Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

I share the following with hopes of awakening our hearts and minds to be Christ to all we meet and keep life in perspective.

A group of old classmates at their high school class reunion was reminiscing about things and persons they were grateful for.

One man mentioned that he was particularly thankful for Mrs. Wendt, for she more than anyone had introduced him to Tennyson and the beauty of poetry. Acting on a suggestion, the man wrote a letter of appreciation to Mrs. Wendt and addressed it to the high school, which forwarded it and eventually found the old teacher.

About a month later, the man received a response. It was written in a feeble longhand and read as follows: “My dear Willie, I can’t tell you how much your letter meant to me.

I am now in my nineties, living alone in a small room, cooking my own meals, lonely, and I feel like the last leaf of fall lingering behind.

You will be interested to know that I taught school for forty years, and yours is the first letter of appreciation I ever received. It came on a blue, cold morning, and it cheered me as nothing has for years. Willie, you have made my day.”

At the same time, we always need to pace ourselves and realize we need to slow down, especially as November flies by and cold weather is already creeping in.

Slow Me Down, Lord

By Wilfred Arlan Peterson

Slow me down, Lord.

Ease the pounding of my heart by the quieting of my mind.

Steady my hurried pace with a vision of the eternal reach of time.

Give me, amid the confusion of the day, the calmness of the everlasting hills.

Break the tensions of my nerves and muscles with the soothing music of the singing streams that live in my memory. Help me to know the magical, restorative power of sleep.

Teach me the art of taking minute vacations — of slowing down to look at a flower,

to chat with a friend,

to pat a dog,

to read a few lines from a good book.

Remind me each day of the fable of the hare and the tortoise, that I may know that the race is not always to the swift – that there is more to life than increasing its speed.

Let me look upward into the branches of the towering oak and know that it grew great and strong because it grew slowly and well.

Slow me down, Lord, and inspire me to send my roots deep into the soil of life’s enduring values that I may grow toward the stars of my greater destiny.

Amen.

And on the lighter side (a true story from Wisconsin — must be a Green Bay Packers fan!)...

“We recently had a new neighbor call the local township administrative office to request the removal of the Deer Crossing sign on our road.

The reason: “Too many deer are being hit by cars out here! I don’t think this is a good place for them to be crossing anymore.”

With joy and laughter,
Fr. Greg

P.S. Congratulations to Blase Cardinal Cupich, who this Tuesday, November 18, will celebrate his 11th Anniversary as the Archbishop of Chicago. God’s blessings, always, Cardinal Cupich!

ACTION ALERT

Please contact Governor Pritzker to VETO SB 1950 - Legalizing Assisted Suicide

At 2:54 a.m. on October 31 the Illinois State Senate narrowly passed SB 1950. The State House narrowly passed the bill in the Spring. The bill is now on the Governor's desk. This is the last chance to stop assisted suicide from becoming law in Illinois.

In Canada where assisted suicide has been legal since 2016, 1 in 20 deaths are now due to assisted suicide/euthanasia. Too many are giving up on life under this law.

PLEASE CALL GOV. PRITZKER AND INFORM HIM:

- People with disabilities, the poor and marginalized fear coercion and abuse under assisted suicide laws.
- Suicide rates increase in states where assisted suicide is legal, especially among veterans.
- There is a possible cost savings to insurance companies as they can provide cheaper lethal drugs instead of lifesaving treatments.

Go to www.ilcatholic.org for e-mail links, or call the Governor's office directly at 312.814.2121.

On the Cover

In honor of our anniversary, each week we will spotlight photos from our past 175 years on the bulletin cover. They'll offer a peek into the past of our Faith Community.

From Nov. 18, 2014. In honor of the 11th anniversary of Blase Cardinal Cupich as Archbishop of Chicago, we share a snapshot of his installation Mass with him as then-Archbishop Cupich (left) sitting with outgoing Francis Cardinal George during the Mass.

Also in attendance (in the top right) at Holy Name Cathedral that day was the future Pope Leo XIV. At that time, he had been named as newly appointed as apostolic administrator of the Peruvian Diocese of Chiclayo.

Share Your Faith, Consider Becoming an OCIA Sponsor

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

There is a common saying: “You can’t choose your family, but you can choose your friends.”

