touch the life of someone today?

May our sharing make Jesus Christ visible. Our Lenten journey is about conversion, sharing, and watching — looking within and reaching out.

On the Lenten journey with you,

Fr. Greg

Passiontide Helps Prepare Us for Coming of Holy Triduum

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

With the Fifth Sunday of Lent, we enter Passiontide, the final movement of our Lenten journey. The readings in our daily Masses focus on the immediate coming of the passion of the Lord and the darkness that surrounds those events of God dying in the flesh. These two weeks prepare us for the sorrow we will experience and feel at the passion and death of Jesus. It has been a common practice in the Catholic Church from about the year 900 to veil crosses, statues, and images with purple cloth as a psychological reminder to help the faithful concentrate more on the salvific events that will soon occur.

The Preface before the Eucharistic Prayer also changes with the daily Gospels and the option of veiling crosses, images, and statues. Preface I of the Passion of the Lord is said Monday through Saturday of the 5th Week of Lent. Preface II of the Passion of the Lord is said Monday through Wednesday of Holy Week, with Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, and Holy Saturday (Easter Vigil) having their proper Preface for the day. Preface I of the Passion focuses on the power of the cross, while Preface II focuses on the victory of Christ's passion. For reference, the Roman Missal has over 30 different Prefaces for particular seasons, Solemnities and feast days.

The practice of veiling statues, images, and crosses was generally discontinued after the Second Vatican Council. However, each national Episcopal Conference has the right to allow the veiling of statues, images, and crosses in churches. Here in the United States, each pastor has the right to make use of the practice of veiling crosses, images, and statues beginning the 5th Sunday of Lent, with crosses remaining covered until the end of the celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday, and statues and images remaining covered until the beginning of the Easter Vigil.

Passiontide is meant to invite us to deepen our awareness of the events that will soon unfold in our liturgies and spiritual lives through the Gospel readings and Prefaces. Jesus of Nazareth, God in the flesh, will soon enter Jerusalem amid shouts of exultation, saying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord," only to have those same people shout, "Crucify him!" a few days later.

Passiontide is a gift from the Church to prepare us for the Holy Triduum, the Paschal Mystery of Jesus: his passion, death, resurrection, and ascension. Passiontide reminds us that we are sinners but that we also have a savior who shed his blood to ransom us from sin and death. Are we ready to walk with our Lord?

Our full Holy Week schedule can be found on Page 4 of today's bulletin and on our website. All are welcome to join us on Palm Sunday, next Sunday, April 13, at 3:00pm, for Stations of the Cross and an hour of Eucharistic Adoration to prepare our hearts and minds for Holy Week and the saving acts that will take place. Now is a very acceptable time; now is the day of salvation!

Peru Mission Trip 2025

Like the disciples on the road to Emmaus, we sometimes feel discouraged and tempted to give up. Yet, throughout our mission in Peru, we experienced many "Emmaus Moments" — times when the Lord rekindled the fire of His love in our hearts. Whether through the people we encountered, the mission work we carried out, the Masses and prayers we shared, or the stories that inspired us, we were reminded of our calling to continue the mission, to return to our own "Jerusalem" as God wills.

To read more reflections on the mission trip, scan the QR code for the full story.

Additionally, we invite you to two upcoming opportunities to experience God's continued presence:

- ✕ April 6 — Reflection event after the 5:15 PM Mass
- ✕ April 9 — Live Stations of the Cross at 6:30 PM

We hope you can join us!

Have Questions? Join the New OCIA Inquiry Cohort

As we receive 32 adults into the Catholic faith at the Easter Vigil, we begin a new cohort for the coming year. These inquirers meet monthly and ask questions, share their faith journeys, and simply inquire about the faith.

If you are unbaptized, baptized in another Christian denomination, or a baptized Catholic who has not celebrated Confirmation and Communion, consider joining the cohort. Contact Dr. Ken Ortega, kortega@holynamcathedral.org.

Honor A Loved One with a Mother Cabrini or a Courtyard Paver

Mother Cabrini Commemorative Paver

Holy Name Cathedral is home to the Mother Cabrini Statue and Garden honoring the life and legacy of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. Mother Cabrini dedicated her life in service to others and is the Patron Saint of Immigrants and the first United States citizen to be canonized a saint. The Mother Cabrini Garden offers pavers for engraving.

Memorialize a loved one, honor someone special, or commemorate a significant event through the purchase of a paver.

Courtyard Commemorative Paver

Our courtyard features a private Marian Shrine where the faithful say prayers to the Blessed Virgin and leave offerings of flowers. Commemorate a special event, loved one, or celebrate a family member or friend's wedding, baptism, anniversary or other milestone through the purchase of a paver in the Cathedral's courtyard.

Purchase forms can be found on our website under Giving — Special Intentions.

If you would like to order an engraved paver, the next deadline for ordering is April 11. For more information, contact Regina Zielinski at (312) 573-4432 or rzielinski@holynamecathedral.org.

Pay Tribute or Remember a Loved One with our Easter Flowers Fund

As we prepare to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord on Easter, we are reminded of those who have shown us God's love in our life.

As our Cathedral is beautifully decorated for the Easter season, here is an opportunity to donate to the Easter flower fund in memory of a loved one or in honor of a living person. The names of those in whose memory or honor the Easter flowers are donated for will be printed in the Easter Sunday bulletin on April 20.

In order for the names to be included, donations need to be made by Monday, April 7.

HNC 175th Anniversary Prayer

Heavenly Father, we are thankful for Holy Name Cathedral, a place of prayer and worship for 175 years.

We thank you for the faith, friendship, and generosity that has flowed so freely through this parish and remember with gratitude the generations who have come before us in this sacred space.

May we continue to welcome all with love, faith, and hospitality, and be united in our shared mission, serving as joyful disciples of Christ. Amen.
