Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

July is nearly upon us! Many people say summer is the time to relax, slow down, and spend more time with loved ones. Others dare to plot out “summer projects,” which may include the garden, cleaning out the garage, or building that backyard deck. No matter the goal or project, may we never forget the importance of loving, caring, forgiving, and showing kindness to others as we move into this beautiful summer season! Jesus Christ is our guide and point of reference for living a life filled with joy, meaning, hope, and purpose. As we begin this new season together, please keep these words close to your heart.

God Won't Ask

God won't ask

What kind of car you drove.

He'll ask

How many people did you drive who didn't have transportation?

God won't ask

What was your highest salary was

He'll ask

If you compromised your character to obtain it.

God won't ask

In what neighborhood did you live

He'll ask

How you treated your neighbors.

God won't ask

The square footage of your house.

He'll ask

How many people have you welcomed into your home?

God won't ask

What your job title was.

He'll ask

If you performed your job to the best of your ability.

God won't ask

About the color of your skin.

He'll ask

About the content of your character.

God won't ask

About the clothes in your closet.

He'll ask

How many did you help clothe?

God won't ask

How many friends you had.

He'll ask

How many people to whom you were a friend.

At the same time, we need to keep life in perspective and balance. Keep reading...

I am reminded of the story of a mother's only son who was going off to university. As a good and loving mother, she was most concerned about her son's well-being. So she wrote this letter to the president of the university where her son was going:

“Dear Sir: My son has been accepted for admission to your university and will soon be leaving me. I am writing to ask that you give your attention to the selection of his roommate.

I want to be sure that his roommate does not use foul language, tell off-color jokes, smoke, drink, or chase after girls. I hope you will understand why I am appealing to you directly. You see, this is the first time my son will be away from home, except for the three years he was in the Marine Corps.”

Summer Blessings,
Fr. Greg

P.S. A blessed July 4th Holiday to you and your loved ones. Safe travels!

Update from Fr. Greg

Thank all of you for your continued prayers and well wishes. They are most appreciated. I am making slow but steady progress. A knee replacement is truly a marathon recovery and not a sprint. I certainly miss all of you and look forward to rejoining the Faith Community in August. God's blessings always, and enjoy the gift of summer... Peace and Love....Fr. Greg.

A Sculpture of Sacred Heart of Jesus is coming to HNC!

As we continue through our celebration of the 175th anniversary of Holy Name Cathedral as a Faith Community, we turn our attention to our next event, which will honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

On Friday, Aug. 1 at the noon Mass, we will unveil a sculpture we commissioned from Chicago priest and artist Fr. Anthony Brankin. Leading up to that date, we will continue our series on the Sacred Heart. The sculpture will be a beautiful addition inside our Cathedral to commemorate this popular Catholic devotion.

✠ LOOKING AHEAD: Save the date for our International Rosary Day on Sunday, Sept. 21. We'll have Mass at 5:15pm, followed by the Rosary prayed together in multiple languages followed by a dinner. More details to come in the following weeks. Our closing event of the 175th year will be our annual Ministry Fair on Sunday, Oct. 5. We'll highlight the events of our celebratory year and showcase the various ministries at Holy Name Cathedral.

On the Cover

In honor of our anniversary, each week we will spotlight photos from our past 175 years on the bulletin cover. They'll offer a peek into the past of our Faith Community.

Archdiocese of Chicago: Missionary Cooperation Plan

An Appeal: Please Help the Diocese in Kabgayi, Rwanda

Second Collection During All Masses on July 5 & 6

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

I'm Bishop Balthazar Ntivuguruzwa from the Catholic diocese of Kabgayi, in Rwanda, Africa. My Diocese is one of nine Catholic Dioceses in Rwanda. It is situated in the central region of Rwanda. I thank the office of the Propagation of Faith in the Archdiocese and Very Reverend Gregory Sakowicz for inviting me to share with you the missionary work of my diocese.

