Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

It's hard to believe we've almost reached the halfway point of July! Summer is certainly flying by too quickly. July is a time to spend time with family, friends, and God in prayer. It is also a time of ...

Letting Go

To Let Go does not mean to stop caring.
It means I can't do it for someone else.

To Let Go is not to cut myself off.
It is the realization I can't control another.

To Let Go is not to enable,
but to allow learning from natural consequences.

To Let Go is to admit powerlessness, which means the outcome is not in my hands.

To Let Go is not to try to change or blame another.
It is to make the most of myself.

To Let go is not to fix, but to be supportive.

To Let Go is not to judge,
but to allow another to be a human being.

To Let Go is not to be in the middle, arranging all the outcomes, but to allow others to affect their destinies.

To Let Go is not to be protective.
It is to permit another to face reality.

To Let go is not to deny, but to accept.

To Let Go is not to nag, scold, or argue, but instead to search out my shortcomings and correct them.

To Let Go is not to adjust everything to my desires, but to take each day as it comes and cherish myself in it.

To Let Go is not to criticize and regulate the past,
but to grow and live for the future.

To Let Go is to fear less, and love more.

At the same time, there is an ancient Chinese legend about an older man and his only son. One night, the older man's horse escaped, and the neighbors came to comfort him in his loss. "How do you know this is a bad thing?" he asked them.

Several days later, his horse returned with a herd of wild horses. Now his friends came to congratulate the farmer on his good fortune. But the old man said, "How do you know this is a good thing?"

Later, his son attempted to tame one of the wild horses, but he was thrown off and broke his leg. Again, his friends gathered to bemoan his new misfortune. But the old man asked, "How do you know this is a bad thing?"

Soon, a warlord came to recruit able-bodied youth for his army, and the farmer's son escaped conscription because of his broken leg. In true fashion, the farmer's neighbors came and expressed their pleasure over the man's good luck. "How do you know it's a good thing?" he asked.

The story can go on forever. We look back on our lives and discover that some of the best things that happened to us at the time turned out to be some of the worst events of our lives. Some of the things we look back upon that seemed so bad at the time that we kept asking God, "Why? Why?" Yet they wound up being some of the best things that ever happened in life. Sometimes, you may not get what you wanted because of the hidden blessings you never saw coming.

And finally, Jim Davis shares this story...

A rabbi and a soap maker went for a walk together. The soap maker had some negative things to say about religion: "What good is religion? Just look around you. What do you see? Trouble, misery, wars—even after all these years and years of preaching and teaching about goodness, truth and peace. What good is religion with all its prayers and sermons if all this evil still exists?"

The rabbi kept quiet as they continued their walk. Then they noticed a child playing in the gutter. The child was just filthy with dirt and mud.

The rabbi said to the soap maker: "Look at this child! Now you say that soap makes people clean, but what good is it? With all the soap in the world, this child is still dirty. What good is soap after all?"

The soap maker immediately answered him: "But rabbi, soap can't do its job if it isn't used!"

The rabbi said, "The same is true with religion."

In a summer reflective mood,
Fr. Greg

A Sculpture of Sacred Heart of Jesus is coming in August

As we continue through our celebration of the 175th anniversary of Holy Name Cathedral as a Faith Community, we turn our attention to our next event, which will honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus. On Friday, Aug. 1 at the noon Mass, we will unveil a sculpture we commissioned from Chicago priest and artist Fr. Anthony Brankin. The sculpture will be a beautiful addition inside our Cathedral to commemorate this Catholic devotion. See more on page 4.

✠ LOOKING AHEAD: Save the date for our International Rosary Day on Sunday, Sept. 21. We'll have Mass at 5:15pm, followed by the Rosary prayed together in multiple languages followed by a dinner. More details to come in the following weeks. Our closing event of the 175th year will be our annual Ministry Fair on Sunday, Oct. 5. We'll highlight the events of our celebratory year and showcase the various ministries at Holy Name Cathedral.

On the Cover

In honor of our anniversary, each week we will spotlight photos from our past 175 years on the bulletin cover. They'll offer a peek into the past of our Faith Community.

Alice O'Malley Robinson is honored by Cardinal Joseph Bernardin and Bishop Timothy Lyne at the dedication ceremony of the Flentrop Organ on July 19, 1989, which she donated to Holy Name Cathedral. The ceremony took place on her 101st birthday — exactly 100 years after she was baptized at the Cathedral, which also was the site of her parents' wedding in 1896. In her honor, the first song played on the organ was "Happy Birthday."

