Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

We have all heard the phrase, “Actions speak louder than words.” One of my favorite lines attributed to St. Francis of Assisi is: “Preach the Gospel at all times; if necessary, use words.” Words are very important, but words can ring hollow if our actions do not “put on Christ.”

I share a powerful story with you...Read it and pass it on...

The Deacon and the Boy

His name is Scott. He has wild hair, wears a t-shirt with holes in it, jeans, and no shoes. This was literally his wardrobe for his entire four years of college. He is brilliant. Kind of esoteric and very, very bright. He became a Christian while attending college.

Across the street from the campus is a well-dressed, very conservative church. They want to develop a ministry to the students but aren't sure how to go about it.

One day Scott decides to go there. He walks in barefoot, in jeans, a T-shirt, and wild hair. The service has already started, and so Scott starts down the aisle looking for somewhere to sit, but the church is completely packed, and he can't find a seat.

By now, people are looking pretty uncomfortable, but no one says anything. Scott gets closer and closer to the pulpit, and when he realizes there are no seats, he squats down right on the carpet.

By now the people are really uptight, and the tension in the air is thick.

About this time, the minister sees that from way at the back of the church, a deacon is slowly making his way toward Scott. A holy man, very elegant, very dignified, and very courtly. He walks with a cane and starts toward the boy;

everyone thinks you can't blame him for what he's going to do. How can you expect a man of his age and of his background to understand some college kid on the floor?

It takes a long time for the man to reach the boy. The church is utterly silent except for the clicking of the man's cane. All eyes are focused on him. You can't even hear anyone breathing. The minister can't preach until the deacon does what he has to do. Now they see the older man drop his cane to the floor. With great difficulty, he lowers himself, sits down next to Scott, and worships with him so he won't be alone. Everyone chokes up with emotion.

When the minister gains control, he says, “What I'm about to preach, you will never remember. What you have just seen, you will never forget.”

We need to always “put on Christ” both in word and action. Children especially are cognizant of our actions. Young children have a profound gift for sensing whether people are genuine or not truly “speaking from the heart.” At the same time, Henri Nouwen succinctly expresses in the following words:

“Our participation in the inner life of God leads us to a new way of participation in each other's lives...This new body is a spiritual body, fashioned by the Spirit of love. It manifests itself in very concrete ways: in forgiveness, reconciliation, mutual support, outreach to people in need, solidarity with all who suffer, and in ever-increasing concern for justice and peace. Thus, communion not only creates community, but community always leads to mission.”

Marvelous words to live by each day. May we always be Christ to each other and, by receiving Holy Communion, become Eucharist to our sisters and brothers.

On the journey with you,
Fr. Greg

Pope St. John Paul II addresses the faithful at Holy Name Cathedral during his visit Oct. 4 to 6, 1979. The Holy Father visited the Cathedral twice during his visit: the first night for a prayer service with priests of the Archdiocese and then returned for a concert with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Pray with the Pope: October

OCTOBER: For Mental Health Ministry

God of life, You know the innermost depths of our hearts — the light and shadows within us, the silent wounds that sometimes no one sees.

Today we bring before you our brothers and sisters who struggle with challenges to their mental health, who suffer in solitude with anxiety, depression, or any other mental illness. You call them by name, with tenderness, and in You they find dignity and hope.

Forgive us for the times we have looked the other way, feeding the stigma and discrimination of persons with mental illnesses. May your Church be an open house, a safe space where everyone has a place — a community that accompanies and never excludes, that listens without judging and draws near without fear.

We pray to you, Lord, for those who care: professionals, family members, volunteers — men and women who, with patience and love, build bridges of understanding and comfort. Give them strength and compassion to sustain others.

Send your Spirit upon us, that we may learn to welcome and integrate care for mental health into the life and ministry of our communities and of the whole Church, and thus become a living sign of your mercy, which never abandons and always restores.

Amen.

In honor of the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the Patron Saint of Animals, Fr. Andy Matijevic celebrated Mass in the Cathedral Courtyard with a special pet blessing afterwards on Saturday, Oct. 3.

A traveling memorial of 104 hand-painted wooden crosses, each bearing the name, country of origin and age of a person who has died in custody or during an immigration enforcement action since 2020, are displayed Sunday, Sept. 27, the World Day of Migrants and Refugees, in Holy Name Cathedral's Courtyard.

You're Invited to Our Healing Mass and Receive an Anointing

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

The Anointing of the Sick is one of the Church's seven sacraments. Along with the Sacrament of Reconciliation, it is known as a sacrament of healing. There has been a lot of misunderstanding surrounding the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, and many falsely associate it only with being celebrated in the hour of death. But the reality is that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick, like the other six Sacraments, is for the living. So we celebrate the Sacrament of the Sick at moments in our life when we need healing in body, mind, and spirit, though sometimes that healing comes at the moment of death.

Like all Sacraments, the Anointing of the Sick brings one into an encounter with Jesus Christ. The sacrament enables sick persons to find solace and comfort in their illness, and to live out their call to discipleship in their illness. The beginning pages of the Praenotanda of the Ritual for the Anointing of the Sick say, "By their witness, the sick show that our mortal life must be redeemed through the mystery of Christ's death and resurrection" (Pastoral Care for the Sick, 3). We see that the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus have touched everything that happens in this life.

