Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

Easter Joy!! On this most glorious celebration of the power of life over death and love over hate, I would like to share the following story with you...

Two notoriously bad little brothers, Andrew and Joe, started to get into trouble soon after leaving the cradle.

They were always catching blame, and they usually deserved it. After they started a small riot in school, their parents decided to send the older son, Andrew, who was in the sixth grade, to their pastor for counseling. Little Andrew was terrified. He wondered what it would be like to be one-on-one with the pastor. The priest looked at the boy compassionately and asked, "Young man, where is Jesus?" The boy had no idea what to say and sat as silent as a stone. The priest asked again, "Where is Jesus?" Andrew's jaw remained locked. When the priest asked the question a third time with greater emphasis, Andrew bolted out of the parish office, raced home, and ran upstairs to pack. Seeing his younger brother, he said, "Joe, you'd better pack, too. They've lost Jesus, and I know for sure they're going to blame us!"

We know that Jesus is not lost! He who was thought to be dead lives! In fact, Jesus lives forever! Because of Jesus' victory over death, we are no longer lost; we are found and claimed as God's children forever.

We travel with Jesus from aloneness to fullness within a Faith Community, from brokenness to healing, from death to life. The Lord is risen, and we rise with Him.

We wonder what the meaning of this remarkable event is in our lives. We share the Lord's Easter peace, presence, and power on this great Easter Day. In return, the Lord tells us that he wants our love shown through lives that are lived for others. Jesus wants us to be real disciples. To be a real disciple of Jesus means three distinct things:

1. First, it means vulnerability. I must acknowledge that I cannot always be in control and turn to the Lord, trusting completely in Him. It means I accept life will not always be on my terms and allow God to work through me.
2. Secondly, it means that I live life deliberately. We are a pilgrim and mission people. Through our Baptism, we are called to give witness to our loving God through our actions as well as our words. We are called to love this world continually back into life by what we do and say, and how we act and love.

3. Lastly, a disciple has a radical dependence on God. The Lord can make a difference in our lives if we give Him a chance. A disciple communicates frequently with God. The devil does not want us to consult with God.

The gospels do not explain Easter; instead, Easter explains the gospels. Our lives do not explain Easter; Easter gives meaning to our lives. Faith is the story we tell through our lives. Jesus discovered what to die for and what to live forever for.

For the believer, death means life is changed, not ended. We look forward to eternal Life with God.

My prayers are with you and all your loved ones for a blessed and joyous Easter.

With joy & alleluia,
Fr. Greg

Easter 2025

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

For more than a thousand years, the Church has sung five words that capture the message of Easter: Christ our hope has risen.

This simple phrase powerfully expresses the conviction that our hope is the very person of the Risen Christ. He not only rose from the dead two-thousand years ago but is present and active in our world today. As the Risen One, he shares with us his victory and triumph over sin and death, drawing us into the fullness of life that God has ever desired for humanity. Yes, indeed Christ our hope has risen.

We recall this core belief in this Jubilee Holy Year when Pope Francis has called us to be Pilgrims of hope. This is an invitation to be a people who journey together, confident that we are sustained by this closeness to the Risen Christ as we face the challenges of life. As pilgrims of hope, we walk with the Risen One and lean on his presence for personal support, but we also discover the power to bring hope to our world, our families, communities, workplaces, and nation. This is a great grace and responsibility.

May our Easter faith that Christ our hope has risen grow stronger, so that we will join in his work of bringing hope to our world with new enthusiasm, putting aside all of our fears and anxieties, in the knowledge that by conquering death, the Risen Lord has given us the sure hope and promise that we too have risen with him and will live forever. Yes, Christ our hope has risen and so have we. Happy Easter!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

Let There Be Light Campaign

Become An Angel of Light for the Cathedral

It is truly remarkable that for 150 years, Catholics in River North, Gold Coast, and Streeterville have called Holy Name their parish church. This Cathedral, a beacon of faith, has been a spiritual home for Catholics throughout the Archdiocese, state, nation, and world. It's where we come to worship, pray, and be consoled and strengthened by celebrating the Sacraments. Our shared history is a testament to our faith and the enduring power of our community.

But, as we all know, time takes its toll. In 2008, a piece of our ceiling fell, prompting the closure of the Cathedral for structural checks. Then, in February 2009, an electrical fire in the ceiling was averted by the heroic efforts of our Chicago firefighters. These incidents serve as a stark reminder that we must act now to secure the future of our Cathedral for the next 150 years.

Our current lighting system, while once adequate, is now struggling to meet the demands of our daily Masses. The hardware shows wear and tear, and parts are no longer available, so it's time to upgrade. A new lighting system is not just a necessity, it's a game-changer. It will transform our worship space, enhancing the spiritual experience for generations to come. Your support is crucial in making this transformation a reality.