And in our life of faith, we can choose a sponsor. For the sacraments of baptism and confirmation, the candidate receives a sponsor — a guide, a mentor, a companion on the journey. When an infant is baptized, parents typically choose the godparents. Generally, godparents are the parents’ siblings or very close friends. For confirmation, the candidate chooses someone in their life they look up to, whether it be a family member or a trusted adult who serves as a guide.

The Church requires sponsors for either baptism or confirmation to be at least 16 years of age, to be fully initiated Catholics in good standing with the Catholic Church, and to be able to fulfill this function (Code of Canon Law, Canon 874). To be a sponsor is a vital ask and very humbling. Personally, my younger brother asked me to be his sponsor for confirmation. Since then, I have been a sponsor for another person for their confirmation last year, and I am a godparent to my best friend’s son, who was baptized earlier this year.

Sponsors are people who live a life of faith that can help the baptized or confirmed in their own lives. As a godparent for baptism, the role is to help raise the child in the faith, whereas, for confirmation, it is to faithfully walk with the confirmed candidate through their various life moments. It should be an honor to sponsor someone because others have seen your strong faith lived out and witnessed in their lives, and want you to share that faith with others.

In the OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) program, we need sponsors. This program is a unique moment in the life of the parish because adults are freely choosing to enter into the mystery of Christ’s life, death, and resurrection. Compared to infant baptism, these adults grew up in a different denomination or a different religious tradition altogether. Sometimes, they may not have a strong Catholic witness to ask to be their sponsor because they may be the first in their family or social circle to take this leap to take this leap in becoming a fully-initiated Catholic.

As the St. Augustine of Hippo cohort moves closer to the celebration of the Sacraments on Holy Saturday, April 4, 2026, these candidates and catechumens need sponsors. If you have a desire to share your faith, walk with another person on their faith journey, and support someone as they learn what it means to be Catholic, this is an opportunity for you. Marta Stepniak oversees our OCIA program. If you are interested in learning more about being a sponsor, please get in touch with her at mstepniak@holynamecathedral.org.

The Church grows, not in rows, but in circles. The early Christians went and told others the Good News of the Resurrection and shared their faith. Now is the time to answer the call and sponsor a new Catholic as they learn about our rich history, so they can then go out into their circles of friends and family and share their faith with others.

Cathedral Tours After 8:30, 10:30, 12:30 Masses Today

This Sunday, we have three opportunities for tours of Holy Name. Every Sunday after the 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Masses, Docents will give quick 15-minute tours. Also, Docents will give full Cathedral tours after the 12:30 p.m. Mass on the first and third Sundays of the month, including this Sunday, Oct. 19. The full tours last approximately 45 minutes. These free tours will begin immediately after Mass and will start at the front of the main, center aisle. No reservations needed!

Volunteers Needed to Help with World Day of the Poor

THIS SUNDAY, Nov. 16, starting at 10:30am

The World Day of the Poor in 2025 will be on Sunday, Nov. 16. This will be the ninth annual observation of the day, established by Pope Francis in 2016 to encourage reflection on and action against poverty.

The theme for 2025 is “You are my hope” (Psalm 7:15), and the official message for the day released by Pope Leo XIV on June 13. The day encourages Catholics and people of goodwill to recognize the poor as protagonists of hope and to work for structural change.

Holy Name Cathedral will have several opportunities to serve, including distributing care packages to the needy on the street. Volunteers will pick up the bags in the Cathedral vestibule before 10:30am Mass, all are welcome to attend the Mass in the reserved front pews and receive a special blessing at Mass.

Afterwards they will go out into the streets and distribute packages, and encouraged to do so in pairs or teams.

From 12-2pm, volunteers are also needed to distribute bags to residents of Lawson House and participate in a holiday arts & craft making activity along with fellowship with the residents.

Please join us for this special day, fulfilling the Pope’s challenge to bring hope to our neighbors in need. Scan the QR code to volunteer. Please contact Michele Sotak at msotak@holynamecathedral.org with questions.

Congratulations, Sr. Katie!

