Our Vision

A world in communion with Jesus Christ.

Our Mission

Holy Name Cathedral, as a Catholic parish and the seat of the Archdiocese of Chicago, forms a community of disciples who inspire, nurture, and join people on their faith journey to encounter and grow in Jesus Christ.

Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

How many times in life have we said to someone: “Don’t you see my point? Are you blind or something?” Maybe we have sarcastically remarked: “Were you born with tunnel vision or was this a later development?” Many times, we see or hear only what we want.

However, life is very much like a parachute – it is only good when opened!

The following story beautifully connects the need to “see” and opens life on a deeper level. Allow the Lord Jesus – Trust in the Lord – to walk more closely with you and “see” and be “opened” to the possibilities.

My Son

A wealthy man and his son loved to collect rare works of art. They had everything in their collection, from Picasso to Raphael. They would often sit together and admire the great works of art.

When the Vietnam conflict broke out, the son went to war. He was very courageous and died in battle while rescuing another soldier. The father was notified and grieved deeply for his only son. About a month later, just before Christmas, there was a knock at the door.

A young man stood at the door with a large package in his hands. He said, “Sir, you don’t know me, but I am the soldier for whom your son gave his life. He saved many lives that day, and he was carrying me to safety when a bullet struck him in the heart, and he died instantly. He often talked about you and your love for art.” The young man held out the package. “I know this isn’t much. I’m not a great artist, but I think your son would have wanted you to have this.”

The father opened the package. It was a portrait of his son, painted by the young man. He stared in awe at the way the soldier had captured the personality of his son in the painting. The father was so drawn to the eyes that his own eyes welled up with tears. He thanked the young man and offered to pay him for the picture. “Oh, no, sir. I could never repay what your son did for me. It’s a gift.”

The father hung the portrait over his mantle. Every time visitors came to his home, he took them to see the portrait of his son before he showed them any of the other great works he had collected. The man died a few months later. There was to be a great auction of his paintings. Many influential people gathered, excited to see the great paintings and to have an opportunity to purchase one for their collection.

On the platform sat the painting of the son. The auctioneer pounded his gavel. “We will start the bidding with this picture of his son. Who will bid for this picture?” There was silence.

Then a voice in the back of the room shouted. “We want to see the famous paintings. Skip this one.”

But the auctioneer persisted. “Will somebody bid for this painting? Who will start the bidding? $100? $200?”

Another voice angrily said, “We didn’t come to see this painting. We came to see the Van Goghs, the Rembrandts. Get on with the real bids!” But still, the auctioneer continued. “The son! The son! Who will take the son?”

Finally, a voice came from the very back of the room. It was the longtime gardener of the wealthy man and his son. “I’ll give you $10...who will bid $20?” The crowd was becoming angry. They didn’t want the picture of the son. They wanted the more worthy investments for their collections.

The auctioneer pounded the gavel. “Going once, going twice. SOLD for $10!” A man in the second row shouted, “Now let’s get on with the collection!” The auctioneer laid down his gavel. “I’m sorry, the auction is over.”

“What about the paintings?” someone called out.

“I am sorry. When I asked to conduct this auction, there was a secret stipulation in the will. I was not allowed to reveal that stipulation until this time, that only the painting of the son would be auctioned. Whoever bought that painting would inherit the entire estate, including the paintings. The man who bought the portrait of the son gets everything!”

You see, whoever takes the Son – the Lord Jesus – gets everything. And the best gifts of life are not always packaged in the way we had hoped, planned or expected. And, by the way, take the time this summer and be open to the colors and “see” the season!

Summer blessings,
Fr. Greg

The Sacred Heart of Jesus: How We Come to Know God's Love for Us

We dedicated our new sculpture of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Cathedral this past Friday. It will be a beautiful source of inspiration for generations to come that will uplift those who visit and worship at Holy Name. We again extend our deepest thanks to parishioner and generous donor, Dr. Christine Lawless, whose generosity has made this possible, and to our talented Archdiocesan priest and artist, Fr. Anthony Brankin, who brought this vision to life.

Now that you've seen the statue, we invite you to learn more about its significance. Fr. Louis J. Cameli will give a lecture "The Sacred Heart of Jesus: How We Come to Know God's Love for Us" on Sunday, Sept. 14 at 1:30pm. For many Catholics, devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has been a source of spiritual sustenance and inspiration. In his reflection, we will explore some of the history of the devotion, its foundations in our traditions of faith, and how it might be expressed in our world today.

✠ Save the date for our International Rosary Day on Sunday, Sept. 21. We'll have Mass at 5:15pm, followed by the Rosary prayed together in multiple languages followed by a dinner. More details to come in the following weeks.

Fr. Cameli on the Sacred Heart devotion

✠ Fr. Louis Cameli recorded a new video giving us a beautiful reflection about this devotion of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Scan the QR code to watch.