As we seek to raise the required $1.7 million for the lighting project, we are reminded of our shared responsibility towards our Cathedral. The generosity of many does not go unnoticed. The lights are needed as we move further into this new millennium and gather to worship daily and give glory to His Holy Name.

If you would like to contribute to the initial phase of this new lighting project and become one of our Angels of Light, please scan the QR code. We are all in this together, and your contribution, no matter the size, is a significant part of our collective effort to illuminate the Holy Name of Jesus, the reason we have hope in this dark world.

Catholic Illuminations

May Our Lights Shine Ever Bright in This Easter Season

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Light plays a crucial role in our life of faith. From candles and physical lights in our worship spaces, light reminds us of the Resurrection and of being able to see. And sometimes, we take light for granted. Every year at Easter, parishes get a new Easter candle. The Easter candle is blessed at the Great Vigil of Easter and symbolizes the Risen Lord. The Lord descended into the darkness of death and brought his light to those in darkness. We are given the same light at our baptism to dispel the evil of sin and death in our lives. The candle itself also contains deep symbolism to our life of faith.

Before we light the Easter candle, it is blessed with the year (showing every year it is a new candle), and five nails are put into the candle, symbolizing the five wounds of Christ on the Cross. After the blessing of the fire and the new Easter candle, the priest lights the candle by saying, “May the Light of Christ rising in glory dispel the darkness of our hearts and minds.” Then, the procession to the darkened church begins by following that single flame, the flame that even death cannot extinguish. As the faithful walk into the church that evening, the light spreads from the Easter candle to everyone else in the congregation. Once that blessed Light illumines the church, we sing the Exultet, the Easter Proclamation. This proclamation tells the story of salvation and how, on this night, Christ conquered death and rose victorious from the underworld. The Easter Vigil follows from there, when we proclaim Christ risen from the dead. The Easter candle is lit every day for 50 days during the Easter season and then for funerals and baptisms throughout the year as a symbol of life beginning and ending in Christ.

As candles provide light, so do the physical lights in our sacred space. Here at Holy Name Cathedral, our current lighting system is starting to wear out. For years, the faithful have gathered throughout the liturgical year to give glory and praise to God for his goodness and offer thanks for the blessings He has showered upon us. Moving into this Easter season, there is a pressing need, as we have renewed our commitment to sharing in the spiritual light of Christ who has risen from the dead, to renew our commitment to supporting the physical lighting of the Cathedral, which proclaims the Holy Name of Jesus.

The projected lighting campaign, “Let There Be Light,” reminds us that God created all things for his glory. Renewing the lighting system of the Cathedral will allow us to glory in the gift of this historic Cathedral. From the beautiful vaulted ceiling made entirely of wood to recalling our mortality as we gaze upon the six red galeries of our previous cardinal archbishops hanging from the ceiling to illuminating anew the Resurrection Crucifix, the new lighting system will enhance the way we worship here at Holy Name Cathedral.

The message of light dominates the Easter season: the Easter Candle, the light emanating from the angels at the Tomb, the light of the Risen Christ, and the light that shines in our hearts who profess Christ is risen. As we renew our desire to live in that light, may we show our commitment to supporting the physical light that shines when we gather in this place, where we continuously return to that encounter with the Risen One to share his light with others.

Have Questions? Join the New OCIA Inquiry Cohort

As we receive 32 adults into the Catholic faith at the Easter Vigil, we begin a new cohort for the coming year. These inquirers meet monthly and ask questions, share their faith journeys, and simply inquire about the faith.

If you are unbaptized, baptized in another Christian denomination, or a baptized Catholic who has not celebrated Confirmation and Communion, consider joining the cohort. Contact Dr. Ken Ortega, kortega@holynamecathedral.org.

Thank You for Our Easter Flowers at Holy Name

As our Cathedral is beautifully decorated for the Easter season, we want to take this opportunity to thank those who contributed to our Easter flower fund in memory of a loved one or in honor of a living person. Here are the following names for whom our Easter flowers honor. We honor them and cherish their lives and memory.

Thank you for your generous heart!

BETWEEN HEAVEN AND EARTH: Art, Faith and Care of Our Common Home

Monday, April 28, 6:30 to 8:00pm in the Parish Center Auditorium

Join us for the 2nd Annual
Bishop Birmingham Lecture Series

By Fr. Louis J. Cameli

On April 28, I will join Dr. Gloria Groom from the Art Institute of Chicago to offer a presentation linking art, faith, and the ecological concerns Pope Francis explored in his encyclical letter Laudato si': On the Care of Our Common Home.

Pope Francis addresses the climate crisis that we face today and into the future. He wants to awaken the consciousness of these ecological concerns, which have become remarkably evident recently in various adverse weather events worldwide. He also wants to stir us to take up responsibility "for the care of our common home," the subtitle of his encyclical.