When I became Bishop two years ago, I noticed that most of our laity are not trained and equipped to do their ministry. Yet, the Catholic Church in Rwanda remains a vital source of healing, unity, and hope for a people who have endured consequences of the 1994 genocide. Our diocese is facing the challenge of emerging sects, the need for a new evangelization, and the urgent need for spiritual and faith formation — especially among lay leaders who lead our communities, and the youth — who seek meaning, guidance, and a deeper relationship with God.

We started a school of faith last year to provide ongoing formation to lay leaders so they can more effectively teach the Gospel, support parish life, promote peace and reconciliation, and bring Christ's message of love and hope to the most remote villages. It's a one-year program consisting of 16 weekends (from Friday evening to Sunday noon), spread out between October and June.

We are appealing to you to help us train our lay leaders. Each parish will appoint two laypeople who will then train others in their respective parishes. Your financial support will go toward providing meals and accommodation for trainees.

We will begin to train 62 leaders from 31 parishes. The cost will only be $30 for meals and accommodation for one person per weekend. We would need $30,000 to feed and accommodate 62 lay people for 16 weekends. The diocese will oversee transportation and training expenses. Thank you so much for allowing me to share our joys and hopes with you. Your kindness, your prayers, and your generosity truly make a difference.

Catholic Illuminations

Sts. Peter and Paul: The Inseparable Pair of the Church

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Each year on June 29, we celebrate one of the few solemnities of our faith that does not deal with an event in the life of our Lord. We honor and venerate the memory of St. Peter and St. Paul. Peter, the first Pope, and brother to Andrew the Apostle, was Martyred in Rome on Vatican Hill, upside down a cross, feeling unworthy of dying in the same way Jesus Christ died. Paul, who began persecuting the Church but had a religious experience on the way to Damascus, then traveled the known world preaching the Gospel to Jews and Gentiles alike. Much of our New Testament bears his authorship for letters to those various communities. Paul was martyred by the sword in Rome. Both of these saints are buried in Rome; their skulls are above the main altar in St. John Lateran – the Cathedral of the Diocese of Rome, and their bodies are under the main altar in their respective Papal Basilica, which bears their names.

We celebrate Peter and Paul together because, without these two heroic witnesses, the Church may not have been formed as we know it. Peter was given the keys to the kingdom and is the rock upon which the Church is built (Matthew 16:18). Paul went to the world and proclaimed Christ crucified (1 Cor 1:23). Both saints, each in their way, tried to run from the call of Christ – Peter by denying Jesus on the night of his passion, Paul by persecuting the early Christians. But both saints have been redeemed in their relationship with the Risen Christ and show us we can be forgiven, renewed, and sent like them.

This solemnity is celebrated instead of the 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time since June 29 falls on a Sunday. The season of Ordinary Time is very linear; each week is numbered as we build up to the final solemnity of the year – the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Our Gospel reading for each Sunday is generally a succession of the previous week's chapter and/or verse.

Because Ordinary Time is, in a sense, ordinary, certain solemnities supersede Sunday, given their significance in the life of the Church. The Solemnity of Peter and Paul is one of these solemnities. In September, The Exaltation of the Holy Cross will also fall on a Sunday, and we will celebrate that solemnity instead of the 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

This solemnity is so essential to our faith life that Pope Benedict XVI once said, “Christian tradition has always considered Saints Peter and Saint Paul to be inseparable; indeed, together, they represent the whole Gospel of Christ.” As we prepare to mark the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul, two central figures in the early Church and pillars of our faith tradition, let us look to them as guides on our path as disciples, that we are never too far from reconciliation with the Lord for denying him or running from him, or too far from encountering his risen presence in our day-to-day life. As they did, let us continue dedicating our lives to sharing the Good News of the Gospel with all people and proclaiming with faith and joy that Jesus Christ has risen from the dead.

Tours After 8:30, 10:30 Masses

Learn more about the 175-year history of Holy Name Cathedral through one of our weekly tours. It's perfect for parishioners or for visitors. Our Cathedral Docents are excited to share with you the art, architecture and history of the Cathedral. Each week, our Docents lead a short, 15-minute tour following the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses. Those who are interested in this free tour are invited to sit in the front rows along the center aisle after Mass.