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-1690), a nun in the Order of the Visitation of Holy Mary convent in Paray-le-Monial, in Burgundy, France, received her first revelation of the Sacred Heart of Jesus on December 27, 1673. Our Lord asked her to request a celebration of the Feast of the Sacred Heart in June 1675, dedicated to honoring and reflecting on the boundless love and mercy of Jesus Christ.

The Sacred Heart, a symbol of Jesus' boundless love, compassion, and mercy, is a comforting reminder of His enduring love for all humanity. The flames surrounding the heart represent the intensity of His love, a love that never wavers. The cross and crown of thorns remind us of Jesus's suffering and His willingness to lay down His life for us, a sacrifice that continues to inspire us. In 1856, Blessed Pope Pius IX designated the Feast of the Sacred Heart to be celebrated universally every Friday after the Octave of Corpus Christi.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church "honors the Heart of Jesus just as it invokes his most holy name," while Pope Leo XIV implores us "to turn then to the Sacred Heart, model of true humanity, and ask Him to make our heart ever more like His."

In honor of our 175th Anniversary, Holy Name Cathedral commissioned Chicago Archdiocesan priest and renowned sculptor Father Anthony Brankin to create this Sacred Heart statue, celebrating the establishment of the Holy Name Parish in 1849.

As we reflect on the prayer, "Jesus, meek and humble of heart, make my heart like yours," let us remember that it is within our power, with His grace, to shape our hearts in His image.

Remember St. John Vianney, the Patron Saint of Priests

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Each of us has a patron saint. And the beauty of the communion of saints is that there is a saint for almost every need under heaven. A patron for people and occupations such as parents and grandparents, nurses, teachers, and first responders. There is a patron for various needs, including those looking for a job, those with multiple diseases, and those seeking companionship or some specific item in their life. The communion of saints that we profess in our creed reminds us that we do not walk alone on this journey. For priests, as we minister to the people of God, we also have a patron, whose feast we celebrate tomorrow — St. John Vianney, the Cure of Ars.

St. John Vianney had a simple upbringing, born in France in 1786. His education was interrupted numerous times due to the Napoleonic Wars and the draft the dictator put in place to enlist more soldiers. Vianney never fought because he got separated from his group and lived in the forest for 14 months, but he never lost his vocation to the priesthood, which was formed as he witnessed priests saying Mass “on the run” during the anticlerical French Revolution in the 1790s.

With Vianney’s low-grade education, his seminary formators said he was not suitable to be a priest. However, persuaded by his priest mentor, the seminary allowed Vianney to move forward to Ordination due to his piety and devotional life. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1815, at the age of 29, and in 1818, sent to Ars, France, where he stayed until his death in 1859. Parish priests respect Vianney for the 12 to 16 hours he spent in the confessional daily, for his celebration of the Sacraments, and the thousands who sought his counsel annually.

So, why is Vianney well-known among priests, other than being the patron saint of parish priests? Because his story shows the humanity of the man whom Jesus called to serve his people. He was not the most intelligent person, was not well educated, and yet he still ministered.

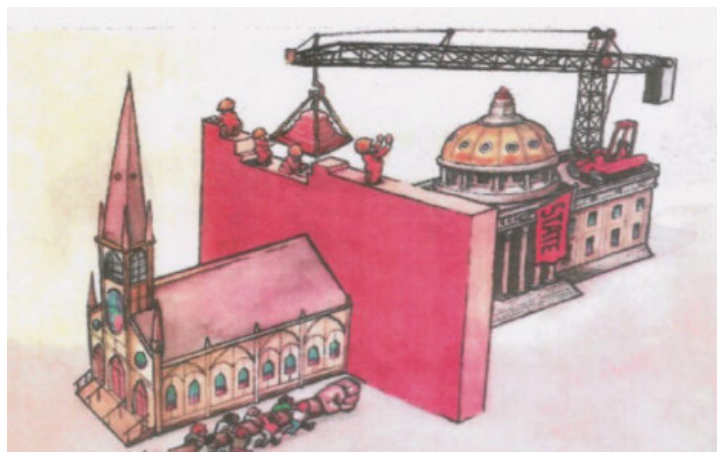

As priests, each of us has shortcomings and talents, strengths, and areas of improvement. People did not criticize Vianney for his lack of education, because he pointed them to Jesus through his ministry.

Priests are human too. We make mistakes, we have emotions and feelings. The life we live may appear simple and easy. But a well-lived priesthood is not; it is difficult, it is at times painful, because it is a life of sacrifice as we put aside our wants and desires to serve God’s people. We get criticized for saying this or doing that, and sometimes that hurts. Sometimes we have a long day of trying to bring God’s love to those we meet, and we are told by some, “Be better.” St. John Vianney teaches priests and the faithful that Jesus qualifies the called; he does not call the qualified.

Every saint has a different path to canonization. Some are well known to the world, centuries after their death, while others remain hidden for years until God’s time is right for their story to be known. What is common to them all is their humanity. Nobody is perfect, but with God’s grace, we all move forward knowing that by our baptism, we are called to life with God in heaven for eternity, joining our voices of praise with those countless people who have gone before us, striving for sanctity. As we remember John Vianney, please pray for us who minister here at the Cathedral, and if you are visiting, pray for your parish priest, that they may lead you to Jesus and allow you to find strength in your journey to heaven.