Pope Leo's Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

On June 11, Pope Leo XIV released a prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, a sincere appeal for compassion, mission, and daily encounters with Christ. The prayer encourages us to open our hearts to the love of Jesus and to share that love with the world. These words provide a moment of quiet reflection for those seeking a closer relationship with Christ.

Pope Leo XIV

Lord, I come to your tender heart today,
to you who have words that set my heart ablaze,
to you who pour out compassion on the little ones
and the poor,
on those who suffer, and on all human miseries.

I desire to know you more, to contemplate you in the Gospel, to be with you and learn from you and from the charity with which you allowed yourself
to be touched by all forms of poverty.

You showed us the Father's love by loving us without measure with your divine and human heart.
Grant all your children the grace of encountering you.

Change, shape, and transform our plans,
so that we seek only you in every circumstance:
in prayer, in work, in encounters, and in our daily routine.

From this encounter, send us out on mission,
a mission of compassion for the world in which you are the source from which all consolation flows.

Amen.

May these reflections and prayer be a part of your summer days as quiet companions as we prepare to welcome this new sculpture.

Catholic Illuminations

In a Rut? Bored? Here's How to Stay Active During Mass

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Sometimes life falls into a routine. We often repeat things without even realizing we're doing so.

We go through the motions. And that sense of routine, and in a way, the mundaneness of life, can sometimes creep into our life of faith. We go through the motions: we enter the church, we genuflect, we perform the movements of the Mass, and then, as we know, we walk out the door, not even remembering receiving the Lord in the Eucharist.

The liturgy is the perfect prayer we can offer to God. The liturgy is the source and summit of the Christian life. The liturgy is anything but a routine to be watched; rather, it is an activity to be active in. With that, it is always good to have a reminder of things that make our liturgy prayerful, show respect and honor, and impact the world around us.

One of the easiest ways to make our time with Jesus more impactful is to be on time for Mass and stay for the entire Mass, until the final blessing. The Mass schedule at the Cathedral, or your home parish if you are visiting, remains the same from week to week. If one had tickets to the ballgame or a concert, one wouldn't want to be late or leave early. Treat the Mass with the same desire not to miss a moment by arriving early, and staying to the end.

Another way to prevent the Mass from passing us by is to be actively engaged in the liturgy. When the priest says, "The Lord be with you," everyone, and I mean everyone, is invited by their baptism to respond, "And with your Spirit." This call for active participation means to sing as well. One may not have a Celine Dion voice, but God has given you what you have, and we invite you to use whatever you have to give glory back to God. So respond, and sing!

When approaching the Eucharist in procession, do not look around at others; instead, prayerfully prepare yourself to receive the Lord in Holy Communion. And when receiving, it is always good to remember that we never take communion, we receive communion. Jesus freely offered himself on the cross for our salvation, and his body and blood have become the fruit of the new tree of life, the cross. So, when receiving Holy Communion, particularly here in the United States, the preferred posture is standing, and the host is received on the hand, which is cupped, with the dominant hand under the less dominant hand, and held at chest level. The hands are not down below the waist or one hand (unless you need to hold on to something or someone for support). We must never grab the host. Whether we receive the host on the tongue (which requires one to open their mouth and stick out their tongue literally) or on the hand, we should complete the reception of the host immediately, not in the pew or while walking out of church.

The Mass is our prayer to God in thanksgiving for all he has done for us. It is not something we go to check off our weekly list and say we are good people. The words and actions of the Mass should change us every time we gather for Eucharist. As we continue to delve deeper into Ordinary Time, where things may seem routine, let us actively participate and realize each week that God is always doing something new in our lives.

Thanks to Our HNC Docents!

I wanted to send my thanks to the Cathedral community for a wonderful visit to your church. My cousin and I visited Chicago and decided to attend 10:30am Mass on Sunday 5/25/25. What a magnificent and welcoming church! We attended the tour after the mass – the volunteer guide did a phenomenal job of presenting the role the church has played in the city, as well as celebrating your anniversary and the Jubilee year. I have made a donation for the anniversary and would also like to honor the volunteer guide for her generous spirit.

Wishing you a wonderful anniversary and Jubilee year!
Carol V.

Each week, our Docents lead a free, 15-minute tour following the 8:30am and 10:30am Masses. Those interested in are invited to sit in the front rows along the center aisle after Mass. All are invited!