HNC Summer Lecture Series

History, the Church & Today's Moral Crisis

THIS Sunday, June 29, 1:30-3:00pm

Our first lecture will feature Dr. Edward Gordon, historian and author, who will speak on the topic of History, the Church, & Today's Moral Crisis.

For over 2,000 years, the Roman Catholic Church has guided the faithful through its dogmas, doctrines, and disciplines or rules. The Church bases its authority in its teachings on faith and morals upon divine revelation, the Bible, and Church Councils.

Dr. Edward Gordon

The Church's authority in defining truth on these questions has faced many challenges over time. Today the spread of the philosophy of Postmodernism is challenging the existence of objective truth in general. Postmodernism is the direct opposite of Catholic theology. Christian self-sacrifice and service are replaced by a selfish focus on the individual.

The Church's evangelization efforts are the most potent force in combating this divisive, destabilizing philosophy. Led by Pope Leo XIV, Catholics need to mobilize to overcome the distrust and division in our society through focusing on the Church's teaching on the community of the faithful and the central tenets of the Catholic faith.

Join us in the Club Room on Sunday, June 29. No advance registration is needed.

Summer Volunteer Opportunity

Help Us Plan HNC's Annual School Supplies Drive

We invite you to join the planning team for our Annual School Supplies Drive, which will take place on August 16 & 17. As adults, we remember our days of returning to school with fresh new supplies in the excitement of starting a new school year.

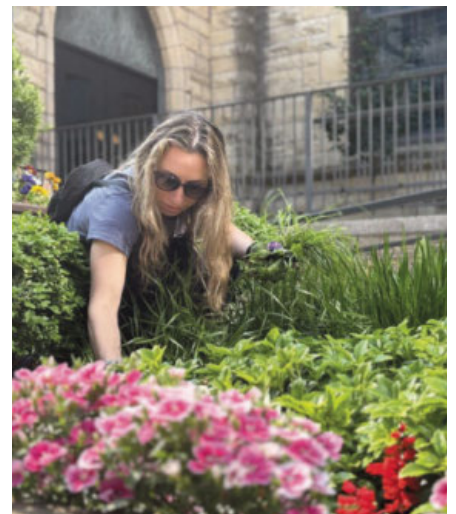

However, many students' families cannot afford to purchase even the basic tools needed for their students to be successful in the classroom. So many teachers try to supplement the gap with their own money. But we know prices are increasing, so the teachers' funds don't go far.

Your contribution to the planning team will directly impact these students, ensuring they have the necessary supplies for a successful school year. The planning team will select the school, identify the school's priority needs, organize volunteers, develop the communication plans, and work out all the details for this annual fundraiser. Our next planning meeting will be on Monday, June 30 at 6:00pm via Zoom. Scan the QR code to join the planning team. If you have any questions, contact Michele Sotak at msotak@holynamecathedral.org

Join our St. Therese's Garden Ministry

Often described as a spiritual oasis, St. Therese's Garden Ministry provides a peaceful place for prayer, tranquil spaces for parishioners and a warm, welcoming respite for our friends and neighbors. The Garden Ministry will serve to promote fellowship, support the community and grow in holiness in the way of St. Therese, "Doing small things with great love." Our Garden Ministry friends gather to plant & care for the Cathedral's courtyard and planters. In addition to that, we will do a simple campus clean up.

You don't need to be an experienced gardener to join our ministry! If you enjoy the outdoors and light physical activity, this could be a great fit for you. We'll be planting, weeding, and doing some general campus clean-up. We'd love to have you with us! Interested in the St. Therese Garden Ministry? Please contact Fr. Ton Nguyen at tnguyen@holynamecathedral.org for more information and our next gardening date!

HNC 175th Anniversary Prayer

Heavenly Father, we are thankful for Holy Name Cathedral, a place of prayer and worship for 175 years.

We thank you for the faith, friendship, and generosity that has flowed so freely through this parish and remember with gratitude the generations who have come before us in this sacred space.

May we continue to welcome all with love, faith, and hospitality, and be united in our shared mission, serving as joyful disciples of Christ. Amen.