We share the exciting news that Sr. Katie Mitchell, FSPA, received the St. Frances Xavier Cabrini Award from the Archdiocese of Chicago on Nov. 3. She received this award for beginning Cabrini Ministries at Holy Name Cathedral and for her continued dedication to accompanying our migrant sisters and brothers as they seek a safe and secure life for their families in the United States. Congratulations, Sister Katie!

If you would like to volunteer, support, or know more about Cabrini Ministries, please contact Sr. Katie at kmitchell@holynamecathedral.org.

Help Support HNC’s Cabrini Ministries

Gift Cards Needed for Families in Need
Drop off at the Rectory Nov. 1 to 23

Cabrini Ministries is collecting grocery gift cards to help families this season for the following grocery stores: Aldi, Jewel-Osco and Trader Joe’s.

Bring gift cards to the Rectory. You can drop them off in an envelope addressed to Fr. Joe Tito or Sr. Katie Mitchell. Your generosity will make a big difference for families in need.

The Stump of Jesse

‘What? It’s on Fire!’

By Fr. Ton Nguyen

Even in an age so marked by secularism, there are moments when the entire world seems to pause, kneel, and pray. Do you remember that day? “The Notre-Dame Cathedral in Paris is on fire!” The whole world was shaken. People of every faith and nation watched in sorrow as flames devoured one of Christianity’s most treasured landmarks. For a brief time, all divisions faded — and hearts united in grief and prayer.

A few weeks ago, after her annual retreat, my sister (who is a Sister — quite the tongue-twister, I know!) waited patiently in a long line to enter the newly restored Cathedral. She said that as she stepped inside, she felt a sense of newness — not just from the gleaming stone, but from the spirit of renewal that filled the air. Thousands gathered there, Catholics and non-Catholics alike, standing in awe at how beautifully the Cathedral had been restored after the great fire.

There was a quiet mix of emotions in that sacred space — gratitude, reverence, and reflection. Once consumed by flames, now renewed in glory. Like the phoenix rising from the ashes, it reminds us of our own faith: sometimes wounded, sometimes scorched by life’s trials, yet never destroyed.

In the same way, the Church in France — the “eldest daughter of the Church” — continues to persevere. Though numbers may dwindle, the faith still burns — quietly and patiently.

And speaking of rekindling...

On Jan. 31, our Young Adult Retreat will invite us to do just that, with the theme: “Back to the First Love.” Pope Leo

XIV (a Chicago native — oh yes, I’m still incredibly proud!) reminds us beautifully:

“Together, then, we will rebuild the credibility of a wounded Church, sent to a wounded humanity, within a wounded creation. We are not yet perfect, but it is necessary to be credible.”

Each of us has a role in this rebuilding. But before we can be sent, we must first return — return to the One who loved us first. It’s an invitation to revisit that first encounter with Christ, when His love became real and personal. Just as Peter was called back to the shoreline to hear Jesus ask, “Do you love me?” before being sent on mission, so too are we invited to return to our own Galilee moments.

The holidays are around the corner, and life will soon get busy. So before the season sweeps you away, take a moment to scan the QR code and reserve your spot. Come and rekindle the fire — because God is still making all things new. I love being a priest. JMJ.

Faith & Fitness Ministry: Balancing Holistic Wellness during Advent and Beyond

Sunday, Dec. 7 at 4pm

Our next Faith & Fitness session will be held on Sunday Dec. 7 at 4pm in the Club Room. The focus of the session is balancing holistic wellness during Advent, a time of vigilance. Father Louis Cameli and Michele Sotak will visit the theme of "integration," and protecting our bodies by exercising through balance work which includes training our stabilizer muscles.

We'll also explore what it means to put on the armor of God through prayer and more. Underlying topics include practicing the virtue of patience within your holistic wellness regimen routine. Please scan the QR code to register.

Sunday Offertory Giving

Although Holy Name Cathedral receives funding from appeals and fundraisers, our major source of income is the Sunday Offertory Collection. If you are a parishioner who does not donate, we ask that you consider becoming an active contributor. To sign up for recurring Sunday giving or to increase your current giving, please go to tinyurl.com/HNCgiving or scan the QR code. We also have yellow envelopes which can be found in the back of the Cathedral. You can enclose your desired donation and leave with an usher, or take home and mail back. Thank you for your generosity.