Volunteer for Our Annual School Supplies Drive!

Help Disadvantaged Students by Volunteering Before and After All Masses on Aug. 16 And 17

As adults, we remember our own days of going back to school with fresh new supplies in excitement of starting a new school year. The difficulty is that many students don't have the ability to own the basic tools needed to be successful in the classroom. So many teachers try to supplement the many missing school supplies by using their own money to buy needed items for their classroom and students. And now with inflation, those teacher funds don't go as far as usual. They need our help! During all weekend Masses on Aug. 16 and 17, we will be collecting school supplies and monetary donations and we need your help.

VOLUNTEERS SIGN UP HERE! If you are interested in assisting with the drive, we can use your help! Your participation is an invaluable part of the success of the drive. We are looking for volunteers to donate their time during our six Masses. You will need to arrive 15 minutes before Mass starts and stay 15 minutes after Mass ends. We also need volunteers to sort the donated supplies and pack them up. Further details will be provided. Please scan the QR code to sign up!

Join our Blossoming St. Therese's Garden Ministry!

Often described as a spiritual oasis, St. Therese's Garden Ministry provides a peaceful place for prayer, tranquil spaces for parishioners and a warm, welcoming respite for our friends and neighbors. The Garden Ministry will serve to promote fellowship, support the community and grow in holiness in the way of St.

Therese, "Doing small things with great love." Our Garden Ministry friends gather to plant & care for the Cathedral's courtyard and planters. In addition to that, we will do a simple campus clean up.

You don't need to be an experienced gardener to join our ministry! If you enjoy the outdoors and light physical activity, this could be a great fit for you. We'll be planting, weeding, and doing some general campus clean-up. We'd love to have you with us! Interested in the St. Therese Garden Ministry? Our next Gardening Day will be on Saturday, Aug. 9, from 8:30am to 11:00am. Interested? Email Fr. Ton at tnguyen@holynamecathedral.org.

The Stump of Jesse

One Man's Journey from Battlefield to Blessed Sacrament

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

I recently listened to an episode of The Chris Stefanick Show titled “A Green Beret’s Hidden Battle and Road to Peace with Scott Galuska.” The title drew me in, and what I heard truly moved me.

Scott Galuska, a former Green Beret, endured the horrors of combat: firefight, grenade blasts, and the loss of brothers-in-arms. But his most powerful story wasn’t about war — it was about healing. And that healing didn’t come through tactics or training. It came in silence, before the Blessed Sacrament.

Scott shared how he used to pray the Rosary before each mission, and each time, everyone came back safely. But one day, in the chaos, he forgot to pray. That mission cost him his best friend. Though he knew God doesn’t work transactionally, the guilt stuck with him. He stopped praying. A deep silence grew between him and God.

One day, his parish began recruiting volunteers for Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration — 24 hours a day, seven days a week of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

Scott didn’t even know what Adoration was. Still, something stirred in him, and he signed up.

And there, sitting quietly before the Eucharist, something unexpected happened. It wasn’t a moment of thunder or drama — not like the battlefield. But what struck Scott deeper than any explosion or bullet was the mercy of God. A mercy that met him right where he was — wounded, uncertain, and longing for peace. It was in that silence that healing began. And from that moment on, Scott never missed his weekly holy hour. It is a beautiful story, isn’t it?

If you’ve never experienced Eucharistic Adoration, it’s a beautiful Catholic tradition that dates back to the early Church. The consecrated host — the Body of Christ — is placed in a monstrance, and we invite people to come and simply be with Jesus. Some pray the Rosary, others read Scripture or spiritual books. Some speak to the Lord from their hearts, while others sit in silence. But all are welcome. All are seen. All are loved.

This Wednesday, July 16, for anyone who cannot attend Adoration during the day due to work or a busy schedule, our parish will offer Adoration from 6:00 to 7:00pm, immediately following the 5:15pm Mass. Jesus will be there — waiting for you! I love being a priest! JMJ.

HNC 175th Anniversary Prayer

Heavenly Father, we are thankful for Holy Name Cathedral, a place of prayer and worship for 175 years.

We thank you for the faith, friendship, and generosity that has flowed so freely through this parish and remember with gratitude the generations who have come before us in this sacred space.

May we continue to welcome all with love, faith, and hospitality, and be united in our shared mission, serving as joyful disciples of Christ. Amen.
