Reflections from Our Rector

Dear People of God,

On Thursday, we celebrate Thanksgiving. It is a wonderful day and opportunity to give thanks to God for all His gifts. I want to invite everyone to join our 10:00am Liturgy — together, may we give thanks to God, for we do have much to be thankful for despite our struggles and pains at times in life.

Giving thanks happens in many ways throughout our lives and at different stages of our journey. I share with you a powerful "Thank You" written by an adult, reflecting on their childhood.

A message every adult should read, because children watch us and do as we do, not as we say.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you hang my first painting on the refrigerator, and I immediately wanted to paint another one.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you feed a stray cat, and I learned that it was good to be kind to animals.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make my favorite cake for me, and I learned that the little things can be the special things in life.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I heard you say a prayer, and I knew that there is a God I could always talk to, and I learned to trust in Him.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you make a meal and take it to a sick friend, and I learned that we all have to help take care of each other.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you give of your time and money to help people who had nothing, and I learned that those who have something should give to those who don't.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw you take care of our house and everything in it, and I learned we have to take care of what we are given.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw how you handled your responsibilities, even when you didn't feel good, and I learned that I would have to be responsible when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I saw that you cared, and I wanted to be everything that I could be.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I learned most of the life lessons I need to be a good, productive person when I grow up.

When you thought I wasn't looking, I looked at you and wanted to say, "Thanks for all the things I saw when you thought I wasn't looking."

And this Thanksgiving and all year round, please remember...

"We're Neighbors"

I live in an apartment complex with thin walls. My neighbor downstairs, Sarah, is a single mom with a newborn. For three weeks, that baby has screamed from 2am to 4am. I haven't slept. I was exhausted. Frustrated.

Yesterday, I went downstairs to knock on her door. I was going to complain. I was going to talk about "quiet hours." I raised my hand to knock, and I heard it through the wood. She was sobbing. "Please," she was whispering to the baby. "Please sleep. Mommy is so tired. Mommy is so alone."

My anger evaporated. I went back upstairs. I made a casserole. I put a few quiet toys I had in a gift bag (I'm a kindergarten teacher). I wrote a note: "I hear you. You're doing a great job. Leave your laundry basket outside your door tomorrow morning. I'll wash and fold it. Get some rest. – Apt 4B"

This morning, the basket was there. I did three loads. I folded the tiny onesies. When I returned it, she opened the door. She looked like a ghost, but she smiled. "I thought you were coming to yell at me," she said.

"We're neighbors," I told her. "We're supposed to hold each other up." The baby cried tonight. But I didn't mind. I just turned on my fan and prayed for her strength.

Thanksgiving blessings to all of you,
Fr. Greg

On the Cover

This weekend marks the 151st anniversary of the dedication of Holy Name Cathedral — Nov. 21, 1875. To mark the occasion and close out our 150th anniversary year, we look back where we came from October 1871 — immediately after the previous church was destroyed by the Great Chicago Fire to present day as the Cathedral and Seat of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Sacred Sounds: Where Music Meets Faith

We explore the beauty, history, and spiritual significance of sacred music at Holy Name Cathedral. From ancient Gregorian chants to the sounds of our Flentrop Organ, Steinway Grand Piano, and Cathedral choirs, each offers a deeper understanding of how music enriches our worship, elevates our prayer, and accompanies us on our journey of discipleship.

Proclaiming Christ Our King Through Music

This Sunday, we conclude the liturgical year with the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Our musical selections celebrate Christ's kingship through two magnificent works of British sacred music, inviting us to lift our hearts and voices in praise.

At the Offertory, our choir sings Antiphon by Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872–1958), based on a poem by 17th-century poet and Anglican priest George Herbert. Its opening words proclaim: "Let all the world in ev'ry corner sing, My God and King." This joyful invitation reminds us that praise of Christ our King extends to every corner of creation.

During Communion, we hear I Was Glad by Sir Charles Hubert Hastings Parry (1848–1918), composed for the 1902 coronation of King Edward VII at Westminster Abbey. Drawing upon Psalm 122, this majestic work expresses the joy of entering the house of the Lord and offers a prayer for peace.

An interesting musical connection: Parry was Vaughan Williams' teacher at London's Royal College of Music, linking these two composers across generations.

As we celebrate Christ the King, these selections remind us that His kingdom is not defined by earthly power, but by truth, justice, love, and peace. Through sacred music, we join in proclaiming Christ as King of our hearts and our world.

Advent is Almost Here! Time to Refocus our Life as Disciples

By Fr. Andy Matijevic

The celebration of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, is the climax of the liturgical year. Since Nov. 30, 2025, when we began our Advent journey, we have walked through Matthew's Gospel proclaiming Christ as Lord, Savior, and friend. It is sometimes easy to get caught up in the changing of the seasons, both literal and liturgical, and miss the whole reason for what we do. As we prepare to begin our Advent journey next Sunday, this time through the lens of Mark, we do so aware of Jesus, who became man, and, as we hear in the Gospel this Sunday, of the poor and forgotten. As we enter Advent, we are reminded that, once again, we relive the mystery of God entering our lives each day.

Advent is a good time, in a sense, to refocus on our life as disciples. Advent is a period of waiting in darkness for the light that comes with the birth of our Savior on Christmas morning. Advent is marked by various liturgical changes, such as violet vestments, the Advent wreath in the sanctuary, the omission of the Gloria during Sunday liturgies, and prayers in the Mass that focus on waiting for the Lord. And one addition is communal Vespers.

As in years past, the Cathedral will offer sung Advent Vespers on the Sundays of Advent: Nov. 29, Dec. 6, 13, and 20. Each Vespers service will include a free organ recital at 3:30pm. Vespers is one of the "hinge hours" of the overall Liturgy of the Hours, or divine office, which are set hours throughout the day given to us by the Church to fulfill St. Paul's command "to pray without ceasing" (1 Thessalonians 5:17). All are welcome each week to pray with the Church as we await the coming of the Christ child.