Join Us for the Sixth Annual Rector's Christmas Concert

Sounds of the Season: Friday, Dec. 12 at 7pm

Join us for this festive evening of holiday music and entertainment featuring Rich Daniels and members of the City Lights Orchestra. The concert begins at 7pm followed by hot chocolate and cookies. Tickets are free of charge and available online only. Limit four tickets per person.

Please consider supporting this event as a sponsor or with a donation. Proceeds from the event will go to the mission and ministries of Holy Name Cathedral including ministries that provide care to those who are cold and hungry this holiday season. Thank you for sharing your gifts with others. Sponsors can be recognized by individual or company name or in honor or memory of someone. The deadline to be included in the program book is Nov. 25.

To register or become a sponsor, please scan QR Code below. Contact Regina Zielinski, Director of Stewardship, with questions at rzielinski@holynamecathedral.org or (312) 573-4432. Thank you for your support.

Honoring Our Loved Ones

Ministers of Care Available to Visit You with Communion

What is the Ministry of Care? It is a group of people who have been trained and commissioned to visit with, pray with, and bring communion to those in our parish who are sick and unable to attend mass; those who are homebound, in the hospital or in a nursing home.

We have several Ministers of Care available to bring Holy Communion to the homebound. Email us at mycathedral@holynamecathedral.org or call us at (312) 787-8040 and one of our Ministers of Care will be in touch.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.

A Little Humor from the Rector

“As I watched the dog chasing his tail, I thought dogs are easily amused. Then I realized I was watching the dog chase his tail!”

Join the Lydia Institute for Advent by Candlelight

Tuesday, Dec. 9 at 6:45pm in the Cathedral

We warmly invite all women to begin the Advent season with an evening of sacred stillness, prayerful reflection, and soul-stirring music — all by candlelight in the Cathedral.

Our evening will start at 6:45pm with a musical prelude and followed by the program from 7:00pm to 8:30pm.

Come and experience a beautiful pause in the rush of December — a time to breathe, pray, and prepare your heart for the coming of Christ. All women are welcome. Invite a friend! Scan the QR code to register with the Lydia Institute.

Young at Heart Ministry

Join us for an Advent Retreat with Fr. Cameli

Saturday, Dec. 6 from 11:00am to 12:30pm

Join us in December for an exciting events for our Young at Heart Ministry (55 and older). As we prepare our hearts for the coming season of Lent, we pause first in Advent to wait with hope and joy for the birth of our Savior.

Fr. Louis Cameli will lead us in this special Advent Retreat — a time of rest, prayer, and renewal. Together, we will reflect on the mystery of waiting and learn to re-center our hearts on the birthday of the Lord.

Come and join this opportunity to step away from daily demands, find peace in God's presence, and deepen your anticipation of Christ's coming. We'll meet Saturday, Dec. 6 from 11:00am to 12:30pm in the Club Room. This event is free, but you must scan the QR code to register.

New Film on Photographer Steve Schapiro

Dec. 5, 6:00pm; Dec. 7, 2:30pm;
Dec. 10, 6:00pm at Siskel Film Center

Directed by his wife, filmmaker Maura Smith (and longtime Holy Name Cathedral parishioner), “Steve Schapiro: Being Everywhere” documents the career of the acclaimed photographer through his vast trove of images and his firsthand accounts of their making. Over six decades, Schapiro bore witness to some of the most significant social and cultural moments in modern American history. Schapiro began his career by documenting addiction in East Harlem and then traveling to Arkansas in 1961 to photograph migrant workers. In the 1970s, he began working as an on-set photographer and produced iconic publicity and poster images for films. Shot shortly before his passing in 2022, the documentary is a loving tribute to a man who was the quintessential “fly on the wall.” Tickets available at siskelfilmcenter.org

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God.
Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity.
Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request).
There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times).
Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times).
Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.

HNC 175th Anniversary Prayer

Heavenly Father, we are thankful for Holy Name Cathedral, a place of prayer and worship for 175 years.

We thank you for the faith, friendship, and generosity that has flowed so freely through this parish and remember with gratitude the generations who have come before us in this sacred space.

May we continue to welcome all with love, faith, and hospitality, and be united in our shared mission, serving as joyful disciples of Christ. Amen.
