Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

August is quickly coming to a close. Most of our young people have started school. How quickly summer has flown!

I have stated many times that if you want to see the face of God, look in the mirror or next to you. I share with you real-life stories that will touch your heart. Stories for people of all ages. Based on actual incidents, they are both excellent and inspirational. Enjoy and pass on...

1. Today, I interviewed my grandmother for part of a research paper I'm working on for my psychology class. When I asked her to define success in her own words, she said, "Success is when you look back at your life and the memories make you smile."
2. Today, I asked my mentor -- a very successful businessman in his 70s -- what his top three tips are for success. He smiled and said, "Read something no one else is reading, think something no one else is thinking, and do something no one else is doing."
3. Today, after a 72-hour shift at the fire station, a woman ran up to me at the grocery store and hugged me. When I tensed up, she realized I didn't recognize her. She let go with tears of joy in her eyes and the sincerest smile and said, "On 9/11/2001, you carried me out of the World Trade Center."
4. Today at 7am, I woke up feeling ill but decided I needed the money, so I went to work. At 3 pm, I got laid off. On my drive home, I got a flat tire. When I went into the trunk for the spare, it was flat, too. A man in a BMW pulled over, gave me a ride, we chatted, and then he offered me a job. I start tomorrow.
5. Today, as my father, three brothers, and two sisters stood around my mother's hospital bed, my mother uttered her last coherent words before she died. She said, "I feel so loved right now. We should have gotten together like this more often."
6. Today, I kissed my father on the forehead as he passed away in a small hospital bed. About five seconds after he passed, I realized it was the first time I had kissed him since I was a little boy.

7. Today, when I witnessed a 27-year-old breast cancer patient laughing hysterically at her two-year-old daughter's antics, I suddenly realized that I need to stop complaining about my life and start celebrating it again.
8. Today, a boy in a wheelchair saw me desperately struggling on crutches with my broken leg and offered to carry my backpack and books for me. He helped me across campus to my class, and as he was leaving, he said, "I hope you feel better soon."
9. Today, I was traveling in Kenya, and I met a refugee from Zimbabwe. He said he hadn't eaten anything in more than three days and looked extremely skinny and unhealthy. My friend offered him the rest of the sandwich he was eating. The first thing the man said was, "We can share it."

The best homilies are lived, not preached. Amen!

Lighter Side

Two robins were sitting in a tree. "I'm really hungry," said the first one. "Let's fly down and find some lunch." They flew down to the ground and found newly plowed ground that was full of worms. They ate and ate and ate 'til they could eat no more. "I am so full, I don't think I can fly back up into the tree," said the first robin. Just after they had fallen asleep, a big fat tomcat sneaks up and gobbles them up. As the cat sat washing his face after his meal, he thought, "I just love Baskin Robbins."

Walking with you,
Fr. Greg

Sunday Offertory Giving

Although Holy Name Cathedral receives funding from appeals and fundraisers, our major source of income is the Sunday Offertory Collection. If you are a parishioner who does not donate to the Sunday Offertory Collection, we ask that you consider becoming an active contributor.

To sign up for recurring Sunday giving or to increase your current giving, please go to tinyurl.com/HNCgiving or scan the QR code below. We also have yellow envelopes which can be found in the back of the Cathedral. You can fill out, enclose your desired donation and leave with an usher as you exit the Cathedral, or take home to complete and mail back to us at your convenience. Thank you for your generosity.

Sacred Heart of Jesus: ‘How We Come to Know God’s Love for Us’

We dedicated our sculpture of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in the Cathedral on Aug. 1. It will be a beautiful source of inspiration for generations to come that will uplift those who visit and worship at Holy Name. We invite you to learn more about its significance. Fr. Louis J. Cameli will give a lecture “The Sacred Heart of Jesus: How We Come to Know God’s Love for Us” on Sunday, Sept. 14 at 1:30pm in the Club Room. For many Catholics, devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has been a source of spiritual sustenance and inspiration. In his reflection, we will explore some of the history of the devotion, its foundations in our traditions of faith, and how it might be expressed in our world today.