Additionally, with Christmas just over four weeks away, it is never too early to think of Christmas flowers. Each year, our dedicated Art and Environment team transforms our sanctuary into a beautiful space ready to welcome Jesus in the flesh.

This year, all are invited to contribute to the Christmas flower fund and have your donation given in honor of a living person or in memory of someone who has passed on. All names will be printed in the bulletin the week of Dec. 26/27. The deadline to be included in the bulletin printed edition is Wednesday, Dec. 16.

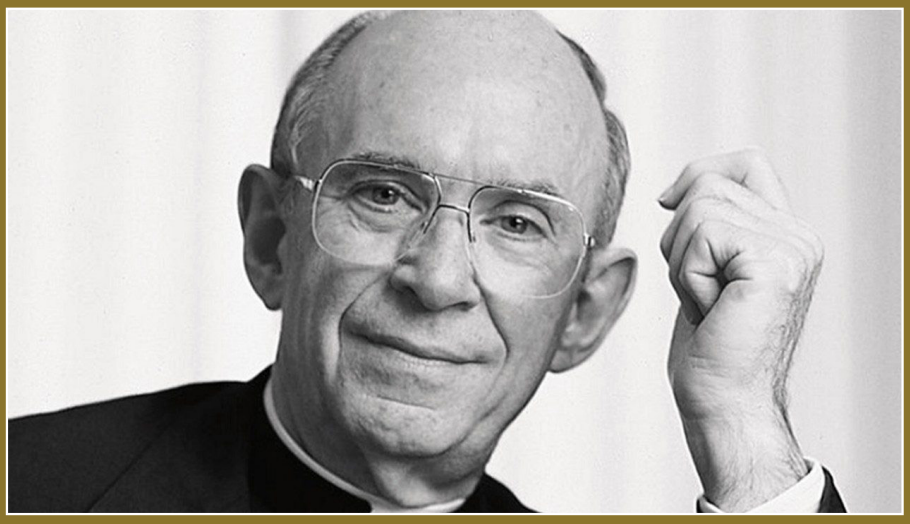

A suggested donation is $15 for each person being honored, and we will remember them at all Christmas Masses as well. Please scan the QR code to donate to the Christmas flower fund.

As we prepare once again to welcome the newborn king into our hearts and our lives through the preparations the season of Advent brings us, let us renew our hope in the fact that God visits his people, and we were made to worship him in prayer, word, and deed.

Here's How to Reserve your Tickets for Midnight Mass

Our registration form to reserve your Midnight Mass tickets is now open! In addition to Midnight Mass, we are offering three Masses on Christmas Eve and four Masses on Christmas Day. You do not need to register for these other Christmas Eve or Christmas Day Masses. All are welcome, and all of our Christmas Masses are first come, first served. There is no overflow seating for Midnight Mass, so we strongly suggest that you register to ensure seating. All registered guests may enter the Cathedral at 11:00pm. At 11:30pm, Christmas carols begin, and we open our doors for all others waiting without advance registration. Scan the QR code at right to reserve your tickets. We will have free parking with extended time for Christmas Carols and the Mass. If the entrance gate is closed, pull a ticket to enter our parking garage at 14 W. Superior. The Exit Gate will be open after mass ends.

Holy Name Cathedral Rector's Annual Appeal

Dear Friends in Christ,

A young professional, burdened by questions about life, faith, and the future, stepped into Holy Name Cathedral for the first time. In the stillness of prayer, he heard these words: "You are home."

For 177 years, Holy Name Cathedral has been a place where hearts are strengthened, faith is renewed, and all are welcome to encounter God's presence.

Today, we ask you to help keep our doors open for those seeking prayer, peace, hope, and a place to belong.

Your gift to the Rector's Appeal helps support the daily operation and ministry of our Cathedral, ensuring that Holy Name remains a spiritual home for generations to come. You are the Church. Together, we are the Body of Christ.

Please prayerfully consider making a gift to the 2026 Rector's Appeal. To contribute to the Rector's Annual Appeal, please scan the QR code below. or leave your donation in the Collection basket.

With profound gratitude,

Very Rev. Gregory Sakowicz
Rector

Remember Your Loved Ones in Our Book of Remembrance

During November, the Month of Remembrance, we invite you to inscribe the names of your deceased loved ones in our Book of Remembrance. The book will be available near the reliquary, at the steps in front of the tabernacle. As each book is filled, it will be placed on the Mary altar for the remainder of November, and a new book will be made available. Through this cherished tradition, we remember with gratitude those who have gone before us in faith and entrust them to God's eternal care.

Honoring Our Loved Ones

Ministers of Care Available to Visit You with Communion

Our Ministers of Care have been trained to visit with, pray with, and bring communion to those in our parish who are sick and unable to attend mass; those who are homebound, in the hospital or in a nursing home. Email Ken Henriksen at khenriksen@holynamecathedral.org or call us at (312) 787-8040 and one of our Ministers of Care will be in touch.

Light a Prayer Candle

Lighting a candle for your family and friends or for a personal prayer is an important Catholic tradition. We know many of you may not be able to come into the Cathedral to light the candle yourself. It would be our honor to have one of our resident priests light a Cathedral Candle on your behalf. They will pray to our Lord to intercede on behalf of your personal intention. Scan the QR code to complete the request form.

Oh most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in my necessity. Oh Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. Oh Holy Mary, Mother of God, queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succor me into my necessity. (Make request). There are none that can withstand your power. Oh Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (three times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in your hand (three times). Say this Prayer for 3 consecutivedays.