Faith has an important role to play, as we recognize that God has created the world we live in and entrusted it to us for our stewardship. Art allows us to know that we are embedded in this world to which we belong. It does so by images that enable us to see ourselves in the world in a new way. Faith and art combined can prompt us to a new sense of responsibility for the world, the common home we all share.

Join Us for a 50-Day Journey on the Road to Emmaus!

The evangelist Luke tells the story (Luke 24:13-35) of two disciples who were traveling along the road to Emmaus, feeling downcast about the death of Jesus on the Cross three days earlier and the apparent theft of his body from the tomb. They met a stranger traveling on the same road but did not recognize him as he explained why the Messiah needed to suffer these things to enter his glory. The disciples invite the stranger to continue talking with them as they journeyed to Emmaus and to share their dinner. As the stranger broke bread with them and gave thanks, the disciples' eyes were opened, recognizing him as Jesus. Their conversation and the breaking of bread symbolize the key parts of our Mass, the Liturgy of the Word and the Liturgy of the Eucharist, opening us up to the true identity of Jesus in our midst.

Over the upcoming 50 days of Easter, leading up to the Road to Emmaus Revival on Sunday, June 8, we invite you to journey with our Faith Community. We will have a variety of programs for you to participate in including small groups to explore your personal Road to Emmaus, self-guided pilgrimages, witness videos, a special May Crowning event honoring our Blessed Mother, a fun-filled service event at the Lawson House, and a Faith & Fitness event exploring walking for spiritual reflection and physical health.

We also invite you this Easter to join our Holy Name Cathedral community on the Hallow app, embrace the freedom of the Resurrection as we pray with Sr. Miriam and other exciting guests through the spiritual classic, Interior Freedom by Fr. Jacques Philippe.

In each session, we'll learn how to walk in freedom amidst the circumstances of our daily lives, let go of external attachments, and discover the peace that comes with trusting in God's love and grace.

The series is available to all parishioners through the Community tab in the Hallow app. If you're brand new to Hallow, visit hallow.com/parish to get set up. For any questions getting set up on the app, contact parishsupport@hallow.app.

The Stump of Jesse

The Emmaus Moment

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad!” Hallelujah! The Lord is risen! With His Resurrection comes joy — absolute joy. It’s the song of mercy, the hymn of God’s goodness echoing through history. Jesus has conquered death. The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. That’s not just a poetic phrase — it’s the bedrock of our faith. I pray and hope this Easter that we encourage one another with St. Paul’s words: “If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.” That invitation isn’t easy in a world drowning in noise and distractions. The temptation is to skim the surface of life. But Easter calls us deeper.

During our Young Adults mission in Piura, Fr. Joe suggested a walk to St. Paulo Parish. Initially hesitant, I found that walk rewarding. When I asked an altar server about his favorite part of Mass, he excitedly recalled his First Communion and the Eucharist, describing it as the “source and summit of Christian life.” At just twelve, he shared how prayer helped during his mother’s illness, leading him to dedicate his life to God in gratitude. These moments are true Emmaus moments — ordinary yet profound.

This Easter, let’s reflect on the unwavering desire of Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary, who sought the Lord at the tomb. How strong is our desire for heaven amidst the world’s struggles? Let Easter awaken our hearts, prompting us to walk farther, listen deeper, and recognize Christ in the breaking of the bread. I love being a priest. JMJ.

Ministers of Care Available to Visit You with Communion

What is the Ministry of Care? It is a group of people who have been trained and commissioned to visit with, pray with, and bring communion to those in our parish who are sick and unable to attend mass; those who are homebound, in the hospital or in a nursing home.

We have several Ministers of Care available to bring Holy Communion to the homebound. Email us at mycathedral@holynamecathedral.org or call us at (312) 787-8040 and one of our Ministers of Care will be in touch.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. A Gift that Benefits You and Holy Name Cathedral

You can help to support the mission and ministries of Holy Name Cathedral by making a qualified charitable distribution ("QCD") gift from your individual retirement account. A QCD gift allows individuals age 70½ or older to authorize their IRA administrator to make a direct transfer of funds from their IRA to qualified charities, tax-free. This way of giving does not generate taxable income, which may lower your annual income level. If you are age 72 or older, the amount you transfer may count towards your required minimum distribution. If you would like more information on how to make a QCD gift to Holy Name please contact Regina Zielinski at rzielinski@holynamecathedral.org. Thank you for your support.

HNC 175th Anniversary Prayer

Heavenly Father, we are thankful for Holy Name Cathedral, a place of prayer and worship for 175 years.

We thank you for the faith, friendship, and generosity that has flowed so freely through this parish and remember with gratitude the generations who have come before us in this sacred space.

May we continue to welcome all with love, faith, and hospitality, and be united in our shared mission, serving as joyful disciples of Christ. Amen.