The celebration of the Anointing of the Sick is both personal and communal, that is, something that belongs to the individual as well as to the Church community. It is personal, because the individual receives the grace of the Holy Spirit. It is communal, because the church community unites in prayer for the ill person. This stands in sharp contrast to the way that sick people are sometimes treated in our society. Before the Second Vatican Council (1962-1965), the Anointing of the Sick was celebrated in extremis, as a person approached death. So, it was known as "Last Rites" and "Extreme Unction." The Council affirmed that this was indeed a sacrament for the sick, not only for those near death (Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, n. 73). The personal and communal aspects of the Sacrament are shown in that Anointing can be done in a hospital room or within the context of a Mass.

Since anointing is not only for those on their deathbed, those who are seriously ill, people about to undergo surgery, older people who struggle with declining health, people with chronic illnesses, and those who suffer mental illness, they can also be anointed at any point in their life. This means the Sacrament can be celebrated again, and it is not a Sacrament that can only be celebrated once, like Baptism or Confirmation.

This upcoming Saturday, Oct. 17, the 8:00am Mass will be a Healing Mass—a Mass with the Anointing of the Sick for those who have come to reflect on the Sacrament and their current health issues, and avail themselves of this Sacrament. This Saturday comes a day before the Feast of St. Luke, patron saint of physicians. How appropriate, then, to approach the divine physician, Jesus Christ, through St. Luke, through the celebration of the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, to seek healing in mind, body, and spirit, so the sick can draw close to Christ and see suffering as a participation in the salvation of the world.

This isn't just a bus tour, it's a pilgrimage.

Led by Sr. Mary Ann Spanjers, FSCC, we'll travel together through Pope Leo's Chicago story while asking a deeper question: If God worked through the ordinary places, people, and experiences of his life — how might God be working through yours?

The pilgrimage will be Saturday, Oct. 24. At 9:00 AM, we will check-in and gathering at Holy Name Cathedral before departing at 10:00AM SHARP! We'll return to Holy Name around 4:30 PM to 5:00PM.

ONLY 50 SEATS AVAILABLE! Early bird pricing is $50 through Oct. 17 and then increases to $60 afterwards. Registration closes Oct. 22 — or as soon as all 50 seats are gone!

- ✠ Catholic Theological Union — Formation, learning, and vocation
- ✠ St. Rita of Cascia Shrine Chapel and High School — Ministry, mission, and service

And at the heart of our day, we will gather for service experience at St. Rita Shrine Chapel, followed by lunch and time together.

Your pilgrimage includes: charter bus transportation, guided Pope Leo tour, Mass, a catered lunch, pilgrim guide and plenty of time for prayer and reflection and fellowship.

Remember Those Who Have Died The Feast Of All Souls

All Souls Day — Sunday, Nov. 2

When someone we love passes from this world, we feel a great loss and may experience a time of darkness. All Souls Day is a reminder that death is not the end. We believe in eternal life, and our earthly death is just the beginning of our eternal journey which is to be united with God.

This All Souls Day, we encourage you to come to Mass to pray for our deceased family members, relatives, friends and all the faithful departed. You, your family and all the faithful departed are in our prayers. May our dearly departed find eternal peace and happiness. The souls we have lost may be gone, but they are never forgotten. They live in our cherished memories and in the love they have left behind. For the believer, when we die life is changed not ended-eternal life with God. May God bless you always.

A Little Humor from the Rector

“Do songbirds get mad at hummingbirds for not knowing the words?”

Blessings in a Backpack is Looking for Drivers!

Blessings in a Backpack is a program that provides weekend food for school aged children who are experiencing food insecurity. Each Thursday during the school year, a group of parishioners pack food in the Rectory of Holy Name Cathedral for the children of St. Thomas of Canterbury School located in Uptown.

We need additional drivers who are willing to use their personal cars to help us deliver the food to the school. The time commitment is relatively short, about one hour. Our hope is to expand our group of drivers so that we will always have enough drivers to make the delivery.

So, if you have an extra hour on Thursdays, we would be delighted for you to join our ministry. Drivers do not have to be available every Thursday, even an occasional Thursday would be helpful. If interested, please email Michele Sotak at msotak@holynamecathedral.org. Thank you for your consideration.

Holy Spirit, you who makes me see everything and shows me the way to reach my ideal, you who gives me the Divine gift to forgive and forget all the wrong that is done to me and you, who are in all instances of my life with me. I, in this short dialogue, I want to thank you for everything, and affirm once more that I never want to be separated from you, no matter how great the material desires might be. I want to be with you and my loved ones in your perpetual glory. To that end and submitting to God's Holy will, I ask from you. (Mention your Request)
 Amen. Say this prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God.
 Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity.
 Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request).
 There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times).
 Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times).
 Say this Prayer for 3 consecutive days.

Cathedral 150th Anniversary Prayer

God of abundant goodness, compassion and mercy, we give you thanks for the 150 years of Holy Name Cathedral.

May this church be seen as a welcoming Faith Community open to all people, a place of praise, petition, and thanksgiving, a place of comfort, healing, and inspiration for the young and old to live the Gospel and together love this world back into life.

Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