✠ Save the date for our Living Rosary on Sunday, Sept. 21. We’ll have Mass at 5:15pm, followed by the Rosary prayed together in multiple languages followed by fellowship and a reception featuring light fare of international cuisines. More information can be found on page 4.

On the Cover

In honor of our anniversary, each week we will spotlight photos from our past 175 years on the bulletin cover. They’ll offer a peek into the past of our Faith Community.

Catholic Illuminations

Celebrate Sts. Augustine & Monica, Two Pillars of the Church

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

Oftentimes, we think saints were saints their whole lives. The saints we are friends with, the saints we pray through, the saints we invoke when we are in need, have always been holy. But that is not the case. A saint walks the same journey of faith and friendship with God as we do. No one is born a saint, because we are all born with the stain of original sin on our souls. It is by our baptism that we are called to be saints, and every baptized Catholic has a shared call to holiness.

This shared call for holiness is for each of us as well as our families. More recently, the Church has recognized couples and families that are models for holiness. For example, the Ulma family, beatified in 2023 by Pope Francis, were killed for hiding Jewish families in their home in Poland while Nazism was rampant in the land. This week, we celebrate two saints who are pillars in our faith as models of conversion and perseverance.

St. Augustine, whom we celebrate on Aug. 28, is a Father of the Church in the Patristic period and one of the greatest theologians of Western Christianity. He once said, "Every saint had a past, and every sinner has a future." And if you know his story, he was speaking from experience. His mother, St. Monica, who we celebrate on Aug. 27, prayed for Augustine's conversion every day for several years. As a child and as he grew into adulthood, Augustine would search for answers surrounding life and meaning, as well as in his relationships with different women. He was restless until he found Jesus Christ through the preaching of St. Ambrose, Archbishop of Milan, and the reading of Sacred Scripture. Augustine famously said, "Our hearts are restless until they rest in thee, O God."

St. Ambrose baptized Augustine in Milan in 387, and Monica was present at the baptism. Augustine would eventually go on to write his autobiography entitled "The Confessions," one of the greatest works of Western literature. It is one of those timeless books that you can read repeatedly and get a new insight from each time. If you are looking for a new book to read, I encourage you to buy a copy of Augustine's "The Confessions."

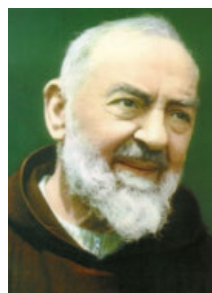

What Augustine teaches us is that God continually seeks after us, but does not force his love upon us. Monica teaches us to never tire of praying for others and ourselves, because God will answer in his time. May we look to this family of saints as we continue on our journeys of holiness and discipleship, not weighed down by our faults, but encouraged to rise to the heights of heaven, through God's grace and love.

If you would like to order an engraved paver, forms can be found on our website — holynamecathedral.org/special-intentions. The next deadline for ordering is Sept. 19. For more information contact Regina Zielinski at (312) 573-4432 or rzielinski@holynamecathedral.org.

Ministers of Care Available to Visit You with Communion

What is the Ministry of Care? It is a group of people who have been trained and commissioned to visit with, pray with, and bring communion to those in our parish who are sick and unable to attend mass; those who are homebound, in the hospital or in a nursing home.

We have several Ministers of Care available to bring Holy Communion to the homebound. Email us at mycathedral@holynamecathedral.org or call us at (312) 787-8040 and one of our Ministers of Care will be in touch.

HNC 175th Anniversary Prayer

Heavenly Father, we are thankful for Holy Name Cathedral, a place of prayer and worship for 175 years.

We thank you for the faith, friendship, and generosity that has flowed so freely through this parish and remember with gratitude the generations who have come before us in this sacred space.

May we continue to welcome all with love, faith, and hospitality, and be united in our shared mission, serving as joyful disciples of Christ. Amen.