Cathedral Tours After 8:30, 10:30, 12:30 Masses Today

This Sunday, we have three opportunities for tours of Holy Name. Every Sunday after the 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses, Docents will give quick 15-minute tours. Also, Docents will give full Cathedral tours after the 12:30 p.m. Mass on the first and third Sundays of the month, including this Sunday, Aug. 3. The full tours last approximately 45 minutes. These free tours will begin immediately after Mass and will start at the front of the main, center aisle. No reservations needed!

HNC Summer Lecture Series

The Church and State in Balance: A History of American Catholicism

THIS SUNDAY: Aug. 3 at 1:30pm in Club Room

Join us on Sunday, Aug. 3 at 1:30pm in the Club Room for our final installation of our Summer Lecture Series. The history of Catholicism in the United States is a fascinating story of missionary zeal, growth and change triggered by waves of immigrants, times of religious persecution, and the maintenance of the delicate balance between church and state across American civil society.

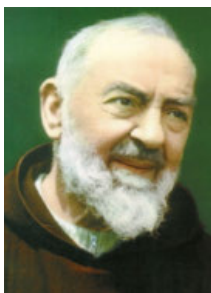

Church historian Edward Gordon will explore both the past context of these issues and what the Church leadership faces today.

Summer Volunteer Opportunity

Volunteer for Our Annual School Supplies Drive!

Help Disadvantaged Students by Volunteering Before and After All Masses on Aug. 16 And 17

This year, our drive will benefit the children of The Academy of St Benedict the African, located at 6020 S Laflin Ave, preschool-8th grade students in West Englewood. Teachers work hard to create a warm and inviting environment to their students. The difficulty is that many teachers do not have the resources to decorate, let alone provide the basic tools and supplies their students needed to be successful in the classroom. Let's help give our underprivileged children better opportunities to be a vibrant force of love and hope in the community! How our supplies drive has positivity impacted the school:

"HNC has provided so many necessary supplies that I can be sure that my children have everything they need for a great school year!" — Ms. Thompson

"Thank you to Holy Name for the school supplies. With everything getting to be so expensive, it's great to have help." — Mr. Alexander

1. Supplies and Cash Donations

A wish list of school supplies items the children need include basic supplies including notebooks, pencils, pens, crayons, colored pencils, scissors, glue, Clorox spray and wipes, tissue boxes, and backpacks. All financial donations are welcome. Please scan the QR code to make a donation.

2. Volunteer!

You can donate your time and passion by volunteering to help collect donations before and after Mass. Your participation is an invaluable part of the success of the drive. We are looking for volunteers to donate their time during our six Masses. You will need to arrive 15 minutes before Mass starts and stay 15 minutes after Mass ends. We also need volunteers to sort the donated supplies, pack them up and drivers to deliver the donated school supplies. We will work around your schedule to set up the date and time. Further details will be provided. Scan the QR code to sign up!

Honor A Loved One with Mother Cabrini or Courtyard Paver

Next Order Deadline is Sept. 19

Mother Cabrini Commemorative Paver:

Holy Name Cathedral is home to the Mother Cabrini Statue and Garden honoring the life and legacy of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini. Mother Cabrini dedicated her life in service to others and is the Patron Saint of Immigrants and the first United States citizen to be canonized a saint. The Mother Cabrini Garden offers pavers for engraving. Memorialize a loved one, honor someone special, or commemorate a significant event through the purchase of a paver.

Courtyard Commemorative Paver:

Our courtyard features a private Marian Shrine where the faithful say prayers to the Blessed Virgin and leave offerings of flowers. Commemorate a special event, loved one, or celebrate a family member or friend's wedding, baptism, anniversary or other milestone through the purchase of a paver in the Cathedral's courtyard.

If you would like to order an engraved paver, forms can be found on our website — holynamecathedral.org/special-intentions. The next deadline for ordering is Sept. 19. For more information contact Regina Zielinski at (312) 573-4432 or rzielinski@holynamecathedral.org.

Honoring Our Loved Ones

Ministers of Care Available to Visit You with Communion

What is the Ministry of Care? It is a group of people who have been trained and commissioned to visit with, pray with, and bring communion to those in our parish who are sick and unable to attend mass; those who are homebound, in the hospital or in a nursing home.

We have several Ministers of Care available to bring Holy Communion to the homebound. Email us at mycathedral@holynamecathedral.org or call us at (312) 787-8040 and one of our Ministers of Care will be in touch.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.

HNC 175th Anniversary Prayer

Heavenly Father, we are thankful for Holy Name Cathedral, a place of prayer and worship for 175 years.

We thank you for the faith, friendship, and generosity that has flowed so freely through this parish and remember with gratitude the generations who have come before us in this sacred space.

May we continue to welcome all with love, faith, and hospitality, and be united in our shared mission, serving as joyful disciples of Christ. Amen.
